ARIZONA CARDINALS

WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

OWNER

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner.

A native of Chicago, Bill Bidwill presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. Founded in 1898, the Cardinals join the Chicago Bears as the only two remaining charter members of the National Football League (1920). As his involvement with the team continues through its eighth different decade, the current one has seen the franchise reach unprecedented heights. The Cardinals captured their third division crown in a span of eight years in 2015, a total that also includes back-to-back titles in 2008 and '09. Arizona won its first NFC title and advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in team history following the '08 season and the team won a franchise-record 13 games and earned the first postseason bye in team history last season. The Cardinals have gone .500 or better in seven of the last nine seasons - including four 10-win campaigns during that span - and have sold out all 104 games played at University of Phoenix Stadium since it opened in 2006.

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since Bill's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. Charles' wife, Violet, then guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons Bill and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). Bill became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinals vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, Bill Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill has long maintained a presence at the Cardinals training facility and as a popular fixture at team events, charity functions and football activities. An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

While he is well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, Bidwill has been unable to avoid accolades for his contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL. The Paul "Tank" Younger Award has been presented annually since 2003 for extraordinary contributions towards NFL diversity and previous winners include Tony Dungy, Dan Rooney and Bill Walsh. "When you look back over the years, Mr. Bidwill has a long history of hiring minorities to administrative and authoritative positions," said FPA chairman John Wooten. "He has really helped level the playing field and that is what this award is all about."

Also in February of 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. "(He) was honored as a long-time contributor to the NFL and for his contributions to charity, which he has conducted in a very quiet, very generous manner," said Patrick McCaskey, chairman of the group's advisory board and grandson of Chicago Bears legendary head coach George Halas. Bidwill joined Brian Piccolo, the former Bears running back, Tom Monaghan, founder of Domino's Pizza and former owner of the Detroit Tigers, and John Gagliardi, head coach at St. John's (MN) University and college football's all-time wins leader.

At its December 2010 commencement exercises at Northern Arizona University, Bidwill was awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

Bidwill was credited with bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona in January of 1996. The region hosted the game again in February of 2008 when Super Bowl XLVII was played at University of Phoenix Stadium. It hosted its third title game in February of 2015 when Super Bowl XLIX was played and resulted in a record economic impact of $720 million.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy were married in September of 1960 and celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 2010. They are the parents of five children and have nine grandchildren.

MICHAEL J. BIDWILL

PRESIDENT

NOTECARDS

- Since Michael Bidwill took over as team president in 2007, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in seven of nine seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted four double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20). The team has an 84-69 record in nine seasons under Bidwill.
- The 2015 season was a banner year for the organization as the team won the NFC West, set a franchise record for wins in the regular season (13) and earned the first postseason bye in team history.
- Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's nine years as team president. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests since Bidwill took over in 2007. The Cardinals played just seven total playoff games in their entire history prior to his tenure.
- Arizona has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice during Bidwill's time as president (2008, 2015), including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).
- In January of 2016, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey into its Leadership Hall of Fame.
- In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's new Conduct Committee. The committee reviews the league's Personal Conduct Policy at least annually and recommends appropriate changes with advice from outside experts.
- During a nine-day span in January of 2013, Bidwill hired Steve Keim as the team's general manager and Bruce Arians as head coach. The Cardinals 34 regular season wins in the ensuing three seasons represent the most in any three-year span in franchise history.
- Leading the list of his Cardinals accomplishments is the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium. Since its opening in 2006, the team has sold out all 104 games (preseason and postseason included) played at the venue, which has also hosted a pair of Super Bowls and a Pro Bowl.
- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII and XLIX, Michael was instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to Arizona. Played a week apart, Super Bowl XLIX and the 2015 Pro Bowl combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

The Cardinals have been in the Bidwill family since Pro Football Hall of Famer Charles Bidwill purchased the team in 1933. Charles' son Bill handled day-to-day operations for decades before passing the torch to his son, Michael, who joined the organization in 1996 after practicing law for six years as a federal prosecutor.

CARDINALS LEADERSHIP: After initially serving as Vice President/General Counsel, Michael took over as team president in 2007 and his leadership has transformed the franchise. Since '07, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in seven of nine seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted four double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20 years), including a franchise-record 13 victories in 2015. The Cardinals victory over the Packers in the Divisional round last season was the seventh postseason win in franchise history. Of those seven wins, five have come during Bidwill's tenure as team president.

The Cardinals success under Bidwill has greatly elevated the team's popularity both locally and nationally. That fact is best measured in the record-setting ratings for Cardinals game broadcasts. Locally, the team established a host of franchise record for the TV broadcasts in both 2015 and 2014.

Nationally, the team's exposure is at an all-time high. Having never appeared in more than three primetimes games in a single season, the Cardinals played an unprecedented five primetime games during the 2015 regular season and posted a perfect 5-0 record those matchups. Arizona was "flexed" into NBC's Sunday Night Football twice last season; they had only ever been flexed one other time in franchise history. Sunday Night Football has been the most-watched prime time TV show of any kind in the US each of the last five years. The Cardinals victory over the Packers in the Divisional round postseason matchup last season averaged 33.7 million viewers and was the highest-rated primetime Saturday NFL Divisional playoff game ever.

"With the amount of national TV games we were awarded over the last couple seasons, more people have seen us and they've gotten to know our players, our GM and our coach," Bidwill said last season. "We have an opportunity to expand our fan base, not just in Arizona but throughout the country. You see more and more red in the stands when we go on the road now. I want to keep my foot on the gas and build upon that."

A DECADE OF DISTINCTION

The arrival of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006 and appointment of Michael Bidwill as team president in 2007 are viewed as two of the most significant factors in the franchise's success of the last decade. Below is a more detailed look at the franchise's performance in the nine seasons since Michael became team president.

1/10/10 vs. Green Bay	WC	W, 51-45 (OT)
1/18/09 vs. Philadelphia	Conf	W, 32-25
1/3/09 vs. Atlanta	WC	W, 30-24

Another key step in that process took place in 2015 when Bidwill approached NFL Films with the idea for a ground-breaking new project. The result was the critically-acclaimed series, "All or Nothing: A Season with the Arizona Cardinals" that debuted on Amazon Video in July of 2016.

The Cardinals have won more games in the past three seasons (34) than in any previous three-year span in franchise history. That success has been, in part, due to a pair of hires Bidwill made during a nine-day span in January of 2013. On January 8, he hired Steve Keim as General Manager and nine days later tabbed Bruce Arians as head coach. A long-time Cardinals scout, Keim went on to earn NFL Executive of the Year from Pro Football Talk in both 2013 and 2014 and also earned the same honor from the Sporting News in 2014. Arians, meanwhile, has captured a number of the league's most distinguished awards. That includes Associated Press Coach of the Year honors in 2014, marking the second time in three years Arians received that award. Both Keim and Arians had multiple years remaining on their contracts when they were rewarded with extensions from Bidwill in February of 2015.

IF YOU BUILD IT: Among Michael's most significant accomplishments with the Cardinals was leading the effort that led to the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium. The venue has been a critical factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the franchise's success. The team has sold out all 104 games played since the opening of the iconic stadium that has welcomed millions of Cardinals fans. The venue has also allowed Arizona to host a pair of Super Bowls, something that would have been impossible otherwise. After hosting Super Bowl XLII in 2008, the stadium not only staged Super Bowl XLIX in 2015 but also landed the Pro Bowl thanks to Bidwill's lobbying efforts. Super Bowl XLIX and surrounding events delivered an economic impact of $720 million, the highest for any Super Bowl on record and the largest for any special event in the state of Arizona.

In addition to Super Bowl XLIX and the 2015 Pro Bowl, University of Phoenix Stadium also hosted the second-ever College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championship Game last January and is due to host the Fiesta Bowl (CFP Semi-Final Game) in December of 2016 and the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four in April of 2017. It will be the first Final Four ever held in Arizona and the first held west of Texas since 1995.

Another project undertaken by Bidwill was the $15 million expansion and renovation of the team's Tempe practice facility. A three-phase project that took over two years to complete, it added over 92,000 square feet to the team's headquarters (including practice bubble and additions to main building).

Among the upgrades and expansions were a stand-alone 78,000 square foot indoor practice bubble, a new full-service kitchen and dining area, an expanded weight room and new player rehab and cardio area that more than doubled the size of the previous weight room, expanded and newly re-designed locker room for players and coaches, an updated athletic training room and doctor's examination room and additional meeting rooms.

"Michael wants to win," head coach Bruce Arians said last year after the renovations were completed. "It's very evident in just the amount of resources he's poured into upgrading our facility."

BIG HONOR FOR BIDWILL AND DUCEY

This past January, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Arizona Governor Doug Ducey and Cardinals President Michael Bidwill into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame in the lead up to the College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championship.

"Both Governor Ducey and Michael Bidwill realize the significance of being in a position where they can make a difference," said NFF President & CEO Steve Hatchell. "Both have had successful careers in the private sector, and they have stepped forward to give back. They are both proven leaders, and we are proud to shine our national spotlight on them by inducting them into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame."

Established in 2013, the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame provides the NFF with a powerful platform for recognizing the country's most influential individuals who have ascended to the highest levels of success and exhibited the critical leadership qualities that transcend ordinary enterprises.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO GREATER PHOENIX: In addition to his prominent role with the Cardinals, Bidwill has established himself as an influential leader in the greater Phoenix business community where he has been a strong advocate for economic growth and development. From 2008-10, Bidwill served back-to-back terms as Chairman of the Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is also a board member of the Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders. He is also one of 16 members of the Arizona Commerce Authority Board of Directors which the ACA says "unites some of the state's most powerful, proactive officials with its globally recognized leaders of business."

This past January, Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey were inducted into the National Football Foundation (NFF) Hall of Fame for their roles in helping shape the economic future of the state. "Governor Ducey and Michael Bidwill share many similar traits, and they have developed a close relationship with the singular goal of making Arizona a better place," said NFF Chairman Archie Manning. "They have formed a powerful public-private partnership, and we are proud to recognize them for their joint leadership and their efforts to unify their state and promote its reputation as a prime place to conduct business with an unmatched quality of life."

In March, Bidwill was chosen to serve as the Grand Marshal of the 33rd annual St. Patrick's Day parade. The popular parade, considered one of the largest and longest running in Phoenix, is also the Valley's only authentic day-long Irish party.

In May of 2015, Michael was presented with the prestigious Vision Award from the Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau, an honor bestowed just three times previously. "Michael has embraced Greater Phoenix's visitor industry and amplified its power. His proven civic guidance and emergence as a leader in the 'new Arizona' have helped our state make monumental strides as a preferred destination for visitors, job growth and future economic success," said Steve Moore, President and CEO of Visit Phoenix. The three previous recipients were Phoenix mayors Skip Rimsza and Phil Gordon and former Suns and Diamondbacks owner Jerry Colangelo.

Bidwill received the 2014 Transformational Leader Award from the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry. In November of 2013, he received the "West Valley Regional Advancement Award" from Western Maricopa Coalition, which cited continued positive impact in that community. Bidwill was selected by the Phoenix Business Jouranl as one of its 25 "Most Admired CEO's" in 2010.

NFL LEADERSHIP: Within the National Football League, Michael's influence has also increased exponentially in recent years. That was best exemplified in December of 2014 when he was selected to chair the league's new Conduct Committee. Formed to ensure that the league's Personal Conduct Policy remains current and consistent with best practices and evolving legal and social standards, the committee will review that policy at least annually and recommend appropriate changes with advice from outside experts. Bidwill brings unique perspective and experience to the Committee, as he was an Assistant U.S. Attorney with the Department of Justice in Phoenix from 1990-96, specializing in homicide and other violent crime cases.

Michael also chairs the league's Security and Fan Conduct Committee, a group of eight club executives that oversees and develops best security practices for NFL facilities, and has also been a member of the league's Business Ventures Committee since 2007. In December of 2012, he was appointed to the board of the National Football League Foundation which is dedicated to improving the lives of those touched by the game of football – from players at all levels to communities across the country. In March of 2014, the NFL Foundation approved a five-year, $45 million grant to USA Football to support the growth of youth football. An additional $25 million from the NFL Foundation has been committed to new health and safety projects over three years. The Foundation also has committed $1 million in annual grant funding to provide athletic trainers to high schools in underserved areas across the country. In recent years, grants have also been established to support the NFL's annual Crucial Catch initiative in support of Breast Cancer Awareness month, the Salute to Service program in honor of the of the men and women who served and are currently serving in the military, and also to support individual player charitable foundations. In 2015, over 2.5 million individuals were impacted by NFL Foundation grants awarded to individual clubs.

BACKGROUND: Bidwill earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. In May of 2015 – 25 years after his own graduation from the school – Michael delivered the commencement address at Catholic University's School of Law and was also awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters.

A licensed pilot and flying enthusiast, Bidwill also donates his time and resources as a volunteer for "Flying Samaritans," a group of volunteers including doctors and other medical personnel who offer free medical clinics in Mexico. He is also a member of the Air Force Chief of Staff Civic Leader Program whose membership, according to the Air Force, "comprises respected community leaders (who) provide ideas and feedback to advise the secretary of the Air Force, the Air Force chief of staff and Air Force senior leaders about how missions can best be accomplished in their respective areas." Michael additionally is a member of the board for the Pat Tillman Foundation, which carries on the legacy of the former Cardinals safety killed in Afghanistan in 2004.

CARDINALS ESTABLISH BILL BIDWILL COACHING FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Prior to the 2015 season, the Cardinals established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship, a program to provide recently-retired NFL players with the opportunity to gain coaching experience at the highest level. The inaugural participant was former Pro Bowl linebacker Levon Kirkland, who is returning for his second season in 2016 to assist linebackers coach Bob Sanders as OLBs coach.

As Cardinals owner, Bill Bidwill has long been at the forefront in providing opportunities to individuals regardless of race or gender. In 2010, he was honored with the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity in the NFL. In 1978, Adele Harris became the first African American female executive in the NFL when she was hired as the Cardinals director of community relations. In 1981, Bidwill hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club.

Arizona was also the first NFL team with an African American general manager-head coach tandem (Rod Graves/Dennis Green, 2004), and from 2013-14 the Cardinals were the only NFL team whose offensive and defensive coordinators were both African American (Harold Goodwin & Todd Bowles).

STEVE KEIM

COLLEGE: North Carolina State
HOMETOWN: Harrisburg, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 19/18

GENERAL MANAGER

NOTECARDS

- After 14 seasons working within the Cardinals personnel department, Keim was elevated to GM on January 8, 2013.
- During his first three seasons as GM, the Cardinals have more wins (34) than they had in any three-year span in team history. Only Denver (37), New England (36) and Seattle (35) have more wins than Arizona during Keim's tenure as GM.
- Architect of the roster that posted a franchise record 13 wins in 2015, earned the first post-season bye in team history and finished the season with the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense for the first time ever. Arizona ranked in the top-five in the NFL on both offense and defense for the first time since 1963.
- Named Sporting News 2014 NFL Executive of the Year and earned back-to-back NFL Executive of the Year honors from the editors of Pro Football Talk (2013-14).
- In his first 36 months as GM (January of '13 through December of '15), Keim executed 592 roster moves.

Steve Keim was promoted to General Manager on January 8, 2013 after 14 seasons in the Cardinals organization. After the team put together 21 wins during the first two years of his tenure (2013-14), Keim received a contract extension in February of 2015 that will keep him with the team through the 2018 season.

In three seasons since his promotion, the Cardinals have posted a 34-14 record and Keim has developed into one of the league's most highly respected GMs. Named the 2014 Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year in a vote of NFL coaches and team executives, Keim also earned back-to-back NFL Executive of the Year honors from the editors of Pro Football Talk (2013-14).

The roster Keim and his staff put together in 2015 went on to enjoy one of the most successful seasons in franchise history. The team won a franchise record 13 games in the regular season and established team records for total offense, points scored and total TDs. In addition to the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense, the Cardinals finished with the league's fifth-ranked defense. It marked the first time in 52 years the team finished in the top-five in both offense and defense in a single season. With its performance in the regular season, Arizona earned the first postseason bye in franchise history in '15 and advanced to the NFC Championship game.

Keim has worked tirelessly to build the Cardinals roster. During his first year as GM in 2013, he executed 193 roster moves as he helped lead one of the greatest one-year turnarounds in franchise history. He was even busier in 2014, as he dealt with a roster that was littered with injuries from top to bottom. With 21 different players missing a total of 109 games due to injury, including 14 games by QBs Carson Palmer and Drew Stanton, Keim made 217 roster moves as the team won 11 games and earned its first postseason berth since 2009. During his first three seasons as GM, Keim made 592 total roster moves and the team has experienced success unmatched in its long history.

The 43-year old Keim originally joined Arizona in May, 1999 as a college scout in the east. He was promoted to Director of College Scouting in 2006, Director of Player Personnel in 2008, and then was promoted to Vice President, Player Personnel in May, 2012.

In his tenure with the team, Keim and the Cardinals have been commended for their successful draft classes, especially in recent years. Pro Bowlers Patrick Peterson, Larry Fitzgerald, Tyrann Mathieu, Calais Campbell and Justin Bethel were acquired through those drafts, as were standouts such as Michael Floyd, Deone Bucannon and John Brown. Last season's draft class included David Johnson, Markus Golden and Rodney Gunter. Johnson led all NFL rookies and established a franchise rookie record with 13 TDs during his historic debut season in 2015. Golden and Gunter became regular starters on defense as rookies and will look to build upon that in 2016.

Another area in which Keim has had particular success in building the roster is through free agency and trades. During each of his first three offseasons as GM, Keim signed a free agent who went on to make the Pro Bowl that season (Mike Iupati, Antonio Cromartie, John Abraham). The Cardinals were the only team in the NFL to accomplish such a feat. Arizona's free agent signings under Keim include: O-linemen Jared Veldheer and Mike Iupati, DT Frostee Rucker, QB Drew Stanton, RB Chris Johnson, CB Antonio Cromartie and LBs John Abraham and Dwight Freeney. This past offseason, Arizona signed two-time Pro Bowl G Evan Mathis in free agency. Keim's biggest move of the offseason came when he executed a high-profile trade for 26-year old Pro Bowl LB Chandler Jones, who led the Patriots with a career-high 12.5 sacks in 2015. QB Carson Palmer, who made the Pro Bowl last season and who has a 29-9 record as a starter in Arizona, was acquired by Keim in a trade with the Oakland Raiders in 2013.

Of the 53 players on the Cardinals roster at the end of last season, 44 were acquired by Keim during his time as GM.

Keim attended Red Land High School near Harrisburg, PA and earned a bachelor's degree in Communications from North Carolina State 1995. A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim started 36 consecutive games at left guard for the Wolfpack. He was named the offensive freshman of the year in 1991 and was the ACC Player of the Week following the team's victory over Maryland in November, 1994. During a standout senior season where he was also a captain, Keim was named the N.C. State offensive line MVP and won the Jim Ritcher Award for the highest graded offensive lineman in addition to being named third team All-American from Gameplan magazine.

Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League before returning to coach at N.C. State.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as a liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Keim resides in Chandler, AZ with his wife, Kimberly, daughter Sloane, and sons Carson, Brady and Warner.

KEIM PRODUCES WINNING RESULTS

The Cardinals are coming off three consecutive 10+ win seasons in the first three years of Steve Keim's tenure as GM. As soon as he was elevated to the position in January of 2013, Keim began re-shaping the roster. The overhaul during his first three years was dramatic – and resulted in a 34-14 record in that span. During his first 36 months as GM, Keim made a total of 592 roster moves, including 182 moves in 2015 as the Cardinals established a franchise record for wins in a season (13) and their first division title since 2009.

MAKING HIS MARK ON THE ROSTER

- During each of his first three offseasons as GM, Keim signed a free agent who went on to make the Pro Bowl that season (Mike Iupati-2015, Antonio Cromartie-2014, John Abraham-2013). The Cardinals were the only team in the NFL to accomplish such a feat.
- Of the 53 players on the Cardinals final 2015 roster, 44 were acquired by Keim during his time as GM.
- Of the 36 players who started a game for Arizona last season, 28 were brought in by Keim.
- Arizona's final 53-man roster last season featured 21 players who were either drafted by Keim or signed as rookie free agents (15 draft picks, 6 rookie free agents).
- Of the 23 draft picks for the Cardinals between 2013-15, 18 remain with the team. All 7 of the Cardinals 2015 NFL Draft selections remain with the team, four of which started multiple games last season.
- In addition to the contributions made by 2015 free agent signings such as G Mike Iupati, LB Dwight Freeney, RB Chris Johnson, and TE Jermaine Gresham, Keim added young talent in RB David Johnson, LB Markus Golden and DT Rodney Gunter. Johnson established a franchise rookie record with 13 TDs during his historic debut season in 2015. Golden and Gunter became regular starters on defense as rookies.
- Of the Cardinals franchise-record 489 points scored in 2015, 375 were scored by players brought in by Keim. The Cardinals led the NFL with a franchise record 19 different players scoring at least one TD last season. Of those 19 players, 15 were brought in by Keim.
- Of the 489 points scored, 120 were scored by players not with the team in 2014. That includes 78 points by rookie RB David Johnson, who led all NFL rookies with 13 TDs last season.

- Arians came to AZ with 20 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach with five different teams: Indianapolis (2012; 1998-2000), Pittsburgh (2004-11), Cleveland (2001-03), New Orleans (1996), and Kansas City (1989-92).
- At the age of 30, was named head coach at Temple University and spent six seasons (1983-88) there. Also worked as an assistant coach at the collegiate level for 10 seasons with Virginia Tech (1977), Mississippi State (1978-80; 1993-95), and Alabama (1981-82; 1997).

Bruce Arians was named Arizona's head coach on January 17, 2013 when he signed a four-year contract with a team option for a fifth. After earning 2014 NFL Coach of the Year honors for the second time (2012 with Indianapolis) in three years, Arians received a contract extension in February of 2015 that will keep him with the team through the 2018 season.

ARIZONA: During his first three seasons with the Cardinals, Arians has led the team to a 34-14 record. Following a 10-6 campaign during his first season at the helm in 2013, Arians led the team to an 11-5 mark and an appearance in the postseason in 2014 on his way to being named the Associated Press Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons (Indianapolis, 2012). Last season Arians led the Cardinals to a franchise single-season record 13 wins on their way to their first NFC West title since 2009, their first-ever postseason bye and an appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

Arians is the first coach in franchise history – and one of just 10 head coaches in NFL history – to compile 10+ wins in each of his first three seasons as a head coach. The Cardinals have more wins during Arians' tenure (34) than they had in any three-year span in franchise history. Arizona joined Seattle, New England, Denver and Cincinnati as the only teams in the NFL with at least 10 wins in each of the last three seasons.

ARIANS WINS 10 AGAIN

In leading the Cardinals to a franchise record 13 wins in 2015, Bruce Arians became just the 10th head coach in NFL history to win 10+ games in each of his first three seasons as a head coach in the NFL. Of the 10, Arians is one of three to inherit a team that won fewer than six games the year before.

The Cardinals have also compiled a NFC-best 19-5 record at University of Phoenix Stadium in three seasons under Arians, with only New England (22-2), Denver (21-3) and Cincinnati (19-4-1) featuring better home records during that span. Arizona finished the 2014 regular season with a 7-1 record at home, the most home wins for the franchise in a single season since 1925 (11).

In 2015, the Cardinals won their first division title since 2009 after setting a franchise record with 13 wins in the regular season. Arizona secured a first round bye in the postseason for the first time in team history and won the seventh playoff game in franchise history (26-20 vs. Green Bay in the Divisional round) en route to its second ever NFC Championship Game appearance. The Cardinals finished the regular season with the No. 1 ranked offense in the NFL for the first time in franchise history and established franchise single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), total net yards (6,533) and first downs (373). Arizona also established franchise records for road wins (7) and points on the road (262) last season.

In 2014, the Cardinals tied the then-franchise record for wins in a season (11) and earned the team's first postseason berth since 2009 despite 21 different players missing a combined 109 games due to injury, including 14 games by QBs Carson Palmer and Drew Stanton. In a sign of the Cardinals resilience under Arians that season, the Cardinals set a franchise record and tied the Pittsburgh Steelers for the NFL lead with nine come-from-behind victories.

During his first season with the Cardinals in 2013, the team finished with a 10-6 record after winning seven of its final nine games. Arizona doubled its win total from 2012 and the five-win improvement equaled the best single-season turnaround in team history in a 16-game season. Among all-time Cardinals coaches, only Norm Barry (11 in 1925) had more wins in his first season than Arians. Offensively, the team's overall league ranking improved from 32nd to 12th while the defense went from 12th to 6th and finished No. 1 against the run. Arizona's 379 points scored in 2013 are the sixth-best total in franchise history. The 1,351 rushing yards allowed were the fewest ever by a Cardinals team in a 16-game season.

INDIANAPOLIS: Arians came to AZ after one season with the Colts. In addition to offensive coordinator, he served 12 games as interim head coach while Chuck Pagano was treated for leukemia. Arians was selected as the 2012 AP NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Colts to a 9-3 record and a playoff berth while tying the NFL record for most wins ever by an interim coach.

Indy's nine-win improvement (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history. The Colts went through the 2012 season without consecutive losses and were 9-1 in games decided by one score or less.

Arians helped the Colts rank 10th in the NFL (362.4 ypg) in total offense and 7th in passing (258 ypg) and featured rookies that combined for 3,108 yards rushing and receiving, the most of any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger according to STATS LLC. The Colts completed 65 passes of 20 yards or more that season, ranking third in the NFL (Detroit-67, New Orleans-66).

Rookie QB Andrew Luck, the first overall selection in the 2012 draft, made the Pro Bowl and set NFL rookie single-season records for the most passing yards (4,374), most attempts (627) and 300-yard passing games (six). He also set the NFL single-game rookie record for most passing yards (433, 11/4 vs. Miami). Luck finished third on the NFL's rookie list for TD passes (23) and set the franchise record for rushing TDs by a quarterback (five). His passer rating of 76.5 also was a franchise rookie record. He led the Colts on seven game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or OT, the most by a rookie QB since the 1970 merger.

PITTSBURGH: Prior to Indy, Arians spent eight seasons with the Steelers, five as offensive coordinator (2007-2011) and three as wide receivers coach (2004-2006). During his tenure as offensive coordinator, the Steelers had a 55-25 record, tying the Packers for the second-best mark in the NFL in that span. Pittsburgh won three AFC North Division titles, two AFC Championships and earned a victory in Super Bowl XLIII over the Cardinals. Arians was also part of the Steelers Super Bowl XL win as the team's wide receivers coach.

Arians was instrumental in the development of Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, helping him become the second-youngest quarterback to win two Super Bowls (26 years, 336 days). In 2007, Roethlisberger was selected to his first Pro Bowl and broke Terry Bradshaw's team record for touchdown passes in a season (32). Roethlisberger also finished that season with a team-record passer rating of 104.1.

COACH OF THE YEAR

Bruce Arians was named the Associated Press 2014 NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Cardinals to an 11-5 record and a berth in the postseason.

It marked the second time in three years Arians was awarded NFL Coach of the Year honors (Indianapolis, 2012) and he became the first coach in NFL history to be named Coach of the Year multiple times in a three-year span with multiple teams.

Arians is one of 12 coaches in NFL history to win the award multiple times and the sixth to be honored with multiple teams. He is also one of just six coaches in NFL history to earn AP Coach of the Year honors twice in a three-year span.

In 2009, the Steelers offense became the first in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Santonio Holmes, Hines Ward) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. The team also broke franchise records for passing first downs (210) and passes completed (351).

Arians also helped Ward develop into one of the top receivers in the game. In his eight seasons with Arians, Ward was selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl and was named Super Bowl XL MVP after finishing with 123 receiving yards and a touchdown. Ward also became the Steelers all-time leader in receptions, receiving yards and TDs. In 2010, Ward became the first receiver in Steelers history and fifth in NFL history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards.

In his first season in Pittsburgh (2007), Arians helped the Steelers rank third in the NFL in rushing (2,168 yards) and running back Willie Parker finished fourth in the league with 1,316 rushing yards that season and was selected to the Pro Bowl.

MORE NFL COACHING CAREER: Prior to joining the Steelers, Arians spent three seasons (2001-2003) as offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns. In 2002 under his guidance, the Browns scored their most points (344) since 1987 and also improved in virtually every major offensive category.

In his first of what would be two stints with the Colts, Arians spent 1998-2000 as the team's quarterback coach, working under offensive coordinator Tom Moore. Arians tutored Peyton Manning in his first three seasons in the league and helped him earn Pro Bowl nods in his second and third seasons (1999-2000). In 2000, Manning set then team single-season records for passing yards (4,413), completions (357), 300-yard games (5), and touchdown passes (33). The 33 TD passes broke the mark established by Johnny Unitas in 1959.

Arians first job in the NFL was with Kansas City as the team's running backs coach for four seasons (1989-92). With the Chiefs, Arians tutored running back Christian Okoye, who was selected to two Pro Bowls (1989, 1991). Okoye led the league in both rushing attempts (370) and rushing yards (1,480) during the 1989 season and also rushed for 1,031 yards in 1991. Arians spent the '96 season in New Orleans as the Saints tight ends coach.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Arians began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater and then was elevated to running backs coach. From 1978-80, he coached RBs and WRs at Mississippi State before moving within the SEC to Alabama where he worked under legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He coached Crimson Tide running

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2013, Bruce and Christine Arians created the Arians Family Foundation (AFF) with the goal of helping to prevent the abuse and neglect of children. Through her work as a family-law attorney, Christine has worked with Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) to help ensure that children involved in the court system as a result of abuse or neglect by their families received the help they need. With the motto "A Voice For Children," Bruce and Christine carry on the work they both hold so close to their hearts—helping provide a future for children to live where they feel safe and loved.

ARIANS FAMILY FOUNDATION

During its first year, the foundation developed a number of cornerstone events, including the annual Georgia Celebrity Golf Classic. The inaugural event was held in June of 2013 at Great Waters Gold Club in Reynolds Plantation, GA. This past June marked the fourth year of the event when it was held at the Oconee Golf Course in Reynolds Plantation.

With golf again serving as a backdrop, the first annual Arizona Celebrity Golf Classic was held March of 2014 at the Westin-Kierland Resort in Scottsdale, AZ. The event, which is aimed at raising money to train new CASA personnel to help support the 10,000+ kids in foster care in Maricopa County, returned for the third time in March of 2016 and was once again held at Westin-Kierland Resort.

The AFF expanded again in 2015 with a new signature event, holding the inaugural Arians Family Foundation Fundraiser Dinner on June 8 at Steak 44 in Phoenix. The event returned in the summer of 2016 and took place at Steak 44 for the second consecutive year.

In April of '14, the AFF held its inaugural Superhero Walk-Run at Kiwanis Park in Tempe, AZ. Participants were encouraged to dress up as their favorite superhero for a 5K fun run and walk to benefit CASA and the child welfare system in Arizona. In November of '13, the AFF held its first annual Putt Putt 4 Purpose Celebrity Golf Challenge at Golfland in Mesa, AZ, in which Cardinals coaches, players, and many others played rounds of putt putt golf to help support the foundation.

The AFF has also benefited through the sales of Arians inspired t-shirts and hats. The "Coach" t-shirt is all red with a graphic of Arians' signature look designed by Arizona company State Forty Eight. For every "Coach" t-shirt sold, $5 is donated to the AFF. So far, over $15,000 has gone to the foundation. New Era has also helped support the AFF through sales of an Arians inspired signature hat that fans can buy with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the foundation.

- Combined with 13 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level and one year in the World Football League, Moore enters his 52nd year of coaching in 2016.
- Has coached Hall of Famers Lynn Swann, John Stallworth, Terry Bradshaw, Franco Harris, Mike Webster, Barry Sanders, Marshall Faulk, Randall McDaniel, Cris Carter and Marvin Harrison, and has worked under Hall of Fame head coaches Chuck Noll and Tony Dungy.

- During his time as an offensive coordinator in the NFL, his players have led the league in rushing yards (3x), receiving yards (3x), passing yards (2x), yards from scrimmage (2x), receptions (3x), receiving TDs (once), passing TDs (3x) and passer rating (3x).
- Arizona had the #1 offense in the NFL in 2015 for the first time in franchise history and set team single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), TD passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237).
- In his first season with Cardinals in 2013, Carson Palmer threw for 4,274 yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Arizona's offense finished with 379 points and 5,542 net yards, both good for 6th in franchise history.
- Coached Peyton Manning for 13 seasons (1998-2010), helping him set Colts franchise records with 54,828 passing yards, 399 touchdowns and 4,682 completions (which all ranked in the top-five in league history) and set an NFL record with four of his five Most Valuable Player Awards (2003-04, 2008-09).
- Only four times in NFL history has a team had two players record 100+ receptions in a single season. Moore served as the offensive coordinator for two of those teams—Indianapolis, 2009 (Reggie Wayne, 100; Dallas Clark, 100) and Detroit, 1995 (Herman Moore, 123; Brett Perriman, 108).
- His 1999 unit had Manning with 4,135 yards, running back Edgerrin James with 1,553 yards and wide receiver Marvin Harrison with 1,663 yards, marking only the second NFL offense ever with 4,000-1,500-1,500 performers. The only other team to do that was Detroit in 1995 and their offensive coordinator was Tom Moore.
- In May of 2014, was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Chapter) in recognition of his 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

One of the league's most experienced assistant coaches, Tom Moore enters his 38th NFL season and fourth in Arizona after he joined the team as assistant head coach/offense on 1/21/13. With a career that dates back to 1961 at his alma mater, the University of Iowa, Moore enters his 52nd season as a coach in 2016.

Moore came to Arizona in 2013 after spending the 2011 season as an offensive consultant with the NY Jets and the final five weeks of the 2012 campaign in the same capacity with the Tennessee Titans.

Last season, the Cardinals had the top ranked offense in the NFL for the first time in franchise history and established single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), TD passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237). QB Carson Palmer set franchise records with 4,671 passing yards, 35 TD passes and a 104.6 QB rating and was named to the Pro Bowl. WR Larry Fitzgerald had a team record 109 receptions and was selected to his ninth Pro Bowl while RB David Johnson set a Cardinals rookie record with 13 TDs while totaling 1,636 all-purpose yards.

In 2014, Palmer became the first Cardinals quarterback to win each of his first six starts in a season since Jim Hart (7) in 1974. Palmer is now 29-9 as the starting quarterback with the Cardinals, the best record for an Arizona QB in his first 38 games with the team in the modern era. In his first season in Arizona in 2013, Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Arizona's offense finished with 379 points and 5,542 net yards, both good for 6th in team history and finished ranked 12th in the NFL.

From 1998-2010, Moore helped coordinate a record-breaking offense in Indianapolis that was among the NFL's most prolific attacks over that stretch. After 12 seasons as the offensive coordinator (1998-09), Moore served as the team's senior offensive assistant in 2010. During those 13 seasons, the Colts offense ranked among the NFL's top five in nine different seasons, five times it led the league in third down conversions, eight times it ranked in the NFL's top three in scoring and seven times it ranked first in fewest sacks allowed. The passing attack ranked in the top five 11 times and never finished lower than sixth during that span. The Colts produced the 10 highest net yardage seasonal totals in club history and topped 5,000 total yards in a franchise-record 13 straight seasons. The club set a franchise seasonal record with 429 points in 2000, then bested the mark in 2003 (447) and again in 2004 (522). Indianapolis amassed 400+ points in 10 of the 13 seasons Moore was with the team. The club scored 522 points in 2004, then the fifth-highest seasonal total in NFL history, while the Colts set a club single-season mark with 66 touchdowns. The Colts boasted a 4,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season seven times (1999-2001, 03-04, 06-07), becoming the first team in NFL history to accomplish the feat in three consecutive seasons (1999-01). Under Moore's watch, nine different players from the Colts offense combined for 37 total Pro Bowl selections.

Moore arrived in Indianapolis the same season as Peyton Manning (1998), and under his tutelage Manning went on to earn 11 Pro Bowl selections, six first-team All-Pro nods and became one of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history. In their 13 years working together, Manning set Colts franchise records with 54,828 passing yards, 399 touchdowns, 4,682 completions (which all ranked in the top-five in league history) and won an NFL-record four of his five career Most Valuable Player Awards (2003-04, 2008-09). He is the only player to have 3,000+ yards and 25+ touchdown passes in his first 13 seasons, and he led the NFL in passing yards twice, in passing TDs three times, and in passer rating three times. He started the first 208 regular season games of his career, the most in NFL history by any player, and Manning became the only player in the Super Bowl era with 11 double-digit victory seasons and the only player with nine straight seasons with 10+ starting wins.

He threw for 4,000+ yards an NFL-record 11 times and tied Dan Marino's NFL record with 63 300-yard passing performances. In 2004, Manning posted one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a quarterback, throwing for 4,557 yards and establishing then-NFL records with 49 touchdown passes and a 121.1 passer rating. During his time with Moore in Indianapolis, Manning produced the 13 best seasons in franchise history in completions and yards, the 12 best seasons in attempts, 12 of the 13 best seasons in completion percentage and 13 of the 15 best seasons in touchdown passes.

Also during Moore's tenure with the Colts, wide receivers Marvin Harrison and Reggie Wayne became the two most prolific pass catchers in team history and one of the most formidable tandems in the NFL. Harrison went to eight straight Pro Bowls (1999-06), surpassing 80 receptions and 1,100 yards in all eight of those seasons, including an NFL single-season record 143 catches in 2002 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2016. Wayne, who joined the Colts as the team's first round pick in 2001, developed into one of the NFL's best WRs with seven straight seasons of 75+ catches and 1,000 receiving yards from 2004-10 and was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (2006-10). Moore also coached running back Edgerrin James from 1999-2005, as James set Colts franchise records with 9,226 yards, 64 rushing TDs and 49 100-yard games on his way to four Pro Bowl selections (1999-2000, 2004-05). James was a finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame this year in his second year of eligibility. James and Harrison topped 100 yards in their respective categories in the same game 22 times, the most by any tandem in NFL history. In 2000, Manning (passing yards) and James (rushing yards) led the NFL in their respective categories, marking only the second time in NFL history (1937, Washington QB Sammy Baugh and RB Cliff Battles) one team had the passing and rushing champion. Manning (11), Harrison (8),

NFL ASSISTANTS WITH THE MOST EXPERIENCE

Hired by the Cardinals in 2013 to serve as Assistant Head Coach/Offense, Tom Moore enters his 38th year of coaching in the NFL. Along with pass rush specialist Tom Pratt, the duo have more coaching experience among active NFL assistants than any other coach in the NFL outside of Tennessee's Dick LeBeau (44).

Wayne (5), Jeff Saturday (5) and James (4) earned multiple Pro Bowl bids during Moore's tenure. James also won two NFL rushing titles (1999, 2000).

Moore entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1977 where he coached for 13 seasons. In that span, Moore coached wide receivers (1977-82) before assuming the role of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (1983-89). He helped lead the Steelers to victories in Super Bowl XIII (35-31 over Dallas) and Super Bowl XIV (31-19 over Rams). During his six seasons as wide receivers coach in Pittsburgh, Moore coached future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann and John Stallworth, both of whom earned multiple Pro Bowl selections under Moore. As offensive coordinator, Moore also helped tutor future Hall of Famers including Terry Bradshaw, Franco Harris and center Mike Webster, who went to the Pro Bowl five times during Moore's tenure. In seven seasons at the helm of the Pittsburgh offense, the team piled up over 5,000 yards four different seasons.

Following his tenure in Pittsburgh, Moore joined the Minnesota Vikings (1990-93), serving as assistant head coach/quarterbacks (1990), assistant head coach/offensive coordinator (1991) and wide receivers coach (1992-93). It was under Moore's guidance that future Hall of Famer Cris Carter earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 1993 after setting then-career marks for receptions (86) and receiving yards (1,071). He then joined Detroit as quarterbacks coach (1994) before being promoted to offensive coordinator (1995-96). During that three-year span, Barry Sanders ran for nearly 5,000 yards (5.2 yard avg.). In 1995, Detroit led the NFL in total offense (6,113 yards) and became the first NFL team to have two receivers post 100+ receptions (Herman Moore, 123; Brett Perriman, 108). The 3,174 combined yards by Moore and Perriman set the NFL single-season record for receiving yards by a tandem. Herman Moore posted career-highs in receptions (123), receiving yards (1,686) and receiving TDs (14). Following his tenure in Detroit, Moore spent one season in New Orleans as the Saints running backs coach (1997).

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Iowa, serving as the freshmen coach from 1961-62. Following a two-year stint serving in the United States Army (1963-64) where he coached a division team in Korea and the post team at Fort Benning, GA, Moore served as offensive backfield coach at Dayton from 1965-68.

He then worked as offensive coordinator at Wake Forest (1969) and offensive backfield coach at Georgia Tech (1970-71) before assuming the offensive backfield position at the University of Minnesota (1972-73). Following one season (1974) in the World Football League with the New York Stars as an offensive assistant, Moore returned to the University of Minnesota as offensive coordinator from 1975-76.

After earning All-American honors as a quarterback at Rochester (MN) High School, Moore played at Iowa (1957-60), winning a Big 10 title in 1958 and earning a share of another in 1960. He earned a bachelor's degree in History at Iowa and a master's degree in Guidance Counseling at Dayton. In 2005, Moore was inducted into the Rochester, Minnesota Sports Hall of Fame. In May of 2014, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Chapter) in recognition of his 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Moore and his wife Emily, have two children, daughter, Terry, and son, Dan.

- Played collegiately at Michigan on the offensive line (1992-94) before beginning his coaching career with the Wolverines as a student assistant (1995-96) and a graduate assistant in 1997.

Harold Goodwin enters his fourth season with the Cardinals as offensive coordinator after he joined the team on 1/21/13. He came to the Cardinals in 2013 after working one season as the offensive line coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2012) and five seasons (2007-11) as an offensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Cardinals offense has come full circle in Goodwin's three seasons as coordinator. The NFL's 32nd ranked unit the year prior to his arrival (2012), the Cardinals finished the 2015 season with the league's top-ranked offense for the first time in franchise history. Arizona also established single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), TD passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237) last season. QB Carson Palmer set franchise records with 4,671 passing yards, 35 TD passes and a 104.6 QB rating and was named to the Pro Bowl. WR Larry Fitzgerald had a team record 109 receptions and was selected to his ninth Pro Bowl while RB David Johnson set a Cardinals rookie record with 13 TDs while totaling 1,636 all-purpose yards. The offensive line only gave up 27 sacks on 562 pass attempts in 2015, the fourth-fewest in the NFL.

In 2014, Palmer became the first Cardinals QB in 40 years to win each of his first six starts in a season before suffering a knee injury. Arizona went on to win 11 games for the first time since 1975 despite four different quarterbacks seeing action under center.

In his first season in Arizona in 2013, Goodwin helped lead a Cardinals offense that ranked 12th in the NFL, totaled 379 points (tied for 6th in franchise history) and collected 5,542 net yards of offense (6th in team history). Palmer threw for a then career-high 4,274 yards, rookie RB Andre Ellington totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards (552 rushing, 371 receiving) and Fitzgerald earned his eighth career Pro Bowl selection after having a team-high 10 touchdowns.

As offensive line coach with the Colts in 2012, Goodwin helped an Indy offense that finished 10th in the NFL (362.4 ypg) and featured rookies that combined for 3,108 yards rushing and receiving, the most of any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger according to STATS, LLC. Rookie QB Andrew Luck threw for the most passing yards (4,374) by a rookie in NFL history and had an NFL rookie record six 300-yard passing games. He also led the Colts on seven game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or OT, the most by a rookie QB since the 1970 merger. Indy's nine-win improvement from 2011 (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history.

With the Steelers as an offensive assistant, Goodwin worked with the offensive line, which consistently produced one of the NFL's top rushing attacks. During his tenure in Pittsburgh, the Steelers averaged 118.5 rushing yards per game. He helped the Steelers win Super Bowl XLIII and advance to Super Bowl XLV. In 2010, Goodwin assisted in the development of rookie center Maurkice Pouncey, who started all 16 regular season games, earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and was named to The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie teams. Pouncey was the first Steelers rookie to start his first NFL game since Marvel Smith in 2000. Pouncey earned Pro Bowl selections in both of his seasons working with Goodwin.

Goodwin got his start in the NFL with the Chicago Bears, spending three seasons as assistant offensive line coach (2004-2006). During that span the Bears ranked 10th in the NFL averaging 117.5 rushing yards per game. While coaching the Bears, he faced off against his brother, Jonathan, in the 2006 NFC Championship Game against the Saints.

Prior to joining the Bears, Goodwin was the offensive line coach at Central Michigan from 2000-2003, where he worked with future pros Eric Ghiaciuc and Adam Kieft. Goodwin also served as assistant head coach in 2003.

He began his coaching career at Eastern Michigan in 1998 working with tight ends and offensive tackles before coaching the offensive line in 1999. A native of Columbia, SC, Goodwin was a guard at Michigan (1992-1994) and played two seasons (1993-94) before a knee injury ended his career.

Following his playing days, Goodwin stayed in Ann Arbor and spent the next two years (1995-96) as a student assistant before serving as a graduate assistant with the Wolverines in 1997 when Michigan won the national title. During that time, he worked with an offensive line which featured future seven-time Pro Bowler Steve Hutchinson, along with 2001 first round pick Jeff Backus and 1999 second-round selection Jon Jansen.

Goodwin's brother, Jonathan, is a former center in the NFL who played with the San Francisco 49ers, New York Jets and the New Orleans Saints where he was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2010. Harold graduated from Michigan in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in Sports Management/Communications. He and his wife, Monica, have three children, daughters Kylee and Miya, and a son, Bryson.

Dating back to 1941, he became one of just three Steelers players with at least one punt return for a touchdown and one kick return for a touchdown in a season. Brown finished the 2011 season with a 27.3-yard average on kickoff returns and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl as a returner.

In 2009, the Steelers were the NFL's top kickoff return team with a franchise record 1,581 return yards. Stefan Logan had a team record 1,466 kickoff return yards (1,306 yards-Ernie Mills, 1995). Under Jones guidance, three linebackers earned freshman All-SEC recognition and two punters earned all-conference honors. Jones spent the 2003 season at James Madison University as tight ends and special teams coach. BRENTSON BUCKNER

COLLEGE: Clemson
HOMETOWN: Charlotte, NC
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 16/4
DOB: September 30, 1971

DEFENSIVE LINE

Veteran NFL defensive lineman Brentson Buckner enters his fourth season with the Cardinals and fourth year as an NFL assistant after joining the team as defensive line coach on 2/5/13.

A second-round pick (50th overall) of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Clemson, Buckner played in 174 games (127 starts) in his 12-year NFL career with Pittsburgh (1994-96), Cincinnati (1997), San Francisco (1998-2000) and Carolina (2001-05). He had 31 sacks, two interceptions, five forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries in his career.

Last year, Buckner helped defensive tackle Calais Campbell earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection and he tutored defensive tackle Rodney Gunter, who became a regular starter during his rookie season. The Cardinals fielded one of the NFL's top defenses in 2015, finishing the year with the NFL's fifth-ranked defense overall. The unit ranked second in the NFL with 33 total takeaways and tied Kansas City for the league lead with six defensive TDs. Arizona also ranked sixth in run defense (91.3 ypg) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6) last season.

In 2014, the Cardinals allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. Calais Campbell was named to his first-ever Pro Bowl while ninth-year lineman Frostee Rucker posted a career-high 5.0 sacks. In his first year as an assistant coach in 2013, the Cardinals defense finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game). The Cardinals allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351) and collected 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history.

As a member of the Steelers, Buckner started all 16 games during the 1995 regular season and all three playoff games in helping the Steelers reach Super Bowl XXX, which was played at Sun Devil Stadium. After three years with Pittsburgh, he was traded to Kansas City in 1997, but was waived by the Chiefs and claimed by Cincinnati prior to the season.

He signed with the 49ers as a free agent in 1998 and spent three seasons in San Francisco, setting a career high with seven sacks in 2000. He went to Carolina as a free agent in 2001 and played the final five years of his career with the Panthers. In 2003, he was a part of one of the league's top defensive lines alongside defensive ends Julius Peppers and Mike Rucker and defensive tackle Kris Jenkins. The group helped lead the Panthers to Super Bowl XXXVIII, the first Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

After retiring from the NFL following the 2005 season, Buckner coached high school in his hometown of Charlotte, serving as the defensive coordinator at Victory Christian High School and then as head coach at Northside Christian Academy (2008-09). He was a training camp intern with the Steelers for three years (2010-12) and was named the head coach of the Charlotte Speed of the Professional Indoor Football League in July 2012, but the team folded before playing a game.

Born in Columbus, GA, Buckner played collegiately at Clemson (1990-93). A three-year starter, he left ranked third in school history with 22 sacks and fourth with 46 tackles for loss. He helped the Tigers to an ACC Championship in 1991 and a nine-win season in 1993, which was capped off by a 14-13 win over Kentucky in the Peach Bowl where he had 13 tackles and was named Defensive MVP. In 2013, Buckner was named to the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame.

TIGHT ENDS

Veteran collegiate coach Rick Christophel (KRIS-tuh-fell) enters his fourth season with the Cardinals and fourth year in the NFL after he joined the team as tight ends coach on 2/5/13. Christophel came to the Cardinals after spending six years (2007-12) as the head coach at his alma mater, Austin Peay State University.

Last year, the Cardinals had the top ranked offense in the NFL for the first time in team history and established single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), TD passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237). The team's tight ends combined for 43 receptions, 567 yards and six TDs last season.

In 2013, Christophel helped Arizona's offense finish 12th overall in the NFL and score 379 points on the year, tied for the sixth-best single season total in franchise history. Arizona's 5,542 net yards of offense that season were also good for sixth in team annals.

While at Austin Peay, Christophel led the Governors to a 7-4 record in his first season at the helm (2007) becoming the first Austin Peay head coach since his mentor Watson Brown (1979) to win seven games in his initial season. The seven wins represented the highest total by a Governors scholarship program since the 1984 team went 7-4 and their 5-3 Ohio Valley Conference record were their most league victories since 1980.

Prior to his stint as the head coach at Austin Peay, Christophel amassed more than 25 years of experience as a college assistant. He spent 12 years (1995-2006) at the University of Alabama-Birmingham, where he served in a variety of roles at the school. He began his tenure in 1995 as offensive coordinator/running backs coach before coaching the team's wide receivers from 1996-98 where he tutored junior receiver Darrius Malone, who set the school's single-season record with an average of 22.1 yards per catch. In 1997, he coached quarterback Kevin Drake, who became the first offensive player in UAB history to go to the NFL when he signed a free-agent contract with the Cardinals.

In 1999, Christophel worked with the Blazers offensive tackles and tight ends before serving as wide receivers coach in 2000, also taking on the title of director of football operations that year. In 2001, Christophel began the first of two stints as defensive coordinator at UAB, helping the Blazers defense lead the country in rushing yards allowed (57.3 ypg), ranking fifth nationally in total defense (265.9 ypg) and finishing 16th in scoring defense with (18.7 points per game). From 2002-03 he stepped away from coaching, serving as senior associate athletics director at the school.

He returned to the sideline in 2004 working with both the offensive and defensive line before becoming the assistant head coach/defensive line in 2005 and serving as the defensive coordinator for the second time at the school in 2006.

Prior to working at UAB, Christophel coached wide receivers at Mississippi State for four seasons (1991-94). From 1993-94, he worked alongside Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, who was the offensive coordinator for the Bulldogs at the time. During Christophel's tenure at Mississippi State, he coached three future NFL receivers – Eric Moulds, Olanda Truitt and Willie Harris. The Bulldogs played in three bowl games during that span as well (Liberty Bowl-1991 and Peach Bowl-1993 and 1995).

He coached at Vanderbilt for five seasons (1986-90), holding various titles including offensive backs coach (1986-88), defensive coordinator and middle linebackers coach (1989) and assistant head coach and offensive backs coach (1990).

Before working at Vanderbilt, Christophel coached quarterbacks and running backs at Rice (1984-85) and was the quarterbacks/tight ends coach at Cincinnati in 1983. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator at Southern Arkansas State University in 1982 and coached running backs at Austin Peay for three seasons (1979-81). He got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Austin Peay (1975) and was an assistant coach at Highlands High School (Fort Thomas, KY) from 1976-78.

Christophel was a four-year starter on the Governors football team (1971-74). A two-time captain, he played safety in his first season before switching to play quarterback for his final three years. His brothers, Rob and Randy, also played quarterback at Austin Peay.

He received a bachelor's degree in Business in 1975 and a master's in Education from Austin Peay. A native of Reading, OH, Christophel and his wife, Connie, have three daughters, Chrissy, Carrie and Sara, and seven grandchildren.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Darryl Drake enters his fourth season with the Cardinals and 13th year as an NFL assistant after he joined the team as wide receivers coach on 2/5/13. He came to Arizona in 2013 after coaching wide receivers the previous nine seasons (2004-12) with the Chicago Bears.

With the Cardinals the past three years, Drake has coached wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald, who was selected to two Pro Bowls in that span, including his ninth Pro Bowl last season after setting a franchise single-season record with 109 receptions.

Last season, the Cardinals had the top ranked offense in the NFL and established single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), TD passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237). Wide receiver John Brown had 65 receptions for 1,003 yards and seven TDs in his second season. Combined with Fitzgerald's 1,215 receiving yards in 2015, it marked just the fifth time in team history the Cardinals had multiple players with 1,000+ receiving yards in a season. Drake was named by Pro Football Focus as the top wide receivers coach in the NFL in 2015.

During the 2014 season Drake mentored rookie wideout John Brown, who went on to establish an NFL rookie record with four game-winning TD receptions on the year. Michael Floyd established a career-high with six TD receptions and ranked second among NFL receivers averaging 17.9 yards per reception.

In 2013, Michael Floyd posted his first 1,000-yard season (1,041 yards) while collecting a career-high 65 receptions. The Cardinals offense finished 12th in the NFL and Arizona's 5,542 net yards of offense were good for sixth in team history that season.

In 2012 with the Bears, Drake tutored Pro Bowl wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who set Chicago franchise records with 118 catches for 1,508 yards to go along with 11 TDs. Marshall finished second in the NFL in both receptions and receiving yards behind Detroit's Calvin Johnson. Throughout his tenure in Chicago, Drake helped develop young talent at the wide receiver position, including Johnny Knox, Earl Bennett and Devin Hester. In 2011, Knox finished second in the NFL in receiving average (19.6 ypc) a year after finishing fifth in the NFL at 18.8 yards per reception. In 2009, Knox's 45 receptions tied for the most ever by a Bears rookie wide receiver, tied for third all-time by a Chicago rookie and was seventh among NFL rookies.

In 2009, the Bears were tied for the fewest dropped passes in the NFL with just 20. During Chicago's Super Bowl run in 2006, the Bears led the NFL by hauling in 95.9% (282 of 294) of the catchable balls thrown their way. The 12 drops by Chicago's receivers that season equaled Buffalo for fewest in the league.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2004, Drake coached for 21 seasons at the collegiate level. He spent six seasons (1998-2003) as the wide receivers coach at the University of Texas, also adding the title of associate head coach on Mack Brown's staff prior to the 2003 season. At Texas, Drake guided three different Longhorn wide receivers to first-team All-Big 12 honors and directed three of the most productive receiving duos in Texas history. While coaching the first three 1,000-yard receivers in the school history, the Longhorns averaged nearly 10 wins a season. Drake mentored first-round draft pick Roy Williams, who finished his Texas career as the leading receiver in school history with 251 receptions for 4,017 yards (16.0 yards per reception) and 37 touchdowns. He also coached Wayne McGarity, a fourth-round draft pick of the Dallas Cowboys in 1999.

Prior to working at Texas, Drake spent one season (1997) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Baylor after five seasons coaching wide receivers at Georgia (1992-96). During his time with the Bulldogs, Drake tutored some of the top receivers in the SEC, including NFL Pro Bowler Hines Ward.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, as a graduate assistant (1983-84) and spent nine seasons with the Hilltoppers, working with the wide receivers for four seasons (1985-88), the secondary for two years (1989-90) and serving as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1991.

Drake starred as a wide receiver for WKU in 1975 and during the 1977-78 seasons. He helped the Hilltoppers to an 8-2 record and the Ohio Valley Conference Championship as a senior and was a member of their 11-2 OVC Championship squad that played in the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1975.

Following his collegiate career, Drake spent time in training camp with the Washington Redskins (1979) and Cincinnati Bengals (1983) in addition to playing one season with the Ottawa Roughriders of the Canadian Football League (1981). The Louisville, KY, native earned his bachelor's degree in 1980 and a master's degree in 1984 from Western Kentucky.

Drake was an All-State performer in football and an All-American in both track and field and basketball at Flaget (Louisville, KY) High School. He and his wife, Sheila, have three daughters, Shanice, Felisha and Marian and two grandchildren.

In his first season as an assistant coach last year, the Cardinals finished the year with the NFL's fifth-ranked defense. The unit ranked second in the NFL with 33 total takeaways and tied Kansas City for the league lead with six defensive TDs. Arizona also ranked sixth in run defense (91.3 ypg) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6) last season. As a senior, he was a first-team All-American selection by Football News, a second-team selection by The Sporting News and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and a consensus first-team all-conference selection. Foote was a first-team All-Big Ten choice by the league's coaches as a junior in 2000 and earned second-team honors from the media. He played in every game during his freshman and sophomore seasons. He majored in Physical Education in the division of Kinesiology.

He was a PrepStar Magazine High School All-American at Pershing (Detroit, MI) High School and earned all-state honors as a senior. BILL BIDWILL FELLOWSHIP/OLB'S

Former Pro Bowl linebacker Levon Kirkland enters his second season with the Cardinals as the Bill Bidwill Fellowship/OLB's coach after joining Arizona's staff in 2015.

Last year, Kirkland was the inaugural participant in the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship, a program established by the Cardinals to provide recently-retired minority NFL players with the opportunity to gain coaching experience at the highest level. For the second straight year, Kirkland will assist linebackers coach Bob Sanders this season as part of that program.

Selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the second round (38th overall) of the 1992 NFL Draft out of Clemson, Kirkland played inside linebacker for 11 NFL seasons with the Steelers (1992-2000), Seahawks (2001) and Eagles (2002). A two-time Pro Bowler (1996-97) and two-time All-Pro selection (1997-97), he appeared in 176 games (155 starts) and registered 1,110 tackles, 19.5 sacks, 11 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles and nine recoveries. He was also one of six linebackers selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's All-1990s Team, joining Junior Seau, Derrick Thomas, Kevin Greene, Hardy Nickerson and Cornelius Bennett.

A Lamar, SC native, Kirkland was named NFL Alumni Linebacker of the Year in 1997 and was a two-time Steelers team MVP (1998-99). He appeared in 13 postseason games (12 starts) in his career and played in Super Bowl XXX with the Steelers while also reaching the NFC Championship as a member of the Eagles in 2002.

He joined the Cardinals after coaching at Florida A&M for two seasons (2013-14), the first as linebackers coach and the second with the added title of defensive coordinator. Prior to working at Florida A&M, Kirkland was an assistant at the high school level at Hampton High School (Greenville, SC) in 2009 and Woodmont High School (Piedmont, SC) in 2010-11 before serving as head coach at Shannon Forest Christian School (Greenville, SC) in 2012.

Kirkland was named to the Clemson University All-Centennial team and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2001. After retiring from the NFL following the 2002 season, he returned to Clemson to earn a degree in Sociology in 2004. He also worked at his alma mater coordinating minority recruitment in university admissions.

He was a four-year starter at outside linebacker at Clemson and ended his career with the fourth-highest sack total in school history (19) while never missing a game. Kirkland set a school record with 43 starts, was one of 12 Lombardi Award finalists and earned first-team All-America and All-ACC honors as a senior in 1991 after having 5.5 sacks and 67 tackles. As a junior, he was the only underclassman among the five Butkus Award finalists. As a sophomore in 1989, he finished the season with 6.5 sacks, 77 tackles and three interceptions. As a freshman, he had 5.5 sacks and 71 tackles while starting seven games.

Kirkland earned honorable mention All-State honors at Lamar (SC) High School as a tight end, linebacker and kick returner. He also lettered in basketball in high school. His cousin Devon Still, plays defensive tackle with the Houston Texans and his uncle, Lamont Kirkland, was a light heavyweight professional boxer. Kirkland has two children - daughter, Kennedy, and son, Zach.

FREDDIE KITCHENS

COLLEGE: Alabama
HOMETOWN: Gadsen, AL
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 11/10
DOB: November 29, 1974

QUARTERBACKS

Former Alabama quarterback Freddie Kitchens enters his 10th season on the Cardinals coaching staff and fourth in the role of quarterbacks coach after his appointment on 2/5/13. He previously served as Arizona's tight ends coach for six seasons after joining the team in 2007.

A three-year starter at quarterback for the University of Alabama (1995-97), Kitchens finished his playing career with 4,668 yards and 30 touchdown passes for the Crimson Tide. His offensive coordinator as a senior in 1997 was current Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians. Upon his departure, he ranked third in Alabama history in career attempts, fourth in career passing yards and fifth in career completions. Alabama went 22-13 during those three seasons and went to the 1993 Gator Bowl, 1995 Citrus Bowl and the 1997 Outback Bowl.

Last season, the Cardinals had the top ranked offense in the NFL for the first time in team history and established single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), TD passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237). Quarterback Carson Palmer was selected to the Pro Bowl after he set franchise records with 4,671 passing yards, 35 TD passes and a 104.6 passer rating while starting all 16 games and both postseason contests. He also had 11 games with a 100+ passer rating to lead the NFL and was named second-team All-Pro. Palmer has accumulated a 29-9 record as a starter in Arizona while working under Kitchens, which includes an NFL-best .863 win percentage (19-3) over the last two seasons.

In 2014, Palmer became the first Cardinals QB in 40 years to win each of his first six starts in a season before suffering a knee injury. Arizona went on to win 11 games for the first time since 1975 despite four different quarterbacks seeing action under center.

Following an offseason in 2013 where Kitchens fell ill during an OTA practice on June 4 that required immediate emergency surgery at the Arizona Heart Institute due to an aortic dissection, he recovered in time for the first day of training camp and helped a Cardinals offense that finished 12th in the NFL. Palmer threw for a then career-high 4,274 yards and became the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Palmer also had 24 TD passes and completed 362 passes while leading the Cardinals offense that had 5,542 net yards, the sixth-most in franchise history.

In 2012, Cardinals tight end Rob Housler had 45 receptions for 417 yards. In franchise history, only two TE's (Jackie Smith and Freddie Jones) had more catches in a season than Housler did in 2012. In 2011, Kitchens oversaw a group of tight ends that totaled 65 receptions for 712 yards and four touchdowns. In 2007, the tight end trio of Leonard Pope, Ben Patrick and Troy Bienemann helped the Cardinals finish with the #5 ranked passing offense in the NFL as well as helping to record 32 passing TDs. As a group, the eight TDs caught by the tight ends were the most by the Cardinals since 1988 and the trio also recorded six red zone touchdowns, helping the Cardinals to the second-best red zone scoring offense in the NFL (94.0%).

Kitchens began his NFL coaching career in 2006 with the Dallas Cowboys after seven years of coaching in college. In 2006, Kitchens helped tutor Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten to his third consecutive trip to Hawaii. Witten finished the season with 64 receptions for 754 yards (11.8 yard avg.) and one touchdown while starting all 16 games.

In 10 years as a player and coach at the college level, Kitchens was a part of teams that won three conference titles and played in seven bowl games. He went to the NFL after a two-year stint at Mississippi State University where he coached running backs (2005) and tight ends (2004). In 2005, Jerious Norwood, a 2006 third-round choice of the Atlanta Falcons, had a 1,180-yard season, becoming just the second runner to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history. Norwood finished his Bulldogs career with a school-record 3,222 career rushing yards. In his first season on the Bulldogs staff in 2004, Kitchens helped tight end Eric Butler earn All-SEC freshman recognition while setting a school single-season record with four TD receptions.

He served as the running backs coach at the University of North Texas (2001-03) and contributed to Mean Green clubs that won three straight Sun Belt Conference titles. In 2003, running back Patrick Cobbs rushed for 1,680 yards and scored 19 touchdowns, earning the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year award while also leading the nation with a 152.7 yards per game average. Cobbs played five seasons (2006-2010) in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins. During his first two seasons, Kitchens developed Kevin Galbreath into the first back in school history to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. The 2,372 yards gained on the ground in 2002 were the most at North Texas since 1959.

Kitchens went to North Texas after one season as a graduate assistant at LSU (2000) where he served on Nick Saban's first Tigers staff, managing the offensive scout team and helping with special teams. That team went 9-4, including a 28-14 win over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. After a one-year stint playing professionally in Italy in the spring of 1999, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Glenville State College that fall, coaching both running backs and tight ends.

A native of Gadsden, AL, Kitchens earned high school All-America honors and was named Mr. Football in the state of Alabama his senior season. He returned to his hometown in April of 2015 when he was one of four individuals inducted into the Etowah County Sports Hall of Fame. Kitchens and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters, Bennett and Camden.

STUMP MITCHELL

COLLEGE: The Citadel
HOMETOWN: Kingsland, GA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 24/13
DOB: March 15, 1959

RUNNING BACKS

A standout running back and return specialist for nine seasons with the Cardinals (1981-89), Lyvonia "Stump" Mitchell enters his fourth season in charge of Arizona's running backs and 15th overall as an NFL assistant after joining the coaching staff on 2/5/13.

Last season, the Cardinals vastly improved rushing attack helped propel the team to a franchise record 13 wins as Arizona finished with the top ranked offense in the NFL for the first time in team history. The Cardinals finished the 2015 season with the NFL's 8th ranked rushing attack, averaging 119.8 yards per game. It marked the first time since 1984 (9th overall) that the Cardinals finished a season ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in rushing. Rookie running back David Johnson amassed 1,636 all-purpose yards (581 rushing, 457 receiving, 598 KOR) and a franchise rookie record 13 TDs, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to have 500+ rushing yards, 400+ receiving yards, 500+ kickoff returns yards and 13+ TDs in a season. Fellow running back Chris Johnson was the NFL's third-leading rusher with 814 rushing yards in the first 11 games before an injury ended his season. Arizona's performance in the run game last season (1,917 yards and 16 TDs) helped the team establish single-season records for points (489), TDs (59) and total net yards (6,533).

In 2013, Mitchell helped coach a group of Cardinals running backs that featured rookie Andre Ellington, who totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards (652 rushing, 371 receiving). His 5.53-yard rushing average led all NFL players with a minimum of 100 rushing attempts and was the highest average for any rookie in team history and the highest for a Cardinals running back since John David Crow (5.85) in 1960. Combined with veteran Rashard Mendenhall (687 yards and eight TDs), the 2013 season marked the first time since 1988 that the Cardinals had two players with 600+ rushing yards in a season.

Mitchell joined the Cardinals in 2013 after working as the head coach at Southern from 2010-12, before being re-assigned within the program following a 0-2 start to the '12 season. Prior to his tenure at Southern, Mitchell spent two seasons as the running backs coach and assistant head coach for the Washington Redskins (2008-09). During his first season with the Redskins, he oversaw the NFL's eighth-ranked rushing attack and Clinton Portis, who was selected to the Pro Bowl that season, had 1,487 yards, which at the time was the second-highest single season total in franchise history. He also tutored FB Mike Sellers who joined Portis in the Pro Bowl in 2008.

He began his NFL coaching career in 1999 and worked nine years as the running backs coach for the Seahawks under head coach Mike Holmgren. Mitchell coached a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his first seven seasons with Seattle (Ricky Watters and Shaun Alexander). Under his tutelage, Alexander was a three-time Pro Bowler and was named 2005 NFL MVP after leading the NFL with a franchise-record 1,880 rushing yards and setting a then-NFL record with 28 TDs (NFL-record 27 rushing TDs, 1 receiving TD). In 2004, Alexander led the NFC with 1,696 rushing yards and 20 TDs. During the 2003 season, Alexander made his first career Pro Bowl after rushing for 1,435 yards, and in 2002, he had 16 rushing TDs. Alexander's backfield teammate, fullback Mack Strong, was also voted to the Pro Bowl in 2005 and 2006 under Mitchell's guidance.

Mitchell joined the Seahawks following three years as head coach of Morgan State University (1996-98). He originally joined the MSU staff in 1995 as offensive coordinator before being promoted the following year. Under Mitchell's tutelage, the Bears had a rushing attack that averaged 148.9 yards per game in 1997.

A ninth-round selection (226th overall) by the Cardinals in the 1981 NFL Draft, Mitchell spent his entire nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals. He currently holds the franchise record with 11,988 all-purpose yards and ranks second all-time in rushing yards (4,649), punt return yards (1,377) and kickoff return yards (4,007) while also adding 1,955 career receiving yards. Mitchell's 42 career TDs are tied for the 10th best total in team annals. Mitchell had 14 100-yard rushing games in his career and finished with a 4.7-yard rushing average, which ranks as the second-highest career mark in team history. He had a 5.6-yard rushing average in 1981 (31 for 175 yards), earning All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly, who also named him All-NFC as a kickoff returner in 1984.

In addition to his success on the field, Mitchell was honored with the Chuck Drulis Award in 1982 and the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1984 for his work in the community.

Mitchell's coaching career began in the spring of 1991 when he served as running backs coach for the San Antonio Rough Riders of the World League of American Football (WLAF). He then was the head coach at Casa Grande (AZ) High School (1991-94) where he led the team to the state playoffs in his second season.

HOMETOWN: South Park, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 6/3
DOB: September 29, 1957

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Buddy Morris enters his third season as the Cardinals strength and conditioning coach after being hired on 3/4/14. Previously with the Cleveland Browns (2002-04) where he worked with current Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, Morris returned to the NFL in 2014 after working at the collegiate level for 19 years.

A native of South Park, PA, Morris has an extensive background in strength and conditioning dating back to his first job at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, where he began his coaching career in 1980 in the first of his three stints with the Panthers. He worked under head coach Jackie Sherrill from 1980-89 and aided in the development of future NFL Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Rickey Jackson, Chris Doleman and Russ Grimm. During that period, Morris helped train 13 first round NFL draft picks and 15 first-team All-Americans.

Morris specializes in workouts that focus on strength training, speed development, conditioning, agility training and flexibility.

After working as the wellness director for the Horizon Hospital System in Sharon, PA from 1989-97, Morris returned to Pittsburgh and worked from 1997-2001. During his second tenure at Pitt, the Panthers made three bowl appearances: the 1997 Liberty Bowl, the 2000 Insight.com Bowl and the 2001 Tangerine Bowl. Morris also developed the moniker for the Panthers strength and conditioning program, "The Pitt Iron Works." In 2009, Muscle & Fitness Magazine named Morris' gym one of the 10 toughest in America.

Morris then joined Butch Davis and the Cleveland Browns for three seasons before working at the University of Buffalo in 2006 as its Director of Sports Performance. After one season in Buffalo, he went back for his third stint at Pitt under head coach Dave Wannstedt where he worked from 2007-10. The Panthers made the 2008 Sun Bowl and the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl during that period.

Following his third stop at Pitt, Morris and his family opened a private gym in Buffalo called the New York Sports Center where he worked with athletes at all levels through personal training, group fitness classes and injury rehabilitation.

Morris worked with Roger Kingdom, the Cardinals assistant strength & conditioning coach and 1984 and 1988 Olympic gold medalist in 110-meter hurdles. He also helped develop NFL Hall of Fame running back Curtis Martin and Pro Bowl guard Ruben Brown while both were at Pitt.

He graduated from Pittsburgh in 1980 after lettering for four years (1977-80) in track and field. Morris is married to Monica and he has two daughters, Kara and Claire, and two stepsons, Fred and Troy.

TOM PRATT

COLLEGE: Miami (FL)
HOMETOWN: Beloit, WI
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 38/4
DOB: June 21, 1935

PASS RUSH SPECIALIST

Veteran assistant coach Tom Pratt enters his fourth season with the Cardinals as pass rush specialist and 38th season in the NFL after joining the team on 2/5/13. Only Tennessee's Dick LeBeau (44th season) has more experience among active NFL coaches. After starting as a coach at his alma mater, the University of Miami, in 1957, Pratt enters his 45th season as an assistant coach in 2016.

Pratt, who began his professional coaching career with Kansas City in 1963, helped the Chiefs win AFL championships in 1966 and 1969 and reach Super Bowl I and Super Bowl IV. He has coached four players who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Buck Buchanan, Derrick Thomas, Curley Culp and Warren Sapp). He is also the only current coach in the league to own the distinction of coaching in the NFL in six different decades – '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s, '00s and '10s and is the only active NFL assistant to have coached in the American Football League.

Last season, defensive end Calais Campbell was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl after leading the defensive line and finishing second on the team with five sacks. Pratt also worked with LB Dwight Freeney, who had nearly as many sacks in 11 games with the Cardinals last season (8.0) than he had in his previous three seasons combined (9.0). As a unit, the Cardinals defense finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL. Arizona also ranked second in the NFL with 33 total takeaways and tied Kansas City for the league lead with six defensive TDs.

In 2014, Arizona's defense allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. The defense allowed just 299 points, the first time the team has allowed fewer than 300 points in a season since 1994 (267). During Pratt's first season in Arizona in 2013, the Cardinals finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall defense and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game). They allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351) and collected 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history. Campbell had a career-high nine sacks and joined defensive tackle Darnell Dockett as Pro Bowl alternates.

Pratt returned to coaching in 2013 after spending the previous three years as a defensive coordinator consultant with IMG Academies in Florida, helping to train draft eligible players for the NFL. Prior to joining the Cardinals, his last job in the NFL was the assistant defensive line coach with the Chiefs in 2000, helping out while defensive line coach Bob Karmelowicz was being treated for cancer. That was Pratt's third different stint with Kansas City (1963-77, 1989-94 and 2000).

During his first stop with the Chiefs (1963-77), Pratt had a hand in molding some of the finest defensive performers to ever wear a Kansas City uniform. In the 1960s, when he served as an assistant under Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram, the Chiefs defensive front helped the club win its lone World Championship in 1969 with a 23-7 victory over Minnesota in Super Bowl IV.

Hall of Fame tackles Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp combined with ends Jerry Mays and Aaron Brown to form arguably the finest defensive line in the AFL's 10-year history. Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990, and Culp was selected as a member of the 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame class.

After his initial 15-year stay in Kansas City, Pratt coached the defensive line with the New Orleans Saints (1978-80) and Cleveland Browns (1981-88) before returning to the Chiefs for another six seasons (1989-94) under Marty Schottenheimer. While in Cleveland, he worked with defensive tackle Bob Golic, who was a three-time Pro Bowl selection (1985-87), and defensive end Reggie Camp, who had 14 sacks in 1984 and accumulated 29.5 sacks from 1984-86.

In his second stint with the Chiefs as defensive line coach (1989-94), Pratt tutored the late Derrick Thomas, a 2009 Hall of Fame inductee. Even though Thomas was listed as a linebacker, he played the Chiefs "rushbacker" position in 1993 and worked with Pratt on the defensive line. Thomas made his fifth straight Pro Bowl appearance that season as Kansas City advanced to the AFC Championship Game. Defensive end Neil Smith also flourished under Pratt, recording four straight Pro Bowl berths under his guidance (1991-94), while defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua earned first-team Pro Football Weekly All-Pro honors in 1990.

NFL ASSISTANTS WITH THE MOST EXPERIENCE

Hired by the Cardinals in 2013 to serve as Pass Rush Specialist, Tom Pratt enters his 38th year of coaching in the NFL in 2015. Along with assistant head coach/offense Tom Moore, the duo have more coaching experience among active NFL assistants than any other coach in the NFL outside of Tennessee's Dick LeBeau (44).

Pratt spent the 1995 season as defensive line coach with Tampa Bay, tutoring Hall of Fame defensive tackle Warren Sapp in his rookie season, before coaching at the United States Coast Guard Academy in 1997. He then spent two years (1998-99) as a football ambassador in Osaka, Japan for the Asahi Challengers in the Japanese Company League of American football. He returned to work with the Challengers for the 2000 season as they won the Japanese Super Bowl. He also served as a consultant at Kyoto University in Japan from 2002-04.

He played linebacker collegiately at the University of Miami from 1953-56. Pratt earned All-American honors in 1956 and was inducted into the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame in 1991. After graduating from Miami in 1957 with a degree in Education, he stayed at his alma mater as an assistant for four years (1957-60) and worked with Stram, who was an assistant at Miami beginning in 1958. He then coached at the University of Southern Mississippi from 1961-62 before joining Stram's staff in Kansas City in 1963. The 1962 Golden Eagles were the UPI small college division National Champions after finishing the season with a 9-1 record.

Pratt and his wife, Hope, have three children, daughters Kendra and Shana, and son Tyler, seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

HOMETOWN: New Castle, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 4/4
DOB: April 25, 1956

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Long-time college coach Nick Rapone (ruh-pone) enters his fourth season with the Cardinals and fourth year in the NFL after he joined Arizona as defensive backs coach on 2/5/13.

Rapone, a veteran of 37 seasons as a coach, including 30 as a collegiate assistant, joined the Cardinals in 2013 after spending the previous seven years (2006-12) at the University of Delaware as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Last season, the Cardinals finished the year with the NFL's fifth-ranked defense. The unit ranked second in the NFL with 33 total takeaways and tied Kansas City for the league lead with six defensive TDs. CB Patrick Peterson and S Tyrann Mathieu were both selected to the Pro Bowl and were both named first-team All-Pro. It was Peterson's fourth consecutive selection at CB and Mathieu's first Pro Bowl.

In 2014, Peterson and CB Antonio Cromartie were both selected to the Pro Bowl. The Cardinals defense allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. Arizona's defense allowed just 299 points, the first time the team has allowed fewer than 300 points in a season since 1994 (267).

With the Cardinals in 2013, Rapone helped a defense that finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and forced 30 takeaways, including 20 interceptions which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL. Peterson made his second consecutive Pro Bowl at cornerback and was also named first-team AP All-Pro.

At Delaware, Rapone was a part of two NCAA national runner-up teams, including the 2010 season when he helped the Blue Hens to a 12-3 record and a share of the Colonial Athletic Association title. For his efforts that season, Rapone was named the 2010 FootballScoop NCAA Division I FCS Coordinator of the Year as his defense led the nation in scoring (12.1 ppg), ranked fifth in total defense (280.7 ypg) and was 12th in rushing defense (105.3 ypg). The secondary included four All-CAA performers, including All-American selections Anthony Walters and Anthony Bratton at safety. The Hens also ranked ninth in the nation in passing efficiency (102.7), and the team's 21 interceptions were the third-highest total in the nation at the FCS level.

Rapone helped the Blue Hens go 11-4 in 2007 and advance to the NCAA Division I FCS title game with quarterback Joe Flacco. The Blue Hens captured the Lambert Cup Trophy as the top team in the East and was named the ECAC Team of the Year.

A native of New Castle, PA, Rapone was an All-State receiver at New Castle High School prior to attending Virginia Tech where he was a four-year letterman for the Hokies (1974-77). While at Virginia Tech, he played with Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians in 1974 when Arians was a senior and Rapone was a freshman. Arians then served as a graduate assistant (1975-76) and running backs coach (1977) while Rapone played for the Hokies.

Rapone began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 1979 where he worked with the secondary for two seasons before serving as defensive backs coach at East Tennessee State (I-AA) from 1981-82. He reunited with Arians as part of his staff at Temple, coaching the Owls secondary for six seasons (1983-88) while also serving as defensive coordinator from 1985-88.

He returned to Pitt as defensive backs coach for four years (1989-92), doubling as defensive coordinator in 1992. Rapone then became the head coach at his alma mater, New Castle High School, for two seasons (1993-94). He returned to the college in 1995 at then Division I-AA University of Connecticut under head coach Skip Holtz, serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach for four seasons and helping the Huskies to the I-AA playoffs for the first time in school history in 1998. That squad was ranked No. 7 in the final The Sports Network Top 25 poll and was led by a defense that forced 29 turnovers on the season.

Rapone went back to Temple for his second tenure and served as defensive backs coach and kickoff coverage coach for seven years (1999-2005). The Owls were one of only eight teams in the nation to rank in the top 20 in total defense in both 2001 and 2002.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Education from Virginia Tech in 1979 and his master's degree in Education from Pittsburgh in 1981. Rapone has two daughters, Johanna and Mary.

Former Pro Bowl defensive back Kevin Ross begins his fourth season with the Cardinals as cornerbacks coach after he joined the team on 2/5/13. A 14-year NFL veteran as a player, Ross enters his 11th season as an assistant coach after previous jobs with Oakland (2010-11), San Diego (2007-08) and Minnesota (2003-05). In Arizona, Ross reunited with head coach Bruce Arians under whom he played as a team captain during his senior season at Temple in 1983.

Last season, the Cardinals finished the year with the NFL's fifth-ranked defense. The unit ranked second in the NFL with 33 total takeaways and tied Kansas City for the league lead with six defensive TDs. CB Patrick Peterson earned his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl selection at CB and was named first-team All-Pro for the second time.

In 2014, Peterson and Antonio Cromartie were both selected to the Pro Bowl. Arizona's defense allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. The Cardinals defense allowed just 299 points, the first time the team has allowed fewer than 300 points in a season since 1994 (267).

Ross helped the Cardinals 2013 defense finish as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and force 30 takeaways, including 20 interceptions, which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL. Peterson made his second consecutive Pro Bowl at cornerback and was also named first-team AP All-Pro.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Ross coached safeties with Oakland (2010-11), helping the Raiders record 30 interceptions in two seasons. His tenure in Oakland followed one season as an assistant for the New York Sentinels of the United Football League (2009). From 2007-08, Ross assisted with defensive backs with the San Diego Chargers. In 2007, the Chargers led the NFL in INTs during both the regular season (30) and postseason (six). The 30 INTs in the regular season were the most by a San Diego defense in 38 years and it marked the first time a Chargers defense ever led the NFL in interceptions.

Ross began his NFL coaching career with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002 at training camp as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Program. In 2003, he worked as the Vikings assistant secondary coach where he stayed through the 2005 season. In his first year in Minnesota, the Vikings were second in the NFL with 28 INTs. In his second season, the Vikings advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoffs.

Ross played defensive back in the NFL for 14 seasons (1984-97) and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection.

He was selected by Kansas City in the seventh round (173rd overall) of the 1984 NFL Draft and made an immediate impact with the Chiefs as a rookie when he posted a career-high six INTs to earn consensus All-Rookie honors. He played 11 seasons with Kansas City (1984-93; 1997), earning Pro Bowl selections in 1989 and 1990. He also played two seasons in Atlanta (1994-95) and one with San Diego (1996). Ross retired following the 1997 season with 1,142 tackles, 38 INTs and two touchdowns. He was inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in 2011.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Ross spent four years coaching high school football at Camden High School (1999-00) and at Woodrow Wilson High (2001-02) in his native Camden, N.J.

ADRIAN WILSON

SCOUT

Former Cardinals safety Adrian Wilson begins his second season in Arizona's scouting department following his retirement from the NFL in 2015. Wilson became the 15th member of the Cardinals Ring of Honor when he was inducted during the 2015 season. He was officially hired as a scout this past April. In his new role, Wilson will assist with both the Cardinals pro and college scouting departments.

Prior to him being hired full-time, Wilson had previously been working with the Cardinals as part of the Nunn-Wooten Scouting Fellowship. Created in January of 2015, the Nunn-Wooten Scouting Fellowship is designed to educate former players interested in a career in professional scouting.

Wilson spent 12 seasons (2001-12) playing with the Cardinals after joining the team as a third-round selection (64th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft out of N.C. State. A five-time Pro Bowl selection (2006, 2008-11) and three time All-Pro selection (2006, 2008-09), he finished his NFL career with 987 tackles (716 solos), 25.5 sacks, 27 interceptions, 106 passes defensed, 15 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and four touchdowns in 181 regular season games (162 starts). Wilson and Hall of Famer Larry Wilson (1962-63, '65-70) are the only two safeties in team history selected to five or more Pro Bowls.

A five-time team captain (2007, 2009-12), Wilson is one of just six players in NFL history (Ronde Barber, Brian Dawkins, Rodney Harrison, Ray Lewis, William Thomas) with at least 25 sacks and 25 interceptions in their career. His 181 games played rank as the seventh-highest total in team history and the second most among Cardinals defenders behind only Hall of Fame defensive back Roger Wehrli (193). Wilson's 27 interceptions rank sixth in team history, his 25.5 sacks rank 12th on the Cardinals all-time list and his 508 interception return yards rank fifth. His four NFC Defensive Player of the Week selections are also the most in team history.

Since sacks became an official statistic in 1982, Wilson's 25.5 career sacks rank as the fourth-best total in league history among defensive backs and his eight sacks in 2005 were the most in a single season in NFL history by a defensive back.

Wilson was a two-year starter at North Carolina State (1999-2000) where he recorded 254 total tackles (144 solos) and 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage in 33 games for the Wolfpack. He also added three interceptions and 11 pass deflections in 23 career starts before entering the NFL Draft following his junior season.

He garnered All-Guilford County honors from the Greensboro News and Record at T.W. Andrews (High Point, NC) High School, where in June of 2010, he had his prep jersey number (9) retired. Wilson played free safety and split end as a senior, helping his team to a berth in the playoffs. He also played basketball and ran track in high school and was an honorable mention All-American in basketball in 1998 and was also a Dream Team All-America selection. Wilson majored in Parks, Recreation, and Tourism Management. He owns a designer shoe store in Scottsdale (AZ) called High Point.

CARDINALS SPECIALTY LICENSE PLATE RAISES OVER $1 MILLION FOR CARDINALS CHARITIES IN 2015

The Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT) announced that Cardinals Charities received over a million dollars from the sale of the team's specialty license plates in 2015.

Of the 60 specialty plates issued in the state last year, the Cardinals plate led the way in charitable proceeds with $1,087,677. That was followed by the Veterans ($1,051,093) and Freedom plates ($521,424), both of which benefit the state veteran's donation fund. In all, 63,981 Arizona Cardinals plates were issued in calendar year 2015, according to ADOT.

"Seeing so many vehicles on the road displaying their Cardinals plates is fantastic and the display of support is incredibly gratifying," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "But even more meaningful is knowing the type of impact that the project is having on Cardinals Charities and, in turn, so many worthy causes throughout the state. We appreciate the opportunity that ADOT has provided and are especially grateful to all of those fans who have stepped up to participate."

Founded in 1990, the mission of Cardinals Charities is to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in Arizona.

Drivers who opt for the specialty plates pay $25 a year with $17 going to a designated charity or non-profit group. There were a total of 389,536 specialty plates on Arizona vehicles in 2015 and the program raised more than $6.5 million for charitable and non-profit entities throughout the state. A black plate featuring a Cardinals birdhead logo, the Cardinals specialty plate was introduced in January of 2010.

THE MOTIVATION OF JOHN BROWN

A product of Pittsburg State, John Brown came to the Cardinals with a story that matches his prodigious talent. He began his college career at Mars Hill University in North Carolina in 2008 and was named the South Atlantic Conference's Freshman of the Year after leading the league with 1,472 all-purpose yards. However, academic challenges forced him to miss the 2009 season, and then Brown's world changed in 2010 when his half-brother, James Walker, who played at NAIA school MidAmerica Nazarene University, was shot in Florida.

Walker remained in the hospital for months, and during that time Brown transferred to Coffeyville Community College in Kansas, but he wasn't awarded one of the team's out-of-state scholarships and ended up sitting out another year. However, coaches at Pittsburg State in Kansas had learned of him and offered him a scholarship. He signed his letter of intent in April 2011, just hours before he received the news Walker had died.

Brown made a promise to his brother that he would score the first time he touched the ball at Pittsburg State, and he made good on that pledge when he returned a punt 84 yards for a TD in the 2011 season opener. He never looked back, going on to set school career records with 185 receptions for 3,387 yards and 34 TDs. He totaled 45 TDs at Pittsburg State, adding six rushing, three punt return and two kickoff return scores.

"Every day I wake up I hear him," he said. "When I'm tired, when I'm working out and thinking about giving up, I can hear him in my head. It just pushes me to go even harder."

CARDINALS INTERNATIONAL TIES

Football has become a world game in recent years, and the Cardinals have been at the forefront of that development.

In 1987, they became the first franchise to draft an Australian player when they selected defensive end Colin Scotts in the third round. Punter Ben Graham (2008-11) became the first Australian to play in a Super Bowl when the Cardinals played the Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

In addition, when Rolando Cantu played for the Cardinals in the 2005 regular season finale at Indianapolis, he became the first Mexican-born player (non-kicker) to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. Cantu is now the team's Manager of International Business Affairs and the analyst on the team's Spanish radio broadcasts.

The Cardinals participated in the first ever NFL regular season game held outside the United States when they defeated the San Francisco 49ers 31-14 at Estadio Azteca in Mexico City on October 2, 2005.

The franchise also played in the first NFL games in both Japan and the United Kingdom:

- August 16, 1976 vs. San Diego Chargers in Tokyo, the first NFL game played outside of North America
- August 6, 1983 vs. Minnesota Vikings at London's Wembley Stadium, the first American football contest on British soil

Several current Cardinals boast international backgrounds:

G Mike Iupati is a native of American Samoa and did not live in the United States until prior to his freshman year of high school.

LB Tristan Okpalaugo spent the last two years in the Canadian Football League with the Toronto Argonauts, where he totaled 23 sacks in 31 games.

DT Josh Mauro was born St. Albans, England.

CB Elie Bouka from the University of Calgary is from Laval, Quebec and played for Team Quebec at the 2010 Canada Cup as a wide receiver and punt returner and helped his team earn a silver medal.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Punter Drew Butler has made a huge contribution in the Arizona community since joining the team in 2014. CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since joining the Cardinals, Calais Campbell has established himself as one of the team's leading philanthropists through his work with the team and also through his "CRC Foundation." A two-time Cardinals "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" selection, (2014, 2011), Campbell has made it his mission to give back to the Arizona community through team events and his personal foundation work.

In 2010, he founded the "CRC Foundation," named after his late father, Charles. The foundation is committed to the enhancement of the community by teaching life skills to assist with the development of young people. Through sports, the enrichment of creative talents, vocational skills, guidance of positive financial skills and quality health and nutrition, the foundation seeks to empower and provide self-awareness for future leaders.

Campbell was selected as the 2014 Cardinals "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" after another exceptional year of community and charitable contributions through his foundation and the team. In 2015, Calais was named the Byron Whizzer White nominee from the Cardinals, the highest community service honor presented by the NFLPA. That followed up him being presented the Pop Warner Football Humanitarian Award in May of 2015 for his athletic achievements and work in the community.

Campbell has hosted a variety of events since the creation of the foundation to help it grow including this past May when he hosted his fourth annual golf tournament at Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass in Chandler, AZ. In 2013, Campbell and the CRC Foundation launched "Right Track," a daily after-school program serving students from the Roosevelt School District in south Phoenix. Campbell also represented the Cardinals in 2014 and 2015 as part of the NFL's "PLAY 60" movement at the White House for the annual Easter Egg Roll on the South Lawn that was hosted by First Lady Michelle Obama.

Campbell and the "CRC Foundation" have extended their existing philanthropic programs to include a Thanksgiving turkey drive which expanded to feed 500 families in 2015, up from 300 families in 2014. In December of 2015, Calais hosted his sixth annual "Christmas with Calais," an evening which treats 60 children from UMOM New Day Center and South Pointe Elementary School to a shopping spree at Target with Campbell and his teammates, a holiday meal and a visit from Santa. One of eight children, Calais has continued to award two college scholarships each year to students from large families through his foundation. In partnership with the Valley of the Sun United Way, 2015 was the first year of "Calais' Book Club," a month-long reading program for seventh graders at Long View Elementary School.

In 2015, Calais continued his "Cheer for a Cause" program. At every home game the past three seasons, CRC Foundation representatives selected one fan wearing a Campbell jersey at University of Phoenix as a winner. Winners received a donation to a charity of their choice from Calais, with the amount dependent on his game performance. (The CRC Foundation donates $500 for a team win, $1,000 for a one-sack game, and culminates with $15,000 for a five-sack game).

Last October, Campbell hosted his fifth annual fundraiser dinner at Mastro's City Hall in Scottsdale to benefit his foundation and raise money through a silent and live auction. Campbell joined his Cardinals teammates and other celebrities to dine alongside guests. In 2013, he served as the celebrity host at the "Comedians for a Cure" benefit comedy show for Phoenix Children's Hospital at Stand Up Live in Phoenix.

Campbell has also partnered with United Way and the NFL as the Cardinals spokesperson to promote reading and the importance of education. In addition to helping to recruit volunteer readers, tutors and mentors, Campbell took part in the United Way's Great Phoenix Literacy Fair to promote the importance of literacy of elementary school students. In March of 2013, he was the keynote speaker to a group of college students at Deloitte and United Way's Alternate Spring Break. In February of 2014, he was the keynote speaker at a Generation United event for the Valley of the Sun United Way where he spoke to 200 young professionals about the importance of community service.

In addition to all of his foundation work, Campbell has also been very active in Cardinals team community programs. He took part in the NFL's Super Bowl Legacy Grant event leading up to Super Bowl XLIX in Arizona by participating at a grant press conference that was followed up by a Heads Up Football Clinic at ASU Preparatory Academy.

Campbell joined Cardinals teammates for a Christmas party in 2014 at the Mary Black Family and Child Services Agency. He also represented the team at Jefferson Elementary School in 2011 and led students in fitness activities as part of the NFL's PLAY 60 program. Jefferson was selected as a Super School and won a $10,000 grant from the NFL for health and wellness programming and equipment.

Previously, Campbell joined representatives from the Cardinals and Albertsons and distributed 50 meals to current and former residents of the Chicanos Por La Causa shelter during Thanksgiving of 2010. The CLPC shelter provides safe, temporary housing for women and their children who have been forced to leave their homes due to domestic violence. He also distributed 40 turkey dinners to families in the Chandler school district at Hamilton High School and Hancock Elementary to help brighten the holidays of those in need that same year.

He also served as a keynote speaker for the 2010 Spotlight Dinner through the Chandler Youth Football League. The dinner recognized student athletes earning scholarships to four-year colleges and universities.

CARDINALS HOST HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL COACHES CLINIC

Arians and 17 assistants from his staff – including coordinators Harold Goodwin (offense), James Bettcher (defense) and Amos Jones (special teams) – participated in the free clinic to discuss the team's coaching philosophies during a full day of film and classroom study with 125 coaches from 80 high schools throughout the state of Arizona.

Following opening remarks from Arians, the morning session went over coaching philosophies on all levels of defense, including the defensive line, linebackers and the secondary. Following lunch, there was a presentation to the high school coaches by Dr. Javier Cardenas of the Barrow Neurological Institute. Cardenas is one of the nation's foremost experts on the diagnosis and treatment of concussions and other forms of brain injuries. The afternoon session focused on offense and special teams, with discussions on offensive line play and quarterback development along with breakdowns of the wide receiver, running back and tight end position groups.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing its clock forward or back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals local kickoff times during the season.

In 2016, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 13) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 6). When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967 the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out if they wanted and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

NICOLE BIDWILL RECEIVES PROMISE AWARD AT GIRL SCOUTS LUNCHEON

Nicole Bidwill received the Promise Award from the Girl Scouts – Arizona Cactus-Pine Council (GSACPC) at the Women & Young Women of Distinction luncheon last October. The Promise Award recognizes a community member who models Girl Scout principles in her life and work.

"I am deeply honored to be recognized by the Girl Scouts," Bidwill said at the event. "This luncheon is an opportunity to support girls as they develop the courage, confidence and skills needed to step forward and lead the next generation."

While Bidwill has selflessly served the community throughout her career, she recently took on a role that required her to give even more of her time. In 2014, she acted as the Interim Executive Director at Boys Hope Girls Hope Arizona, where she helped in-need children reach academic success. Her leadership provided stability and success during a time when the organization was undergoing challenging adjustments. In her free time, she and her certified therapy dog, Barney, frequent the Phoenix Children's Hospital and Circle the City to brighten patients days.

Girl Scouts – Arizona Cactus-Pine Council (GSACPC) is Arizona's leading organization dedicated to building girls of courage, confidence and character who make the world a better place. In partnership with more than 11,000 adult volunteers, GSACPC serves 24,000 girls grades k-12 in more than 90 communities across central and northern Arizona.

Breast Cancer Awareness

One of the causes closest to Larry's heart is breast cancer research and prevention. The Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund was established in honor of Larry's late mother who passed away from breast cancer in 2003. The Fund supports causes that Larry's mother held close to her heart, such as the education of urban youth on HIV/AIDS and breast cancer issues.

Larry has been honored as the recipient of the NFL Players Association Georgetown Lombardi Award, which was established to honor a leader in the sports industry whose life and family have been touched by cancer, and who encourages cancer research, prevention and treatment through awareness and philanthropy. The award is given jointly by the NFL Players Association and the Georgetown Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center in Washington, DC.

Over the past several seasons, Larry has proved a key figure in the NFL's annual Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October, using his play on the field and his popularity on social media to earn funds to help raise awareness for breast cancer research. In each of the past several years, Fitzgerald donated thousands of dollars based on his receptions and touchdowns during the month of October. Larry has donated hundreds of thousand of dollars to organizations engaged in support of breast cancer survivors and breast cancer research. The following organizations have received significant donations as a result of this initiative: The National Breast Cancer Foundation, the American Cancer Society, African American Breast Cancer Alliance, and Sistas of AZ Pink 365 campaign providing free mammograms.

Humanitarian Travel

During the last few years, Larry has taken part in humanitarian trips during the offseason.

- Larry traveled to Ethiopia and Senegal with Oxfam America, and friends Anquan Boldin and Roddy White, to support economic development projects and raise awareness about needs in those countries. Among the projects they worked on were a community garden that provides food to the community and a means of economic self-sufficiency, irrigation systems, and support of a farm project that teaches methods for growing trees and crops when there is a shortage of water.

- Larry is also a tireless volunteer the Starkey Hearing Foundation, an international relief group dedicated to provide hear aids and hearing health awareness to those less fortunate and also supporting research and education. Larry has traveled to several countries with Starkey Hearing Foundation to fit children with hearing aids, including the Congo, the Philippines, Malaysia, Thailand and India. Larry has also joined with Pros for Africa and the Starkey Hearing Foundation on trips to Uganda and Rwanda to bring over 22,000 hearing aids to people with no way to afford them.

Youth Football Initiatives

Larry teamed up with Riddell to donate 1000 state of the art youth football helmets, as well as training, to outfit the entire Minneapolis Parks and Recreation youth football program where Larry first played football as a young child. The First Down Fund refurbished a basketball court at the park in Minneapolis where Larry first played football and basketball. He has previously donated football equipment and holiday gifts to the park. In addition Larry volunteered his time to serve as the national spokesman for USA Football's Protection Tour, promoting proper technique and protective equipment.

Larry has also hosted a youth football camp in Minnesota and in Arizona for several years. Every year scholarship slots are funded by Larry so that underprivileged youth can attend. The camps provided boys and girls ages 7-14 the opportunity to learn fundamentals from Fitzgerald and other NFL players and coaches.

Supporting the Military

Having had a number of family members serve in the Armed Forces, Larry has long been a big supporter of the United States Armed Forces. In 2014, Fitzgerald was selected as the Cardinals nominee for the fourth annual "Salute to Service" award presented by USAA. Each NFL team nominated one player, coach or front office member who demonstrates an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

- In October of 2014, Fitzgerald held a free, two-day ProCamp for 130 military children at Luke Air Force Base in Arizona. At the camp, Fitzgerald joined local coaches in helping teach the children the fundamentals of football, including route-running and catching passes. The camp supported the Defense Department's Healthy Base Initiative, which helps service members, their families and DOD civilians live healthier lives through nutrition and fitness. It was the second ProCamp Fitzgerald participated in in 2014, having also joined a group of NFL players who helped at a camp at the Schofield Barracks in O'ahu, Hawaii in January.

- Larry joined EAS on a promotion for the Semper Fi Fund. He did numerous interviews to raise awareness for the "Views for Vets" Semper Fi Fund initiative. For every click on the funds website, donations were made that raised immediate financial support for injured and critically ill members of the United States Armed Forces.

- Twice in his career, Larry has joined other NFL players on week-long NFL/USO tours of Iraq and Afghanistan, spending several days meeting with troops deployed to the Persian Gulf. Larry has visited numerous bases and met with thousands of troops, taking pictures, signing autographs and participating in "football roundtables," where troops were able to ask the players questions. During one trip they also met up with a group of Navy SEALs and were challenged to compete against a number of top SEALs in the obstacle training course.

MICHAEL BIDWILL KICKS OFF PHOENIX ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE

Cardinals President Michael Bidwill served as the grand marshal of the 33rd annual St. Patrick's Day Parade in Phoenix in March, with Cardinals Cheerleaders, flag runners, the team drum line and mascot Big Red surrounding around a float built specifically for Bidwill.

"My Irish heritage and ancestry have always been a source of great pride for me so this distinction is particularly meaningful," said Bidwill. "It is an honor to be associated with such a great Phoenix tradition and I'm very grateful for the opportunity."

The popular parade, considered one of the largest and longest running in Phoenix, is also the Valley's only authentic day-long Irish party. A fair featuring a roster of Irish rock and traditional bands, Irish food and fashion also took place at Margaret Hance Park in downtown Phoenix.

JEFFERSON CONTINUES TO PRODUCE

S Tony Jefferson, who joined the Cardinals as a rookie free agent out of Oklahoma in 2013, continued to prove his value to the Arizona defense last season.

Jefferson has played in every game during his first three NFL seasons and posted career-best numbers in 2015 with 75 tackles, two INTs, two sacks, five passes defensed and three forced fumbles. He also led the team with 19 tackles in the postseason.

Last season featured Jefferson's first two career INTs, and both contributed to Cardinals victories. In Week 2 at Chicago, he picked off Jay Cutler for his first career INT and returned it 26 yards for his first career TD to give the Cardinals a 28-14 second-quarter lead.

Then five weeks later on Monday Night Football, Jefferson made perhaps his biggest play of the season. With Baltimore trailing by eight, Jefferson reeled in Joe Flacco's pass into the end zone on 2nd-n-goal with six seconds remaining to preserve the 26-18 win. The victory was the first of Arizona's nine straight wins that propelled them to a 13-3 record and an NFC West title in 2015.

WARNER AND CORYELL REACH FINAL 10 FOR HALL OF FAME

Former Cardinals QB Kurt Warner, head coach Don Coryell, RB Edgerrin James and G Alan Faneca were among the of the 15 modern-day finalists for the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2016, and both Warner and Coryell advanced to the final 10 candidates for induction when the Hall of Fame committee met to select this year's class prior to Super Bowl 50.

It marked the second straight year Warner advanced to the final 10 (in his second year of eligibility) and the first time Coryell made it that far after previously being a finalist in 2010 and 2015. James and Faneca were each first-time finalists this year, with James in his second year of eligibility and Faneca his first.

Warner spent five seasons (2005-09) in Arizona, starting 57 of 61 games while leading the Cardinals to their first-ever Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl XLIII following the 2008 season. He led Arizona to back-to-back NFC West titles in 2008-09 while re-writing the franchise record books in the process. During the 2008 season Warner set Cardinals single-season records for attempts (598), completions (401), completion percentage (67.1) and consecutive games with a TD pass (22). He also set franchise records for passer rating (96.9) and TD passes (30) that year, records which were topped by Carson Palmer in 2015, and he passed for 4,583 yards, the third-highest total in team history. Warner posted the three highest single-season completion percentage totals in team history and threw for 300+ yards in a franchise-record 22 games.

A two-time NFL MVP and Super Bowl XXXIV MVP, Warner played 12 seasons in the NFL with the Rams (1998-2003), Giants (2004) and Cardinals (2005-2009). He is one of just three QBs in NFL history (Peyton Manning and Craig Morton) to take two different teams to the Super Bowl. One of the greatest postseason performers in NFL history, Warner owns the top three passing totals in Super Bowl history.

Coryell coached the Cardinals from 1973-77 and his 42 wins as head coach rank as the second-highest total in franchise history. He led the Cards to back-to-back division titles in 1974-75 and is the only coach in franchise history to lead the team to three consecutive seasons of 10+ wins (10 in 1974, 11 in 1975 and 10 in 1976).

James played three seasons (2006-08) with Arizona where he twice topped 1,000 yards rushing (1,159 yards in 2006 and 1,222 yards in 2007). A four-time Pro Bowler, James ranks 11th in NFL history with 12,246 career rushing yards and he twice led the NFL in rushing yards in the regular season (1999-2000).

A nine-time Pro Bowler and six-time first-team All-Pro, Faneca spent his 13th and final NFL season with the Cardinals in 2010, when he started all 16 games at left guard.

All four former Cardinals will be considered for induction again in the Class of 2017. Semifinalists will be announced in November and the field will be narrowed down to 15 modern-day finalists in January of 2017. The final Class of 2017 will be chosen and announced on February 4, 2017, the day before Super Bowl LI in Houston.

STRONG RESUME IN YEAR ONE

Going back to the 2015 season opener vs. New Orleans in Week 1, RB David Johnson made history throughout his rookie season.

One of Four In NFL History As Productive

Johnson totaled 1,636 all-purpose yards and a franchise rookie record 13 TDs in 2015. He finished with 581 yards and eight TDs on 125 rushing attempts (4.6 avg.), 457 yards and four TDs on 36 receptions, and 598 yards and a TD on 22 kickoff returns. He became just the fourth player in NFL history to post 500+ rushing yards, 400+ receiving yards, 500+ kickoff return yards and 13+ touchdowns in a season, joining Timmy Brown (1962), Gale Sayers (1965) and Maurice Jones-Drew (2006).

An All-Around Performance in First Two Weeks

Johnson had nine total touches in his first two career NFL games and accumulated 251 yards and three TDs on those nine touches (had two TDs on his first three NFL touches). Johnson had a 108-yard kickoff-return TD and a 13-yard TD run in the Cardinals win at Chicago in Week 2. Johnson, who had a 55-yard TD reception the week before vs. New Orleans in his NFL debut, was the first player in NFL history with a rushing TD, receiving TD and kickoff-return TD in his first two games to begin a career.

His 108-yard TD against the Bears tied for the second-longest play in NFL history. It's also the longest TD in franchise history.

Johnson also added a rushing TD against the Bears. In doing so, he became the first Cards player to have a kickoff return TD and a rushing TD in the same game since HOFer Ollie Matson on 12/13/58.

Short Route to the Hall of Fame

In June of 2015, Johnson visited the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH during the annual NFL Rookie Symposium. Three months later he was being honored at the Hall of Fame for the record-breaking start to his NFL career. The Hall of Fame recognized Johnson's achievements by displaying his jersey and cleats he wore in the victory over Chicago when he scored on a kickoff return and rushing attempt.

Despite seeing a limited role in the offense in the early part of the season, Johnson registered six TDs (3 rushing, 2 receiving, 1 KOR) in the first five games in 2015. That tied the franchise record for TDs in a players first five career games. The only other player in Cardinals history with at six TDs in their first five career games was Ollie Matson (6, 1952).

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Safety Tyrann Mathieu's transition to the NFL has included his desire to give back to the Arizona community he now calls home. During his first three seasons, Mathieu has been a frequent participant at Cardinals Kids Camps and Gatorade Jr. Training Camps, spending afternoons performing NFL drills with elementary students across the Valley.

He is also a regular visitor at various team and player community events. Last season, he participated at teammate Patrick Peterson's "Celebs and Steaks" event, serving as a celebrity waiter. He also was at Peterson's "Shop with a Jock" event at Walmart. Peterson and his teammates hosted 50 low-income and at-risk inner city families and provided the children with a unique holiday shopping experience. In the 2016 offseason, he attended Peterson's first annual "Celebrity Golf Tournament."

During the holiday season, Mathieu was a guest at Calais Campbell's annual "Christmas with Calais" event, an evening which treats 60 children from UMOM New Day Center to a shopping spree at Target, a holiday meal and visit from Santa.

During Super Bowl XLIX week in Arizona in 2015, Mathieu greeted and thanked participants and volunteers at the NFL Super Kids-Super Sharing project to help collect donated sports equipment, books and school supplies for the Salvation Army KROC Community. In March, he was the featured speaker at the 2015 Arizona Soccer Club Pat Tillman Foundation 3v3 Tournament kickoff meeting. Mathieu spoke to the participants about leadership on and off the field.

In 2014, Mathieu joined the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee and NFL Foundation for a field dedication—Super Bowl XLIX Legacy Field—at ASU Preparatory Academy in Phoenix. He also participated in the NFL and United Way's "Hometown Huddle" to host a PLAY 60 Kids Camp featuring fitness activities and drills for students from Rio Rico. The program also included the development and future installation of a community walking and jogging path at Rio Rico High School. NFL PLAY 60 encourages kids to get active for at least 60 minutes every day.

As a rookie in 2013, Mathieu took part in two special events which impacted two different groups of Valley residents. In October as part of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Mathieu visited Perry High School in Gilbert, AZ for a special pregame presentation for 10 breast cancer survivors prior to a high school football game. He joined Nicole Bidwill and presented each survivor with an honorary pink jersey while the Cardinals provided the Perry High School football team with pink jerseys, wrist bands and hats. The event had special meaning to Mathieu as two of his aunts passed away from breast cancer.

Later in his rookie season, Mathieu hosted the first "Red Stars Rising" event at the W hotel in Scottsdale in November which featured food, entertainment and celebrity appearances with the proceeds from the silent auction benefiting Phoenix Children's Hospital.

NELSON BREAKS LOOSE

Rookie WR J.J. Nelson – the team's fifth round selection (159th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft – saw an increased role against the Bengals on Sunday Night Football in Week 11 due to the WR Michael Floyd's hamstring injury. Nelson responded with four receptions for a game-high 142 yards (35.5 avg.) against Cincinnati, including a 64-yard TD catch in the third quarter. Nelson's 142 receiving yards were the most by a rookie in a game in 2015.

2015 NFL Rookie Leaders – Receiving Yards (Game)

Rnk	Player (Team)	Yds	Opponent
1	J.J. Nelson (AZ)	142	11/22 vs. Cincinnati

4	Matt Jones (Was)	131	11/15 vs. New Orleans
5	Stefon Diggs (Min)	129	10/18 vs. Kansas City

Nelson also made an impact in the Cardinals wins over the 49ers and Rams the next two weeks. He had catches of 34 and 19 yards against the 49ers in Week 12 and he hauled in two passes for 34 yards against the Rams in Week 13, including a 22-yard TD catch in the first quarter. For the year, Nelson had 11 receptions for 299 yards and two TDs. He averaged 27.2 yards per catch. Nelson's 11 receptions in '15 covered 38, 20, 12, 23, 64, 36, 19, 19, 34, 22 and 12 yards.

ADDING 'FIRE' TO 'SMOKE'

In 2014 the Cardinals selected WR John Brown in the third round (91st overall) out of Pittsburg State. Known as "Smokey" to family and friends growing up, the nickname followed him to the NFL.

The Cardinals tested that draft formula again in 2015 when they selected another small school receiver with speed in Nelson. Arizona selected Nelson out of Alabama-Birmingham.

In college, Nelson was known for making big plays. During his four seasons at Alabama-Birmingham, Nelson averaged 19.6 yards per reception (116 catches for 2,273 yards) and of his 27 career TDs, 19 covered more than 40 yards.

The similarities between Brown and Nelson did not escape their Cardinals teammates and Nelson was given the nickname "Fire" to "Smoke."

A CHANCE ENCOUNTER WITH THE HEAD COACH

Nelson first caught the attention of many when he turned in fastest 40-yard dash of any player at the 2015 NFL Combine. But Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians got a glimpse of Nelson's speed years earlier in a chance encounter.

"I was at a track meet in Alabama – the state championships and my granddaughter was running," Arians remembered following the selection of Nelson. "This kid from Midfield won the 100, 200, 4x1(00) – little skinny dude. My son and I go, 'Who in the hell is that?' It just happened to be J.J. Nelson."

SRP TO PLANT THOUSANDS OF TREES TO CELEBRATE CARDINALS TOUCHDOWNS IN 2015

The Cardinals scored a franchise-record 58 touchdowns on their way to a 13-3 record and an NFC West title in 2015, and as a result, Salt River Project will plant 5,800 trees to help restore Arizona National Forests destroyed by fire.

For the past three seasons, SRP has partnered with the Cardinals and pledged to fund the planting of 100 Ponderosa Pine trees for every Cardinals touchdown scored during regular season play through the "Trees for Change" program.

The program is funded by SRP and SRP customers who pledged an additional $3 or more to their monthly bill – with one tree planted for every dollar that is donated. SRP matches customer dollars up to $160,000. So far, more than 4,000 customers have joined the program.

Since 2009, SRP's Trees for Change program has supported substantial and important reforestation projects on Arizona's National Forests. In six years, the program has supported the planting of more than 868,000 native trees in some of the most devastated forests in the country.

PETERSON AMONG THE BEST

"I don't know if anybody's playing better at his position. He takes their best receiver and he shuts them down. He's just completely wiped out whoever we put him on."
- Head coach Bruce Arians on CB Patrick Peterson

The Cardinals selected CB Patrick Peterson with the fifth overall pick in the 2011 NFL Draft and in his first five NFL seasons he earned five Pro Bowl selections and was named first-team All-Pro three times. He has proven to be one of the most unique talents in NFL history.

In addition to being one of the top corners in the NFL, Peterson has broken numerous NFL punt return records and spent time on the offensive side of the ball, becoming the first NFL defender to post a reception and complete a pass in the same game.

Peterson's most important role has been as a shutdown CB on one of the league's top defenses. Peterson has started all 80 games at CB in his five NFL seasons. Despite opposing QBs avoiding his side of the field, Peterson has registered 17 INTs since 2011, the fourth-highest total in the NFL during that span.

Peterson registered his second INT of the 2015 season against the Lions in Week 5. Dating back to his rookie season in '11 only Richard Sherman, Charles Woodson and Reggie Nelson have more INTs than Peterson.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowler Patrick Peterson's play on the field has made him one of the NFL's brightest young stars. The Cardinals 2015 "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" has used his status to give back to the community through his foundation and his various charitable contributions.

In 2013, he created the "Foundation for Success" which aims to provide low-income and inner city youth with opportunities and resources to reach their full potential. The foundation hopes to implement an excellent balance for community development.

Being selected as the Cardinals "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" helps recognize a player's off the field community service as well as his playing excellence. The NFL granted $5,000 to Peterson's foundation last year as part of the award and Nationwide provided an additional $10,000 for receiving the honor.

Last December, Peterson hosted his third annual "Shop with a Jock" event at Walmart. Peterson, with the help of Santa and his teammates, hosts the holiday event each year for 50 low-income and at-risk inner city families and provides the children with a unique holiday shopping experience. He has also hosted an annual "Show and Tell" car show in April the last three years in Mesa to benefit his foundation.

In January of 2015, Peterson unveiled the first "Patrick's Corner" of his foundation for students and families at Nevitt Elementary School in Phoenix. "Patrick's Corner" provides access to books and a safe environment to read with friends and family for at-risk students. His foundation is planning to place and maintain 10 "Patrick's Corners" libraries in Title I schools and inner city community centers throughout Arizona to provide at-risk students with access to books and a safe environment to read with friends and families. Peterson has already opened four 'Patrick's Corners" and will be opening six more by the end of 2016.

In collaboration with "Patrick's Corner," Peterson has also launched the "Pick Up a Book" initiative within the Phoenix community which is designed to bring families, schools and communities together to support children's literacy development. The program will work to:

- Help families foster the skills, attitudes and behaviors that support children's literacy development
- Help schools engage families through fun, literacy-based events
- Better prepare children for reading and learning
- Support schools with their family engagement goals

This past November, Peterson hosted his second annual "Celebs and Steaks" fundraising event at Donovan's Steak and Chop House. The money raised continues to provide Arizona low-income and inner city youth with opportunities and resources to reach their full potential.

He hosted his first annual Patrick Peterson Celebrity Golf Tournament in March of 2016. The two-day event raised $275,000 for his foundation. The weekend was filled with a VIP Cocktail Party at Penske Racing Museum followed by the golf tournament at Camelback Golf Club. Patrick was joined by many of his Cardinals teammates as well as celebrities and athletes from other sports.

In addition to his foundation work, Peterson is also very active through Cardinals team community events. Last December, Peterson jointed teammates and participated in the team's "Teddy Bear Express" event. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. He also visited Boys Hope Girls Hope for the team's annual Christmas party. Boys Hope Girls Hope helps academically capable and motivated children by providing family like homes, opportunities and education through college.

Cardinals cornerback Justin Bethel and quarterback Drew Stanton joined Governor Doug Ducey, Nicole Bidwill, Cardinals Cheerleaders and team mascot Big Red to participate in the annual "Read Across America" program at the Phoenix Salvation Army KROC Center in March.

"Read Across America" is an annual reading motivation and awareness program sponsored by the National Education Association that calls for every child to celebrate reading on Dr. Seuss' birthday (March 2). 2016 marked what would have been his 112th birthday. The event's purpose is to motivate children to read and focus the country's attention on the importance of reading.

Over 250 students took part in the "Read Across America" event at the KROC Center. The theme of the event was "Oh the Places You'll Go!" Students were given the opportunity to explore their imaginations thanks to their favorite characters and a great story.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2008, quarterback Drew Stanton established "The High 5ive Foundation" which focuses on improving the quality of life for all people with varying disabilities through raising public awareness and inspiring individuals towards achieving personal goals.

As a result of his various fundraising initiatives, which includes an annual golf outing and a kickball tournament back in his home state of Michigan, Stanton's foundation is able to help support funding for five different organizations: Special Olympics of Michigan, Children's Miracle Network, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Orchard's Children's Services and Sparrow Children's Center.

The foundation was able to provide uniforms for the 2014 Special Olympics Winter Games and in 2015, the High 5ive Foundation was presented with the Joe Falls Inspiration Award at the annual Special Olympics Inspire Greatness Gala in Detroit. The award recognizes an individual involved with Special Olympics Michigan who has had a historic and dramatic impact on the program. In addition last year, Stanton, in partnership with the Taylor Haugen Foundation and his own foundation, helped outfit the football team at the high school he graduated from (Harrison) with special equipment to help protect players from internal injuries.

Stanton is also one of the most active players on the Cardinals roster that participates in team community events. During the holiday season the past three years, Stanton was a regular participant in the team's "Teddy Bear Express" event at Phoenix Children's Hospital. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. In December, Stanton and teammates visited Boys Hope Girls Hope for the team's annual Christmas party. Boys Hope Girls Hope helps academically capable and motivated children by providing family like homes, opportunities and education through college.

This past offseason, Stanton visited the Salvation Army KROC Center for two events, first joining Arizona Governor Doug Ducey for the national "Read Across America" program to encourage reading on the birthday of Dr. Seuss. He also took part in the "Team Smile" event at the KROC Center to provide 300 kids free dental care while participating in an Easter Egg hunt. Stanton also visited the Cardinals Preparatory Academy in March to speak to the students as part of the school's leadership program.

He also participated at the United Way and NFL's annual "Hometown Huddle" program at Pioneer Preparatory School for a ribbon cutting to celebrate the completion of a new playground and shade structure that was destroyed in a fire. As part of that program, Stanton coached a Kids Camp for 125 students from the school to help promote the NFL's Play 60 program.

Last season as part of Breast Cancer Awareness month, Stanton visited Tempe High School for the Cardinals annual "Pink Game" and participated in a special halftime presentation for breast cancer survivors at a high school football game. He joined Nicole Bidwill and presented each survivor with a commemorative football. Stanton also took part in the team's annual holiday Food Drive last October by taking part in the kickoff event at St. Mary's Food Bank. In November, Stanton and his Cardinals teammates hosted the team's "Pro vs. G.I. Joe" program where Cardinals players competed in video games with Arizona soldiers from the Wounded Warrior Regiment who are based in Iraq and Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO.

He joined representatives from Walmart in 2014 for a ribbon cutting ceremony at Camelback High School to celebrate the installation of a new football field as part of the "Neighborhood Heroes" program. Stanton joined the Cardinals Women's Club, Big Red and teammates for the Light the House party to help spread holiday cheer at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House the past two years. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children.

In the 2015 offseason, Stanton was part of the Anthony Bates Foundation cardiac screening day at Paradise Valley High School. The annual event provides testing for early detection of heart disease. He also visited students in the S.H.A.D.E. (Students Helping Access Doors Educationally & Socially) club at Tempe High School the past two years as part of Autism Awareness Month in 2015 and 2016.

In November of 2013, he joined team President Michael Bidwill and players at the annual "Help Feed the Hungry" event. The Cardinals group helped serve Thanksgiving dinner to those less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission. He also joined Bidwill and Cardinals teammates at the NFL's Super Bowl Legacy Grant event leading up to Super Bowl XLIX in Arizona by participating at a press conference that was followed up by a Heads Up Football Clinic at ASU Preparatory Academy.

A FREE AGENT STEAL

The Cardinals first free agent signing of the 2014 offseason came when they inked LT Jared Veldheer to a five-year contract in hopes of shoring up the offensive line. What they got with that investment is a player who has played at a Pro Bowl level while starting every game the last two years.

Between 1996 and 2013, Arizona saw 14 different players make at least one start at left tackle as the team searched for a player who could serve as the foundation for the offensive line.

Veldheer has filled that role the last two years and exceeded all expectations with his play. He has helped the Cardinals rank among the league leaders in fewest sacks allowed in both 2014 and 2015.

KEEPING THE QUARTERBACK CLEAN

The Cardinals gave up just 27 sacks on 562 pass attempts in 2015. Arizona's 27 sacks allowed tied for the fourth-fewest in the NFL last season, after they tied for sixth in the NFL with just 28 sacks allowed in 2014.

2015 INDIVIDUAL MILESTONES

President Michael Bidwill

- In 2015 the Cardinals won their third division title and fifth postseason game of Bidwill's tenure as team President. Prior to him taking over as President in 2007, the Cardinals had won just two postseason games in their entire playoff history.

General Manager Steve Keim

- The Cardinals have more wins during Keim's first three seasons as GM (34) than in any three-year span in team history. That includes a franchise record 13 wins in 2015.

Head Coach Bruce Arians

- After leading Arizona to a 13-3 record in 2015, now has a .717 win percentage in 60 games as a head coach in the NFL (34-14 in Arizona). Among head coaches with a minimum of 50 career games, Arians' .717 percentage ranks fifth all-time.

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- Named to his ninth career Pro Bowl after establishing a franchise single-season record with 109 receptions in 2015. At 32 years, 97 days old in Week 13 at St. Louis, Fitzgerald became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 1,000 career receptions.

QB Carson Palmer

- Started all 16 regular season games for the second time in three seasons in Arizona and established franchise single-season records with 4,671 passing yards, 35 TD passes and a 104.6 passer rating. His 11 games with a 100+ passer rating led the NFL in 2015. Named second-team All-Pro (AP) and was voted to the Pro Bowl for the first time since 2006.

RB David Johnson

- Totaled 1,636 all-purpose yards (581 rushing, 457 receiving, 598 KOR) and a franchise rookie record 13 TDs in 2015. Became just the fourth player in NFL history to post 500+ rushing yards, 400+ receiving yards, 500+ kickoff return yards and 13+ TDs in a season.

WR John Brown

- Totaled 65 receptions for 1,003 yards and seven TDs in his second NFL season. Combined with Larry Fitzgerald (1,215), it marked just the fifth time in team history the Cardinals had multiple players with 1,000+ receiving yards in a season.

CB Patrick Peterson

- Named first-team All-Pro for the third time (2nd as a CB) and was selected to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl (4th as a CB). Joined Hall of Famers Jim Brown, Barry Sanders and Emmitt Smith as the only players in NFL history to be chosen to five Pro Bowls before their 26th birthday.

S Tyrann Mathieu

- Appeared in 14 games and was named first-team All-Pro after totaling 89 tackles, a team-high 16 passes defensed, 5 INTs (1 TD), 11 tackles for loss and a forced fumble. Named NFC Defensive Player of the Month in November.

S Deone Bucannon

- In his second season, led the team with 127 total tackles and tied for the team lead with 17 tackles for loss. Added three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, three sacks and an INT he returned 39 yards for a TD playing the dollar linebacker position.

LB Dwight Freeney

- Despite being signed in the middle of October, went on to lead the team with 8.0 sacks in just 11 regular season games.

DT Calais Campbell

- Named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season after totaling 68 tackles and 5.0 sacks. With a career-high 2.5 sacks vs. Green Bay in Week 16, moved into fourth place on the franchise all-time sacks list with 48.5.

K Chandler Catanzaro

- Connected on 28 FGs and 53 PATs in 2015. His 137 total points ranked third in the NFL last season and also rank as the second-highest single-season total in franchise history (140, Neil Rackers - 2005).

2015 GAME SUMMARIES

CARDINALS 31, SAINTS 19

SEPTEMBER 13, 2015
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,903)

In his first game back after a torn ACL ended his promising 2014 season, QB Carson Palmer picked up where he left off throwing for 3 TDs, no INTs or sacks, and topped 300 passing yards in a 31-19 Cardinals win. With the season-opening victory, Palmer became to 1st Cards QB since Jim Hart in 1974 to win 7 straight games and improved to 14-2 over his last 16 starts. The Saints had reached the red zone 5 times but had to settle for FGs from rookie Zack Hocker on 4 of them as the Cards D surrendered just 1 TD. Larry Fitzgerald led AZ with 6 catches for 87 yards and the team averaged almost 5 yards per rush.

AZ took the opening kickoff 80 yards in 9 plays and got on the scoreboard first when Palmer found WR John Brown in the end zone on 3rd-n-goal from the 10. After a 37-yard Hocker FG, RB Andre Ellington made it 14-3 with a 1-yard TD run at the end of a 5-play, 88-yard drive; the biggest chunk came on a 48-yard completion to TE Darren Fells that moved it to the 18. The Saints responded with their lone TD drive of the day and made it 14-10 when Drew Brees connected with Brandon Coleman on a 12-yard scoring hook-up. That drive was extended when AZ was flagged for 12 men on the field as the Saints were punting and the penalty gave them a fresh set of downs.

On the opening play of the 2nd half, Brees hit WR Willie Snead with a 63-yard pass to the 12 but the Cards D forced them to settle for a 23-yard Hocker FG that made it a 1-point game at 14-13. Later in the quarter the Saints had the ball at the AZ45 but on 3rd-n-7, S Rashad Johnson INT'd Brees pass that led to a 43-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG that made it 17-13 AZ. The lead was trimmed to 1 again after another Saints FG and momentum seemed to be with the Saints. However, Palmer & Co came thru; runs by Ellington & Chris Johnson helped move the chains before Fells hauled in a 17-yard pass from Palmer that gave AZ an 8-point lead. New Orleans, however, would not go away. A 59-yard catch-n-run by Mark Ingram took it to the AZ15 but the D again held the Saints to just a FG. Ahead just 5, the Cards next drive stalled before a Drew Butler punt pinned the Saints at their own 3. The Cards forced a 3-n-out and then took over at their own 43 with 1:49 left and needed just a 1st down or 2 to seal the game. On 2nd-n-8 from the AZ45 and the whole world expecting a run, AZ called for a short pass to RB David Johnson that the rookie hauled in and took 55 yards down the sideline for a game-sealing TD.

CARDINALS 48, BEARS 23

SEPTEMBER 20, 2015
SOLDIER FIELD – (62,351)

In a week 2 match-up in Chicago, the Cardinals erupted for 48 points and moved to 2-0 thanks to dominating efforts in all 3 phases. WR Larry Fitzgerald hauled in a regular-season best 3 TD passes and Carson Palmer threw 4 total. AZ produced 7 total TDs including one in each of their 4 red zone trips. The defense scored its own TD on a Tony Jefferson INT off Jay Cutler that also ended the veteran signal caller's afternoon late in the 1st half when he was injured on the return.

The AZ scoring began as soon as the game did when rookie RB David Johnson returned the opening kickoff 108 yards for a TD. It was the longest play in franchise history and a yard shy of the NFL record for longest kickoff return. Chicago tied it late in the 1st quarter when Cutler connected on a 48-yard TD to WR Josh Bellamy. AZ answered on its next drive, taking advantage of a 42-yard pass interference penalty that moved it to the 11 and Palmer capitalized with a 6-yard TD to WR Jaron Brown. The Bears then tied it again when rookie RB Jeremy Langford's 1-yard run capped a 10-play, 70-yard drive. The Cards surged ahead again with an 80-yard TD drive that was also aided by a long DPI penalty (38 yards to the 16). That set up an 8-yard Fitzgerald TD. In all the Bears were flagged 14 times for 170 yards. The game's pivotal play came with 3 minutes to go before halftime. With Cutler a perfect 8-8 passing, the Bears faced 2nd-n-9 from the CHI21 when Jefferson INT'd a pass at the 26 and ran it in for the TD. AZ was now up 28-14, Cutler was lost for the game with hamstring injury suffered on the return and back-up Jimmy Clausen took over. AZ quickly forced a punt but rookie JJ Nelson muffed the return and CHI recovered at the AZ22. The Cards D held the Bears to a FG but misfortune again struck for AZ on the next play from scrimmage when Palmer's pass to the flat was tipped and picked by LB Jared Allen. CHI took over at the AZ12 with :54 to go in the 2nd but the Cards again held to just a FG and it was 28-20 at intermission.

On the opening drive of the 3rd Patrick Peterson picked a Clausen pass, turning the ball over to the offense at the CHI32. The takeaway led to a 28-yard Palmer-Fitzgerald hook-up on a flea flicker that made it 35-20. The next AZ offensive series ended with a 13-yard David Johnson TD run that upped the lead to 42-20 with 6:06 to go in the 3rd. A 3rd Robbie Gould FG made it 42-23 after 3 and a 3rd Fitzgerald TD pass from Palmer provided the only points of the final quarter.

The 48 points were the most ever allowed by the Bears at home and most by Cards in a road game in 50 years. David Johnson became first player in NFL history with TDs via run, reception and kickoff return after just two career games.

CARDINALS 47, 49ERS 7

SEPTEMBER 27, 2015
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (63,663)

A week after their convincing 25-point win at Chicago, the Cardinals returned home to face the Niners and delivered an even more dominating all-around effort with a 47-7 victory. Offensively, they rolled up 446 total yards thanks in part to a 110-yard, 2 TD rushing effort from RB Chris Johnson, who started in place of Andre Ellington. Through the air, Larry Fitzgerald continued his torrid pace and had a pair of TDs among his game-high 9 catches for 134 yards while Carson Palmer threw for 311 yards en route to his 9th straight win as a starter (16th in his last 18).

Perhaps more impressive was the play of an AZ defense that opened the game with a pair of INT touchdowns 2 minutes apart from DBs Justin Bethel and Tyrann Mathieu, respectively. The pick sixes were 2 of the 4 INTs thrown by Colin Kaepernick in his first 4 pass attempts. In all, the D held San Fran to 53 net passing yards and just 156 overall while allowing the 49ers to cross midfield just once all game, after a punt return to the Arizona 19-yard line.

After the INT returns put AZ up 14-0 early, the next two Cards drives went 81 yards and ended on Johnson TD runs that made it 28-0 midway thru the 2nd. San Fran's lone score of the day came after Jarryd Hayne's 37-yard punt return to the AZ19 set-up a 12-yard Kaepernick TD run that made it 28-7. A rare Palmer INT gave San Fran an opportunity for more points but Mathieu's 2nd INT of the day gave AZ the ball back at the SF25 with :30 let in the 1st half. It led to a 22-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG that gave the Cards a 31-7 lead at intermission.

On the 1st play of the 2nd half CB Jerraud Powers picked off Kaepernick and 4 plays later Palmer and Fitzgerald connected on a 4-yard TD pass. Later in the 3rd, Bethel downed a Drew Butler punt inside the 1 and on the next snap LB Kevin Minter tackled RB Carlos Hyde in the end zone for a safety that made it 40-7. The only further scoring came on a long drive (13 plays, 79 yards, 7:42) in the 4th that also ended on a Palmer-to-Fitzgerald TD hook-up.

The victory improved the Cards to 3-0 for the 3rd time in 4 years and gave them a 2-game lead in the NFC West. The 47-point explosion gave AZ a franchise record 126 after 3 games, 4th most in NFL history after 3. The 40-point margin of victory was the team's largest since 1970. The Cards scored 45+ points in consecutive games for just the third time in team history and the first time since 1962.

RAMS 24, CARDINALS 22

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (63,146)

The Cardinals experienced defeat for the first time in 2015 and fell to 3-1 following a 2-point home loss to the Rams. It was a typically tough and physical NFC West match-up that came down to a couple key plays and it was the Rams who made more of them. Arizona outgained St. Louis 447-328 and had twice as many first downs (26-13). While they moved the ball well between the 20's, the Cards came away with just 4 Chandler Catanzaro FGs on their first 4 red zone trips and committed 3 costly turnovers while the Rams had none. Those 3 takeaways led to 17 St. Louis points that proved to be pivotal.

After not trailing at any point in their first 3 games, the Cards never led in this one. Rookie David Johnson fumbled the opening kickoff and the Rams recovered at the AZ17. Three plays later Nick Foles connected with WR Tavon Austin on a 12-yard scoring pass that gave STL an early 7-0 lead. Later in the opening quarter, AZ had a 1st-n-goal from the 1 but was forced to settle for a 21-yard FG. The next Cards drive also penetrated the STL red zone on their next drive but they again came away with 3 on a short Catanzaro FG. After the AZ defense forced its 3rd straight 3-n-out, the Cards seemed on the verge of taking the lead. However Carson Palmer's deep middle throw to John Brown was INT'd in the end zone by Janoris Jenkins. The Rams came up with a Greg Zuerlein FG on the ensuing drive that made it 10-6. Just before halftime AZ moved 56 yards to set-up Catanzaro's 3rd FG that made it 10-9 at intermission.

Early in the 3rd, Palmer hit Larry Fitzgerald for a 22-yard gain on 3rd-n-2 but the Rams knocked the ball loose and recovered at their own 20. Three straight Todd Gurley runs moved it to the AZ18 where on 3rd-n-5 Foles hit Stedman Bailey for a TD that made it 17-9. The next two AZ drives went deep into STL territory but each again ended on Catanzaro FGs that trimmed the Rams lead to 17-15 with 11:57 to play. On the next drive, a 52-yard Gurley run took it to the AZ16 and ultimately led to another Foles-Austin TD on 3rd down that put STL up 24-15 with 8:16 remaining. The Cards desperately needed to answer and they did. Two plays after Fitzgerald picked up 14 yards on a key 4th-n-4 at the STL33, Palmer lofted a pass down the middle that David Johnson gathered in for a TD that made it a 2-point game with 4:38 left. After sending the Rams 3-n-out, AZ took over at its own 37 with 2:51 remaining. By the 2:00 warning the Cards reached the STL44 before 3 straight incompletions resulted in turning it over on downs with 1:44 to play. They never saw the ball again as Gurley and the Rams ran out the remaining time.

CARDINALS 42, LIONS 17

OCTOBER 11, 2015
FORD FIELD – (60,816)

On a day when the other three NFC West teams all lost, the Cardinals improved to 4-1 with a dominating performance at Detroit that extended their division lead to 2 games. They forced 6 Lions turnovers (4 INTs, 2 fumbles) and had none themselves. Safety Rashad Johnson had a hand in 3 of those takeaways (2 INTs, 1 fumble recovery) and the defense as a whole gave the Lions everything they could handle. In just 45 offensive snaps, AZ scored 42 points including a 28-point explosion in the 2nd quarter. Chris Johnson had 103 rushing yards on 11 carries to lead a ground attack that gained 187 yards overall. Carson Palmer had as many TD passes as incomplete passes (3) and the Cards eclipsed the 40-point mark for the 3rd time in 4 games.

The Cards opened the game with takeaways on the first 2 Detroit possessions. Rashad Johnson picked Matthew Stafford on the opening drive of the game and Tony Jefferson forced an Ameer Abdullah fumble on the second. However, AZ was unable to capitalize on either and it was Detroit that scored first on Theo Riddick's 6-yard TD pass from Stafford. The Cards answered when David Johnson's 35-yard kickoff return was followed immediately by a 25-yard Chris Johnson run with a personal foul penalty tacked on. That set-up a 14-yard Palmer TD pass to TE Darren Fells that tied the game. On the next series, the Lions faced a 2nd-n-15 at their own 42 when DE Cory Redding sniffed out a screen pass, INT'd the ball and returned it 30 yards to the 4. On the next play, David Johnson punched it in to put AZ up 14-7. After a Lions punt backed the Cards up to their own 1, Palmer hit John Brown with a 49-yard completion down the right sideline. Chris Johnson's 40-yard run then took it to the 2 where David Johnson again ran it in. On the ensuing series, Jefferson forced a Golden Tate fumble that Rashad Johnson recovered at the DET22. That led to an 18-yard scoring pass from Palmer to John Brown that gave Arizona TDs on 4 straight possessions and made it 28-7 at the half.

On Detroit's 1st series of the 2nd half, Patrick Peterson picked off Stafford and returned it 40 yards to the DET32. The INT not only ended the Lions drive but also the afternoon for Stafford who was replaced by Dan Orlovsky thereafter. A 26-yard Larry Fitzgerald catch took it to the 2 and a play later Palmer found him again with a quick scoring slant that made it 35-7. After a Lions FG made it 35-10 with 11:51 left, Drew Stanton came on in relief of Palmer. His 3rd snap was a handoff to Andre Ellington that the RB took 63 yards for a TD. Four plays later, Rashad Johnson notched his 2nd INT of the game, this time off of Orlovsky. A Lions TD with 1:29 remaining made the final score 42-17.

STEELERS 25, CARDINALS 13

HEINZ FIELD – (63,846)

The Cardinals thoroughly dominated early and reached Steelers territory on 5 of their 6 first half drives. But despite a 279-58 halftime edge in total offensive yards and 233-1 advantage in passing yards, they led just 10-3 at intermission. Missed opportunities, penalties and turnovers proved their undoing as Pittsburgh outscored Arizona 22-3 in the 2nd half. The Steelers did it behind QB Landry Jones who came on in the 3rd quarter to replace Michael Vick (hamstring), who himself was starting in place of injured Ben Roethlisberger (knee). The loss dropped AZ to 4-2 and overshadowed a career-day from WR John Brown who finished with 10 catches for 196 yards.

The Cards opened the scoring on their 2nd offensive series of the game when Carson Palmer's 3-yard pass to WR Michael Floyd made it 7-0. They were near midfield on the next drive when Palmer's pass deflected off TE Jermaine Gresham and was INT'd by LB Lawrence Timmons. Still up 7-0, AZ had another opportunity when Larry Fitzgerald's 44-yard catch-n-run took it to the PIT34 but they came away pointless when Chandler Catanzaro missed a 47-yard FG try. The Steelers took advantage of that field position and got on the board via Chris Boswell's 47-yard FG. Late in the 1st half, AZ moved to the PIT13. On 3rd-n-9 from the 13, officials missed a defensive pass interference in the end zone vs. Floyd 2 plays after negating a Floyd TD with a questionable offensive interference call against him. Instead AZ had to settle for Catanzaro's 31-yard FG that made it 10-3 at the half.

The Steelers opened the 3rd quarter with a 48-yard Boswell FG to make it 10-6. On the 2nd play of the ensuing drive, John Brown fumbled on a reception and Pittsburgh recovered at the AZ32. Four plays later Jones and WR Martavis Bryant connected on a 9-yard TD pass that put the Steelers up 12-10 after the 2-point try was unsuccessful. A 51-yard Boswell FG on the next PIT possession made it 15-10 late in the 3rd. AZ answered as John Brown's 42-completion took it to the Steeler 27 but they gained just 8 more yards and Catanzaro's 39-yard FG made it 15-13. The Steelers then moved 68 yards in 13 plays and extended the lead to 18-13 on Boswell's 4th FG, this one a 28-yarder midway thru the 4th. Trailing by 5, the Cards moved to the PIT20 in 8 plays but just before the 2:00 warning, Palmer's 1st down pass attempt to John Brown was INT'd in the end zone by S Mike Mitchell. The Cards needed a stop to get the ball back but on the 2nd play after the turnover, Bryant caught a short pass and then weaved 88 yards for a score that essentially sealed the game.

CARDINALS 26, RAVENS 18

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (64,722)

In a Monday night home game, the Cards held on to defeat Baltimore and improve to 5-2. The Ravens entered the game 1-5 but had not played a game decided by more than 6 points and would not go quietly in this one either. RB Chris Johnson rushed for 122 yards; 26 came on a 1st quarter TD run and 62 came on a 3rd quarter run that he kept alive by rolling over a defender. S Tyrann Mathieu's performance led the defense while a huge play from special teams ace Justin Bethel turned the game late in the 2nd quarter. The Cards did not commit a turnover but took it away twice themselves including a game-saving INT from Tony Jefferson in the closing seconds.

After the Ravens struck first with a 44-yard Justin Tucker FG at the end of their opening series, the Cardinals responded. Back-to-back Carson Palmer passes to TE Jermaine Gresham (21 yards) and WR Michael Floyd (33 yards) quickly moved it to the BAL26 where Chris Johnson took a handoff up the middle, spun from a tackler, bounced to the outside and then into the end zone to make it 7-3. It remained that way until the Ravens capped an 84-yard drive with a 14-yard Justin Forsett TD run that put Baltimore up 10-7 with 3:54 left in the 1st half. The Cards appeared to go 3-n-out but on the Raven return by Jeremy Ross, Cards all-pro special teamer Justin Bethel stripped him and recovered the fumble at the AZ20. Three plays later Palmer hit Floyd with a quick 3-yard slant that gave the Cards a 14-10 lead at the half.

Arizona opened the 3rd quarter with consecutive drives that produced 21-yard Chandler Catanzaro field goals. The first was set-up by a 35-yard completion to the BAL9. The second was aided by another Chris Johnson run; on this one he appeared to be tackled but his knee never hit the ground and he kept going for a 62-yard gain to the BAL8. Up 20-10, the Cards opened the 4th quarter with an 11-play, 79-yard drive that Palmer finished with a 4-yard TD pass to John Brown. Now up 26-10 after the kick failed, AZ was punting back the Baltimore with 4:40 left but the kick was blocked by Ravens CB Asa Jackson and recovered at the AZ1. After a Kyle Juszczyk TD reception and successful 2-point conversion, Arizona's lead was just 8 with 4:26 remaining. The Cards picked up one 1st down but were forced to punt it back to the Ravens who took over at their own 24 with 1:53 left and no timeouts. In 10 plays, Flacco moved it to the AZ4 with :18 left. An illegal shift penalty pushed it back to the AZ9 and with 6 seconds left, S Tony Jefferson INT'd a Flacco pass in the end zone to seal the game.

CARDINALS 34, BROWNS 20

FIRSTENERGY STADIUM – (67,431)

In week 8 at Cleveland, the Cardinals dug themselves out of an early hole and overcame 4 turnovers (3 fumbles, 1 INT) to post a 34-20 win that moved them to 6-2 at the season's midway point. Arizona trailed 20-7 with just under 5 minutes left in the 1st half before scoring 27 straight thereafter. Carson Palmer threw for 374 yards and 4 TDs while RB Chris Johnson & WR Michael Floyd topped 100 yards rushing and receiving, respectively. The offense rolled up 491 total yards and was an eye-popping 13 of 16 on 3rd down (81%). Defensively, the Cards posted a 2nd half shutout while surrendering just 5 first downs and 98 total yards (5 rushing) after intermission.

AZ received the game's opening kickoff and moved 82 yards in 11 plays, capping the drive with an 11-yard Palmer pass to TE Troy Niklas. The key play was a 1-handed 38-yard grab by rookie WR J.J. Nelson who saw his most extensive action to date filling in for injured John Brown (hamstring). After that though, the Browns took advantage of Cardinal mistakes to score 20 unanswered points. A Chris Johnson fumble set up Cleveland's 1st TD, a 9-yard pass from Josh McCown to WR Brian Hartline that tied it at 7. The AZ offense didn't cross midfield on its next 3 drives as Palmer barely missed on deep throws to Floyd and Larry Fitzgerald. The Browns meanwhile produced TD drives that McCown ended with short 3rd-n-goal passes to TE Gary Barnidge and another to Hartline. Their 3 straight TD drives put the Browns up 20-7 with 4:56 left in the 2nd quarter. A Chandler Catanzaro FG as the 1st half expired would make it 20-10.

On Arizona's 4th snap of the 2nd half, Palmer went deep down the right sideline to Floyd who hauled it in for a 60-yard TD to trim the lead to 3. Patrick Peterson's 38-yard punt return then set AZ up at the CLE48 on the ensuing offensive series. On the next play a 35-yard completion to WR Jaron Brown moved it to the 13 and led to another TD pass to Niklas on 3rd-n-goal from the 1. Up 24-20, the next 2 Cards drives ended with a Palmer INT and Chris Johnson fumble. The latter gave the Browns possession at the AZ28 and a golden opportunity to re-take the lead. But on the 1st play of the 4th quarter, S Rashad Johnson made a leaping INT of a McCown pass in the end zone and the Cards never looked back. They controlled the ball for 11:42 of the final 15 minutes. In that time they added a Fitzgerald TD reception, his 7th of the year that ended a 12-play, 80-yard drive and then a late Catanzaro FG.

CARDINALS 39, SEAHAWKS 32

NOVMEBER 15, 2015
CENTURYLINK FIELD – (69,005)

In a wild week 10 showdown in Seattle on Sunday Night Football, the Cards jumped out to a big lead but saw it evaporate into the chilly November night. Against the two-time defending NFC champs in their typically hostile environment, Arizona absorbed some shots but shook them off to re-take the lead. The hard-fought 39-31 win moved the Cards to 7-2 and increased their division lead over the Rams and Seahawks to 3 games with 7 to play. Against the NFL's #2 defense (#2 against the pass), the Cards threw for 363 yards. Both Larry Fitzgerald (10-130) & Michael Floyd (7-113, 2TD) eclipsed the century mark. The game took almost 4 hours thanks in part to 6 replay reviews and 23 total penalties (202 yards) called by referee Clete Blakeman and his crew.

After a scoreless 1st quarter, AZ built a 19-0 l2nd quarter lead thanks to a FG, a safety and a pair of Carson Palmer TD passes to Floyd. Seattle got on the board late in the 2nd quarter with a Will Tukuafu 1-yard scoring plunge but AZ quickly answered. Chandler Catanzaro's 43-yard FG as the 1st half expired made it 22-7. In a scary moment midway thru the 2nd, guard Mike Iupati was carted off with a neck injury and was taken to a local hospital. He was later released and flew back to AZ with the team.

The two teams traded 3rd quarter FGs to make it 25-10 before Russell Wilson & Doug Baldwin connected on 32-yard TD. While AZ led 25-17 late in the 3rd, momentum was shifting towards the host Seahawks and was fully on their side after a pair of sacks/strips of Palmer led directly to a pair of Seattle TDs within a 2-minute span. The first gave Seattle possession at the AZ at the 3 and Marshawn Lynch punched it in a play later. The 2nd was returned 22 yards for a TD by LB Bobby Wagner. As a result the Seahawks led 25-23 after their two failed 2-point attempts failed and the Cards desperately needed Palmer to engineer a comeback. He did, leading the team on a 10-play, 83-yard drive that ended with a 14-yard TD pass to TE Jermaine Gresham. Up 32-29, the Cards D forced a punt returning it to the offense at its own 20 with 6:02 to play. Filling in for Floyd (hamstring), Jaron Brown had 3 huge catches late including an 8-yard reception on 3rd-n-3 at the 27. With 2:07 left AZ faced a pivotal 3rd-n-4 at the SEA48. That's when Andre Ellington took a delayed draw handoff and raced down the left sideline for a TD that made it 39-29. Seattle added a FG on the next series but Fitzgerald's recovery of the ensuing on-side kick.

CARDINALS 34, BENGALS 31

NOVEMBER 22, 2015
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (64,745)

In their 100th game at University of Phoenix Stadium and 2nd straight on Sunday Night Football, the Cards faced the 8-1 Bengals and their #1 ranked defense. The flexed game certainly proved worthy of the big stage. In a back and forth affair, AZ fell behind early before exploding for 21 unanswered points in the 3rd quarter. Cincy would rally late to tie it but former Bengal Carson Palmer, who bounced back from 2 early INTs, capped his memorable night by moving AZ into position for the game-winning FG in the closing seconds. In the absence of starting WR Michael Floyd, rookie speedster J.J. Nelson stepped up with 4 catches for 142 yards and a 64-yard TD.

On the game's opening drive the Cards advanced to the CIN46 but a sack backed them up into a 3rd-n-20 and Palmer's pass to Fitzgerald was INT'd by CB Leon Hall. After a series of punts, AZ took over at its own 37 but on the first play Palmer's pass down the deep middle was INT'd by FS Reggie Nelson who returned it to the CIN36. On the next play Andy Dalton connected deep down the left sideline on a 42-yard completion to WR AJ Green that took it to the 22. Six plays later Dalton hit TE Tyler Eifert with a TD on 3rd-n-goal from the 3. The Cards responded with a 10-play, 80-yard game-tying TD drive. The biggest play came on a 3rd-n-16 from midfield when Palmer hit Nelson on a 23-yard completion to the 27; 3 plays later Palmer found TE Darren Fells for an 18-yard TD. Cincy responded with its own 80-yard TD drive. Right after the 2:00 warning a screen pass to RB Giovani Bernard went for 41 yards to the AZ2 and set-up a Jeremy Hill TD run that made it 14-7 at the half.

On AZ's 4th snap of the 3rd, Palmer launched a deep pass that Nelson hauled in for a 64-yard TD to tie the game at 14. After a Cincy 3-n-out, the Cards went up 21-14 thanks to an efficient 8-play, 66-yard drive that ended on Palmer's 18-yard TD pass to WR John Brown. After another 3-n-out, AZ went up 28-14 with Palmer's 3rd TD pass of the quarter, a 16-yarder to rookie RB David Johnson. Early in the 4th, Hill's 1-yard TD run trimmed the lead to 28-21. Midway thru the 4th quarter, the Bengals had the ball when Markus Golden sacked Dalton forcing a fumble that Deone Bucannon recovered at the CIN10. That set up a 24-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG that put AZ up 10 with 6:27 to go. But the Bengals fought back. After another Eifert TD and a 43-yard Mike Nugent FG, the game was tied at 31 with 1:03 left. With no timeouts, AZ took over at its own 16 with :58 remaining. In consecutive plays, Palmer hit Nelson for 19, and Fitzgerald for 18 & 20 to move to the CIN27. Inside of :10 the Cards were preparing to spike it when Cincy NT Domata Peko shouted the snap cadence causing movement by the Cards but officials correctly called unsportsmanlike conduct. The penalty moved it to the 14 and set up Cantanzaro's game-winner.

CARDINALS 19, 49ERS 13

NOVMEBER 29, 2015
LEVI'S STADIUM – (70,799)

In a typically tough, hard-nosed NFC West battle, the Cardinals recorded their first win in San Francisco since 2008 with a 19-13 victory. It gave AZ its 5th straight win and a 9-2 record that kept their division lead at 3 games with 5 to play. The 49ers entered the game at 3-7 but gave the Cards all they could handle. The game was tied at 13 in the 4th but a late TD drive put the Cardinals ahead and the defense withstood one final 49er threat in the closing minutes to earn victory.

Arizona took a 6-0 lead after a pair of 1st half field goals from Chandler Catanzaro (26 & 41 yards). Each drive was set up by a Cardinals takeaway. The first came when Alani Fua recovered Bruce Ellington's muffed punt to give the Cards possession at the SF39 midway thru the first. AZ had the ball inside the SF10 but referee Pete Morelli and his crew incorrectly administered a SF penalty causing the Cards to lose a down. The second takeaway came on the next series when FS Tyrann Mathieu intercepted a Blaine Gabbert pass and returned it to the SF42. Mathieu would finish the game with a career-high 13 tackles to go along with the INT. The 49ers halved that lead when Phil Dawson's 53-yard FG as the 1st half expired made it 6-3.

On the 2nd play after intermission, Carson Palmer connected with John Brown on a 48-yard completion to the SF 23. AZ continued downfield and would have 9 snaps inside the SF3 thanks to 4 defensive penalties, including 3 pass interference calls. Ultimately rookie RB David Johnson ran it in from a yard out to make it 13-3. San Fran responded with a quick 77-yard drive, the biggest play of which was a 48-yard completion to TE Blake Bell that moved it to the AZ29. The drive ended with Gabbert's 8-yard TD pass to TE Vance McDonald that made it a 3-point game. Late in the 3rd, Dawson's 33-yard FG would tie it at 13. With 10:25 left in the game, the Cards took over at their own 15 on what would be the game's pivotal drive. It began with a holding penalty that quickly backed AZ up to the 8. A 9-yard Jermaine Gresham catch on 3rd-n-8 kept the drive alive but an unnecessary roughness call on AZ soon led to a 3rd-n-19 at the 17. The Cards would pick it up thanks to a foul on the 49ers sideline for interference. AZ then benefitted from a roughing the passer call against DT Quinton Dial on a Palmer sack. With 4:05 left, Palmer launched a 2nd-n-14 pass deep down the middle that rookie WR J.J. Nelson hauled in at the 1. After a run and a false start, the Cards faced 2nd-n-goal at the 8 when Palmer scrambled 8 yards for the go-ahead score. It was just the 8th rushing TD of his career and his first since 2012. The Cards led by just 6 with 2:28 remaining after the PAT hit the upright. The Niners would advance to the AZ30 with 1:30 to play but 2 incompletions and a Tony Jefferson sack led to a 4th-n-20 at the AZ40. The Cards allowed a completion that was short of the line to gain and one first down on the ensuing series sealed the game.

CARDINALS 27, RAMS 3

DECEMBER 6, 2015
EDWARD JONES DOME – (51,115)

A week after injuries to Chris Johnson and Andre Ellington knocked Arizona's top 2 RBs from the lineup, rookie David Johnson was forced into duty at St. Louis where he made his 1st career start. He responded with 99 rushing yards on 22 carries and also added a receiving TD. Defensively, the Cards held St. Louis to just 3 points, 9 first downs and 212 total yards. Carson Palmer threw for 356 yards with 2 TDs and no INTs. Larry Fitzgerald became the youngest player in NFL history to record 1,000 catches (11th overall) while also eclipsing 1,000 yards on the season for the 7th time in his career. It all added up to a 24-point win that moved AZ to 10-2 and extended the Cards win streak to 6 games. It also kept their division lead at 3 games with 4 to play.

After winning the toss, the Cardinals took the opening kickoff 80 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 22-yard Palmer TD pass to rookie WR JJ Nelson. A late 2nd quarter Chandler Catanzaro FG made it 10-0 at halftime. Just 2 of St. Louis' 21 first-half snaps on offense took place in AZ territory and the Cards had a 245-82 halftime edge in total yards of offense. S Rashad Johnson recorded his 5th INT of the season with a 1st quarter pick of Nick Foles.

Early in the 3rd, a 34-yard Todd Gurley run took it to the AZ17. It was the only big play of the afternoon for the dangerous rookie who gained just 7 rushing yards on his 8 other carries combined. This one, however, set up a 35-yard Zach Hocker field goal that made it 10-3. After a mishandled kickoff by Kerwynn Williams went out of bounds at the AZ2, the Cards were backed up to their own goal line in a one-score game. On a pivotal 3rd-n-3 from the 9, Michael Floyd made a leaping reception for 31 yards down the left sideline and on the next play, David Johnson ran 23 yards to the Rams 37. Johnson would end the drive with his 9th TD of the year on a 10-yard TD pass from Palmer. After a Rams 3-n-out, the Cards went up 27-3 when Kerwynn Williams scored his first career TD on a 35-yard run up the middle that capped a 7-play, 81-yard drive. Catanzaro's 29-yard FG with 4:09 left provided the game's final points.

The victory gave AZ a road sweep of division opponents and 10+ wins for the third straight season. Bruce Arians became just the 10th person in NFL history to record 10+ wins in each of his first three seasons as a head coach. The loss was St. Louis' 5th straight and dropped the Rams to 4-8 on the season.

CARDINALS 23, VIKINGS 20

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (64,784)

In a week 14 Thursday night tilt in Arizona, the Cards & Vikings went down to the wire. A season-long 47-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG gave AZ a 23-20 lead with 83 seconds left but Minnesota wouldn't go away. With :13 left, the Vikings had moved into position for a 48-yard game-tying FG attempt and faced 3rd-n-10 at the AZ31. But with the game on the line, veteran LB Dwight Freeney executed one of his patented spin moves and got to QB Teddy Bridgewater, forcing a fumble that DT Calais Campbell recovered to seal the game. The victory was the Cardinals' 7th straight, gave them an 11-2 record and clinched a playoff berth. QB Carson Palmer was again superb completing 25 of 35 passes for 310 yards. His two TD passes gave him 31 on the season and the franchise's single-season record (Kurt Warner, 30 in 2008). WR Michael Floyd went over the century mark for the second straight game and had a game-high 102 receiving yards with a TD while rookie RB David Johnson gained 92 yards on 19 carries. The Cardinals benefitted from 3 takeaways and committed no turnovers themselves.

Arizona grabbed an early lead by taking the opening kickoff and striking first with a 27-yard Catanzaro FG. That 3-0 lead was short-lived as the Vikings answered with a 7-play, 80-yard drive that Adrian Peterson ended with a 9-yard TD run. Five plays later, Palmer and WR John Brown connected on a 65-yard scoring play that put AZ up 10-7. Midway thru the 2nd quarter, MIN reached the AZ22 but at the end of a Jarius Wright reception, Deone Bucannon forced a fumble that he recovered himself at the AZ15. The Vikings would tie it at 10 in the closing seconds of the half on Blair Walsh's 44-yard FG.

Minnesota opened the 3rd quarter by quickly moving to the AZ35 but the Cards responded with another big takeaway. DT Josh Mauro blew up Peterson as a reverse was developing, forcing a fumble that LB Alex Okafor recovered at the AZ43. On the ensuing drive, Palmer hit Floyd with a short pass that he turned into a 42-yard TD thanks to a key Larry Fitzgerald block along the sideline. The Cardinal lead grew to 10 on Catanzaro's 23-yard FG on the opening play of the 4th quarter. A 54-yard Walsh FG cut Minnesota's deficit to 7 and the Vikings then tied it with an 11-play, 88-yard drive that ended on a 7-yard Bridgewater pass to WR Mike Wallace. Now tied at 20, the Cards took over at their own 16 with 4:50 left. They moved to the MIN29 where Catanzaro's 47-yarder allowed AZ to re-claim the lead with 1:23 left. It was enough time for Minnesota to move into position for a potential game-tying FG attempt before Freeney came up with the game's decisive play.

CARDINALS 40, EAGLES 17

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD – (69,596)

In their final road game of the regular season, the Cards turned in a dominant performance on Sunday Night Football in Philly. Leading the effort was rookie RB David Johnson who ran for 187 yards and 3 TDs on the night while adding another 42 yards on 4 catches. The victory gave AZ 12 wins overall and 7 on the road – both single-season franchise records - while extending the team's win streak to 8 games. It also enabled the Cards to clinch their first NFC West title since 2009 and improved AZ's 2015 record in primetime games to 5-0 (3-0 on Sunday Night Football). The Cards benefitted from 2 Philly turnovers but for the 4th straight game committed none themselves.

The game was tied at 10 with 4:00 left in the first half when AZ faced a 2nd-n-5 at the PHI47. Johnson carried into the right side of the line, broke several tackles and then stiff-armed his way down the sideline for the go-ahead score. The Eagles responded by advancing deep into AZ territory and seemed poised to tie the game going into the half. But on 4th-n-inches from the AZ8, CB Jerraud Powers knifed into the backfield and helped stop RB Ryan Mathews for no gain causing the Eagles to turn it over on downs. From there the momentum of the game shifted entirely in Arizona's favor.

Johnson capped the Cards opening offensive series of the 2nd half with his 3rd TD of the night, a 1-yarder that came at the end of an 8-play, 87 yard drive. AZ then forced turnovers on the next two Philly possessions. The first came when rookie LB Markus Golden sacked Sam Bradford forcing a fumble that DT Frostee Rucker recovered at the AZ44. A couple minutes later, S DJ Swearinger recovered a Mathews fumble caused by DT Josh Mauro. That takeaway was followed by Carson Palmer's 16-yard TD pass to John Brown that put AZ up 30-10 late in the 3rd quarter. On the opening play of the 4th quarter, $LB Deone Bucannon notched his first career INT when he picked off Bradford and returned it 39 yards for a TD that extended the lead to 27 points. The Eagles quickly trimmed it on the next play from scrimmage when Bradford took advantage of a defensive miscommunication and connected on a 78-yard TD to WR Jordan Matthews that made it 37-17. Philly would get no closer and the game's final points came via a 38-yard Chandler Catanzaro with 2:59 left. Two plays later with the contest well in hand, the Cards were dealt a crushing blow when S Tyrann Mathieu suffered a season-ending knee injury after intercepting Bradford.

CARDINALS 38, PACKERS 8

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (64,878)

A week after clinching the division with a dominating 23-point win at Philly, the Cards returned home to face the 10-4 Packers with a chance to secure a 1st round bye for the first time in franchise history. The result was an even more decisive Arizona victory. Despite having 8 fewer offensive plays, the Cards outgained GB by 203 yards and scored 38 points against the NFL's #5 team in points allowed. Playing on his 36th birthday, Carson Palmer completed 2nd quarter TD passes to WRs Larry Fitzgerald and John Brown. They were followed by a 14-yard scoring run from do-everything rookie RB David Johnson, his 13th TD of the year. That staked AZ to a 17-0 lead early in the 3rd. After that, a pair of 3rd quarter Green Bay drives ended with Cardinal sacks of Aaron Rodgers that caused fumbles they returned for TDs. The first came when LB Kareem Martin forced Rodgers to lose the ball and DT Cory Redding took the recovery 36 yards for a TD. Later in the quarter, Dwight Freeney forced it from Rodgers on a sack and CB Jerraud Powers took the fumble 7 yards for another defensive TD. In all, the Cards recorded 9 sacks (their most since 1986) including 3.0 from Freeney and 2.5 by DT Calais Campbell. Rodgers was sacked a career-high 8 times before giving way to back-up Scott Tolzien.

The game was close early on and scoreless after one quarter. But on the 3rd play of the 2nd quarter, Palmer hit Fitzgerald with a TD pass on 3rd-n-goal from the 3 to make it 7-0. The next Cardinals drive reached the GB1 but they couldn't punch it in and had to settle for a Chandler Catanzaro FG. Up 10-0, the Cards took over at their own 24 with 2:00 to go in the 1st half. But on the 1st play, Palmer's screen pass was picked off by DT Mike Daniels who set the Packers up at the AZ15. It was Arizona's 1st turnover in five games. Two plays later GB faced a 3rd-n-5 at the 10. A TD or FG would make it a one score game and the Packers would get the ball 1st after intermission. However, Rodgers' pass intended for WR James Jones was INT'd by CB Justin Bethel in the end zone. That gave the AZ possession at its own 20 with :57 left. On the 1st play, the game's leading receiver Michael Floyd (6-111) took a Palmer pass 47 yards to the 9. With :11 left, the Cards faced a 3rd-n-goal at the 7 when Palmer hit Brown with a TD to make it 17-0 at the half.

For AZ, the 2nd half began just as favorably as the 1st half had ended. On the 3rd quarter's opening play from scrimmage, RB James Starks fumbled on a hit by S D.J. Swearinger and Powers recovered at the GB28. A 14-yard Floyd reception on the 1st play took it to the 14 and on the next snap, Johnson ran 14 yards off right tackle for a TD that gave AZ a 24-0 lead. Green Bay's lone score came on an Eddie Lacy reception late in the 3rd. The victory was the Cardinals' 9th straight (one shy of the franchise record) and improved their season record to 13-2.

SEAHAWKS 36, CARDINALS 6

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (64,546)

The Cardinals entered the regular season finale vs. Seattle with a 13-2 record having already clinched the #2 seed and a first-round bye. A home win over the Seahawks combined with a Carolina home loss to Tampa would elevate Arizona to the #1 seed and home-field advantage throughout the postseason. Neither outcome happened. The Cards would suffer just their 3rd defeat of the season and by far their most decisive. Seattle scored on each of its first 5 possessions (4 TDs & a FG) and led 30-6 at halftime. The Cardinals struggled in all three phases, surrendering their highest point total on defense and producing their lowest on offense. On special teams Seattle return man Tyler Lockett gained 139 yards on 4 punt returns and had consecutive returns of 66 & 42 that each led to TDs. The defeat snapped Arizona's win streak at 9 games, one shy of the franchise record (1948).

Seattle opened the game's scoring with a 12-play, 88-yard TD drive on its first offensive series. RB Christian Michael's 44-yard run provided half of the drive's yardage and Bryce Brown's 1-yard TD run made it 7-0. An INT by Jeremy Lane on the 2nd play of the next series set the Seahawks up at the AZ41 and led to a 52-yard Steven Hauschka FG that made it 10-0. Arizona answered when Carson Palmer's 17-yard pass to Larry Fitzgerald at the end of a 12-play, 80-yard drive made it 10-6 after Chandler Catanzaro's PAT was wide right. After a 7-yard Russell Wilson TD pass to FB Will Tukuafu on the next drive, the Seahawks led 17-6. Lockett then returned a punt 66 yards to the 16 and it led immediately to another Wilson TD pass, this one an 8-yarder to TE Chase Coffman. A Cards' 3-n-out was followed by a 42-yard Lockett punt return that set Seattle up at the AZ27. Three plays later, Wilson connected with Doug Baldwin on 24-yard TD that made it 30-6 at the half.

Palmer was kept from action in the 2nd half and gave way to back-up Drew Stanton. Wilson would stay in the game for another quarter before being replaced by Tarvaris Jackson early in the fourth. The game's only other scoring came via two Hauschka FGs of 33 and 52 yards.

Several Cardinals reached personal milestones in the game. Fitzgerald recorded 6 catches to eclipse his own franchise single-season record (103 in 2005) and finished the year with 108. Palmer set the club's single-season mark in that category (Neil Lomax in 1984) and he also finished with the highest passer rating ever for a Cards QB at 104.6 (Kurt Warner, 2008). John Brown eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards in a season for the first time in his career and the Cards offense finished the year ranked #1 in the NFL for the first time since 1948. The AZ defense finished 2015 ranked #5.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CARDINALS 26, PACKERS 20 (OT)

JANUARY 16, 2016
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (65,089)

Meeting in the Divisional Playoff round, the Cards and Pack turned in one for the ages. The wild game featured 23 total points in the first 56:15 and then 23 more in the final 4:49. It saw the Cards come back from a 4th quarter deficit to lead late before the Packers completed a 41-yard Hail Mary as time expired to force overtime. But in the end, as it so often does, the game was decided by all-pro WR Larry Fitzgerald who cemented his place among the game's greatest postseason players. He caught 8 passes for a club playoff record 176 yards and a TD. His biggest plays came when AZ needed it most, including a 75-yard catch-n-run on the 1st play of OT after Aaron Rodgers had delivered a gut punch at the end of regulation.

The Cardinals struck first when Michael Floyd's toe-tapping catch of a Carson Palmer pass in the back of the end zone gave them a 7-0 lead. A 100-yard INT return TD by CB Patrick Peterson would have given the Cards a 14-0 lead but it was negated by penalty. Green Bay would then dominate possession thanks to back-to-back 17-play drives that consumed more than 15 minutes in total. However, each ended in FGs rather than TDs and AZ led 7-6 at intermission.

The teams then opened the 3rd quarter by trading interceptions. First S Rashad Johnson picked off Rodgers but 3 plays later Ha Ha Clinton-Dix returned the favor with one off Palmer. RB Eddie Lacy then reeled off consecutive runs of 14 & 61 yards that set-up an 8-yard TD pass to WR Jeff Janis. With the Pack leading 13-7, AZ marched to the GB10 but had to settle for a 28-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG that cut it to 3. The next Cards drive also reached the 10 but Palmer's pass to John Brown in the end zone was picked by CB Damarious Randall. After another Pack punt, the Cards took over at their own 20 down 3 with 10:53 to go. In 13 plays they reached the GB9 when Palmer's pass into the end zone was deflected by Randall but ricocheted to Floyd for a TD. After the Packers turned it over on downs on 4 passes, AZ took over at the GB24 with 2:38 to go. Catanzaro's subsequent 36-yard FG made it 20-13 with 1:55 to play. Needing a TD to tie it, GB faced a 4th-n-20 from its own 4 when Rodgers completed a 60-yard deep ball to Janis that took it to the AZ36 with :21 left. Three plays later they faced a 2nd-n-15 from the AZ41 and time for one heave into the end zone. GB's prayers were answered when Janis came down with Rodgers' pass in the end zone with no time on the clock and the stadium stunned. The crazy ending got crazier when referee Clete Blakeman had to re-do the OT coin toss because it didn't flip on his first try. AZ ultimately won it and started the extra period at its own 20. On the first snap, Palmer spun away from pressure before firing across the field to a wide open Fitzgerald. The veteran WR proceeded to weave his way all the way to the GB 5 on a 75-yard gain. Two plays later, a shovel pass to Fitz ended it.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

PANTHERS 49, CARDINALS 15

JANUARY 24, 2016
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (74,294)

The NFC Championship Game featured the conference's top 2 seeds and league's top 2 offenses as the Cards (13-3) & Panthers (15-1) met in Charlotte with the dream of playing in Super Bowl 50. The dream quickly turned into a nightmare for Arizona. The Panthers scored on their first 3 offensive drives of each half and led 17-0 after one quarter, 24-7 at the half and ultimately won 49-15. They forced 7 Cardinal turnovers (4 INTs/3 fumbles) including 3 very costly ones late in the 2nd quarter when the Cards had a chance to re-claim momentum. It marked the 2nd straight year the Cards' season ended in Carolina and the loss denied Arizona the chance to advance to its 2nd Super Bowl in franchise history.

After a 45-yard Graham Gano FG put Carolina up 3-0, the next Panther drive started at the AZ49 thanks to a 32-yard Ted Ginn punt return. Five plays later, Ginn scored from 22 yards out on a reverse to make it 10-0. Arizona's 3rd straight drive ended in a punt but the defense had a chance to send the Panthers 3-n-out with a stop on 3rd-n-8 from the CAR14 . However, Newton hit Corey Brown with a 26-yard pass to the 40 and the WR broke one tackle to take it the rest of the way for an 86-yard score. Down 17-0 the Cards advanced to the CAR37. On 3rd-n-10, Carson Palmer was sacked by DT Kawann Short forcing a fumble that the Panthers recovered. After the AZ defense forced a 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 21 with 11:47 to play in the half. They would move 79 yards in 10 plays and David Johnson's 1-yard TD run made it 17-7. AZ then held Carolina without a 1st down and the ensuing punt was short. But as Patrick Peterson raced to catch the errant kick, he couldn't hold onto it and the Panthers recovered at the AZ46. Consecutive runs of 17 and 23 by RB Jonathan Stewart took it to the one and on 3rd-n-goal from there Newton was able to break the plane for a TD. On the next snap, Palmer's arm was hit by DE Charles Johnson forcing a fumble the Panthers recovered at the AZ31. Two plays later, though, Peterson INT'd Newton and returned it 72 yards to the 22 with :56 left. But on the very next play, Palmer's pass into the end zone was picked off by S Kurt Coleman allowing the Panthers to take a 24-7 lead into halftime.

Things got no better in the 2nd half for the Cards as another Gano FG and an 11-yard Newton run upped the lead to 34-7. Early in the 4th, Palmer's 21-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells and a successful 2-point conversion made it 34-15 with 14:16 remaining. However, the next 3 AZ drives would end in INTs, one of which was returned 22 yards for a TD by LB Luke Kuechly that provided the game's final points.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 30, COWBOYS 7

JANUARY 2, 1999
TEXAS STADIUM – (62,969)

Arizona's finest defensive performance of the season rewarded the Cardinals with their first postseason victory in 51 years (28-21 vs. Philadelphia in 1947 NFL Championship game) in their first postseason appearance in 23 years (1975) that came in a non-strike season. The Cardinals defeat the Dallas Cowboys 20-7 at Dallas Stadium, ending not only their playoff drought but their nine-game losing streak on the Cowboys home turf. It was just the second victory over Dallas in the last 17 meetings between the two teams. It was the first home-field loss for the Cowboys since 1983.

The Cardinals defense produced three interceptions, 15 passes defensed (six by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous), four sacks, four tackles for a loss, and allowed QB Troy Aikman to complete just 22-of-49 passes for 191 yards. Arizona's defense held the Cowboys offense to just 260 total yards on the day. Outside linebacker Jamir Miller led the defense with 15 total tackles and two sacks while defensive end Andre Wadsworth also collected a pair of sacks. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams grabbed two INTs and safety Tommy Bennett recorded one.

It was the defense that turned the tide of the game early. After Arizona jumped up to a 7-0 lead, the Cowboys were poised to tie the game, facing a fourth-and-one situation at Arizona's seven-yard line midway through the second quarter. Cardinals LB Mark Maddox dropped Dallas RB Emmitt Smith for a one-yard loss on the play and Arizona added a 37-yard Chris Jacke FG later in the quarter to give the Cards a 10-0 lead heading into halftime.

RB Adrian Murrell raced 74 yards to the Cowboys three-yard line on the second play of the third quarter, followed by a 3-yard TD pass from Jake Plummer to Larry Centers that gave the Cardinals a 17-0 lead that was never threatened. Another Jacke field goal from 46 yards out capped the scoring for the Cardinals in the fourth quarter. The Arizona defense's shutout bid ended with 3:33 remaining on a six-yard TD pass from Aikman to WR Billy Davis.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CARDINALS 21, VIKINGS 41

JANUARY 10, 1999
METRODOME – (63,760)

Arizona's playoff run ended in Minnesota with a 41-21 loss to the high-scoring Vikings who turned three Cardinals turnovers into 17 points.

After the Vikings drove 80 yards in 13 plays in their opening possession to take a 7-0 lead on RB LeRoy Hoard's first rushing TD, interceptions of QB Jake Plummer on the first two possessions of the second quarter quickly turned into 10 points for a 17-0 Vikings advantage by the time the Cardinals had run five offensive plays. Minnesota, fielding the highest scoring offense in NFL history up to that point, registered 416 total net yards (228 passing, 188 rushing), cracking the 400-yard plateau for the ninth time and the 40-point mark for the fifth time. The Vikings also converted eight-of-11 third-down plays.

RBs Hoard and Robert Smith caused the most damage, with the former tallying three TD while the latter accounted for 124 rushing yards. Record setting rookie WR Randy Moss posted the other Minnesota TD. Vikings safety Robert Griffith recorded both INTs for the Vikings. Cardinals Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams gave the Cardinals, trailing 7-0, early life with an end zone INT and 47-yard return on the first play of the second quarter to thwart a Minnesota drive that reached Arizona's seven-yard line.

Short yardage back Mario Bates scored all three Arizona TDs on one-yard runs to set the team postseason single-game rushing TDs record. Arizona held Minnesota sackless for the second consecutive postseason game and for the third time in four weeks. The Cards were flagged for a season-high 13 penalties. RB Adrian Murrell contributed 15 rushes for 62 yards and three receptions for 52 yards. The Cardinals finished the season with 10 wins for the first time since 1976 (10-4).

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 30, FALCONS 24

JANUARY 3, 2009
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,848)

Playing their first postseason contest in a decade and first home playoff game since 1947, the Cardinals took on 11-5 Atlanta. The high-powered Falcons entered the game with the league's #2 rusher (RB Michael Turner) and the Offensive Rookie of the Year (QB Matt Ryan). But the Cards defense was sensational, bottling up Turner (42 rushing yards and 2.3 yards/carry were both season lows), harassing Ryan (2 INTs, 1 fumble and 3 sacks), and scoring points on its own with a TD and safety. The offense was also strong as Edgerrin James led a revitalized ground game while Kurt Warner and Larry Fitzgerald made big plays in the passing game. It all added up to a 6-point Arizona win before a raucous sellout crowd.

On the Cards first scoring drive, it was 3 James runs that perfectly set-up a flea-flicker. James took the hand-off, then flipped it back to Warner who fired 42 yards downfield to Fitzgerald who leapt between two defenders to come down with the ball in the end zone. Early in the 2nd, Atlanta got on the board with a 30-yard Jason Elam FG but the Cards answered quickly. On 3rd-n-9, Warner tossed a short pass to Anquan Boldin who turned upfield and raced 71 yards down the left sideline for the TD. The Falcons would come back. Turner's 7-yard TD run with 2:55 left in the 1st half capped a 14-play, 77-yard drive. On the 3rd play of the next drive, Warner's pass went off the hands of Jerheme Urban and was INT'd by Chevis Jackson at the AZ23, setting up a Ryan TD pass to TE Justin Peelle that made it 17-14 Atlanta at the half.

On the 2nd snap after intermission, DT Darnell Dockett made the game's pivotal play when he blew up a hand-off between Ryan and Turner. FS Antrel Rolle picked the ball out of the air and returned it 27 yards for the go-ahead TD. After the next two Atlanta drives went 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 24 with 10:31 to go in the 3rd. Through a mix of run & pass, including a 6-yard Warner scramble on 3rd-n-5, the Cards chewed 7:43 off the clock on a long drive that ended with Tim Hightower's 4-yard TD run. Rookie CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie ended the next series with a pick off Ryan. That drive ended with a Ben Graham punt that was downed at the ATL3 and on the next play, Antonio Smith sacked Ryan in the end zone for a safety. The Falcons scored on a 5-yard Roddy White TD pass from Ryan with 4:19 to go to trim it to 6 and AZ then took over at its own 20 with 4:19 to go. Two first downs forced Atlanta to burn all 3 timeouts. Then facing a 3rd-n-16 at the ATL46 with 2:17 left, Warner hit TE Stephen Spach with a 23-yard pass that effectively ended the game.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CARDINALS 33, PANTHERS 13

JANUARY 10, 2009
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (73,695)

In a Divisional Playoff match-up at Carolina, all the numbers were stacked against the Cards. They were 0-5 on the east coast in '08 and were facing the only NFL team that went 8-0 at home. Even before it was known that Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin would miss the game with a hamstring injury, few if any gave the Cards a chance against #2 seed Carolina. But when Saturday evening came and the game was played, it was all Arizona. The Panthers produced TDs on their first drive of the game and their last but in between the Cards scored 33 unanswered points. The defense forced 6 Jake Delhomme turnovers (5 INTs and a fumble) and the Cards got 23 of their 33 points off them. WR Larry Fitzgerald was again spectacular, finishing with a team playoff record 166 yards on 8 catches with a TD while the Cards held his Panther all-pro counterpart Steve Smith without a catch until the final minute of the third.

The Panthers took the opening kickoff to midfield and a 31-yard DeAngelo Williams run took it to the 9 before Jonathan Stewart punched it in. Later in the quarter, Fitzgerald's catch-n-run gained 41 on 3rd-n-2 and that led to a 3-yard Tim Hightower TD catch from Kurt Warner that tied it at 7. On the next play from scrimmage, DE Antonio Smith stripped Delhomme on a sack and recovered the fumble himself at the CAR13. That led to a 4-yard Edgerrin James run and a 14-7 score. The Panthers moved to the AZ15 on the next drive thanks to a 45-yard pass interference call but CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie picked off Delhomme at the goal line. Neil Rackers then extended the lead to 20-7 with FGs on the next two AZ drives. A Gerald Hayes INT halted Carolina's following drive on the first play. It was followed by Fitzgerald's 29-yard catch and pylon dive that made it 27-7 at intermission.

The only points of the 3rd quarter came when Antrel Rolle gathered in a Delhomme pass tipped by Rodgers-Cromartie and WR Steve Smith and returned the INT to the CAR26.That set up Rackers' 33-yard FG that made it 30-7. Arizona then ended the first two Panther drives of the 4th quarter with INT's by Ralph Brown and Rod Hood, respectively. Rackers fourth FG of the game made it 33-7 with 3:10 to go and only an 8-yard TD catch by Smith in the final minute made it 33-13.

CARDINALS 32, EAGLES 25

JANUARY 18, 2009
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (70,650)

In a match-up no one foresaw, the Cardinals hosted the Eagles in the NFC Championship Game with the chance to advance to Super Bowl XLIII. Before an electric sell-out crowd, the Cards jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead thanks to three Kurt Warner TD passes to Larry Fitzgerald against an Eagles defense that had not allowed a passing TD in 5 games. Philly then scored 19 unanswered points in the late 3rd and early 4th to take a 25-24 lead. The Cards, however, responded with a drive no one will soon forget. It was a 14-play, 72-yard masterpiece that chewed 7:52 off the clock and ended with Warner's game-winning TD pass to RB Tim Hightower. The TD stamped the Cardinals ticket to the Super Bowl that was made possible by another stellar outing from Fitzgerald. The all-pro WR topped 100 yards for the 5th straight game and tied the NFL record with 3 straight in the postseason with a 9-catch, 152-yard, 3-TD performance.

On the game's opening drive, the Cards moved 80 yards in 9 plays and opened the scoring with a 9-yard Warner-Fitzgerald TD connection. Philly came right back with a 45-yard David Akers FG but he missed a 47-yarder on the following drive. That gave Arizona the ball at its own 38 and on the first play the lead grew to 14-3. Warner handed off to J.J. Arrington who ran right, threw it back to Warner who then tossed it deep to Fitzgerald who hauled it in for a 62-yard TD. After another Akers FG, Warner then capped a 73-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to Fitzgerald that made it 21-6 with 3:06 in the 2nd. AZ successful executed a surprise pooch kick and recovery but the officials inadvertently misruled the ball dead. After a Philly punt, the Cards got the ball back at their own 16 with 1:31 to go and moved into position for a 49-yard Neil Rackers FG.

The Eagles cut the lead to 24-19 in the 3rd when consecutive drives ended with Donovan McNabb TD passes to TE Brent Celek (6 and 31 yards). With 10:45 to go, McNabb's deep pass deflected off the hands of CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and into the hands of WR DeSean Jackson for a 62-yard TD that put Philly up 1 when the 2-point try failed. After the score, the Cards took over at their own 28 with 10:39 to go. Six plays into the drive they faced a pivotal 4th-n-inches decision near midfield. Hightower ran right for 6 yards to pick it up and later put it across the goal-line 8 plays later on a TD catch-n-run on 3rd-n-goal from the 8. Warner on the drive was 5-5 for 56 yards including the game-winning TD pass. He then tossed a 2-point conversion to Ben Patrick to make it 32-25. Philly's ensuing drive reached the AZ47 but on 4th-n-10 from there McNabb's pass fell incomplete and the game was over.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

STEELERS 27, CARDINALS 23

FEBRUARY 1, 2009
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM – (70,774)

Making their first-ever Super Bowl appearance, the Cardinals battled back from a 20-7 4th quarter deficit against the Steelers and took a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining. However, Pittsburgh responded with a game-winning drive and earned their 6th title thanks to a TD with 0:35 on the clock. After catching just one pass thru 3 quarters, WR Larry Fitzgerald finished with 7 grabs for 127 yards and 2 TDs. It allowed him to shatter the NFL postseason records and establish new marks with 30 catches, 456 yards, and 7 receiving TDs.

After Arizona won the opening toss and chose to defer, Pittsburgh marched downfield and Ben Roethlisberger appeared to score a 1-yard TD on a 3rd down scramble. However, when the Cards successfully challenged the spot, the Steelers came away with just a FG. After a holding penalty killed the ensuing AZ drive, the Steelers went 79 yards in 11 plays and took a 10-0 lead on a 1-yard Gary Russell run. On the next series a 45-yard catch-and-run by WR Anquan Boldin took it to the 1 and Warner hit TE Ben Patrick with a TD pass from there. The teams then traded punts but just before the 2:00 warning, Roethlisberger's pass was tipped at the line by DT Bryan Robinson and INT'd at the Steeler 34 by LB Karlos Dansby. With 0:18 left the Cards had advanced to the 1 and used their final timeout. What followed was the game's pivotal play. Warner's quick slant to Boldin was picked at the goal-line by LB James Harrison, who rumbled 100 yards down the right sideline as the half expired. After replay confirmation, the dramatic turn of events had put Pittsburgh up 17-7.

Arizona's opening drive of the 2nd half appeared to end on a Warner fumble but another AZ challenge again reversed the initial call and the drive instead ended on a punt. Pittsburgh then consumed most of the 3rd quarter with a long drive that was aided by several flags from referee Terry McAulay's crew. The 16-play drive ultimately ended in a FG that made it 20-7. With 11:30 to go, the Cards took over at their own 13 and went to the no huddle. The drive consisted entirely of 8 Warner completions for 87 yards and ended on a 1-yard Fitzgerald TD grab. After again trading punts, the Steelers took over at their own 1 and on the 2nd play, a holding call in the end zone resulted in a safety that trimmed the Pittsburgh lead to 20-16. Following the free kick, the Cards took over at their own 36 with 2:53 to go. After an incompletion, Warner hit Fitzgerald at midfield and the WR raced down the middle of the field with the go-ahead TD that covered 64 yards in all. The lead would be short-lived. Pittsburgh took over at its own 22 with 2:30 left and a holding penalty on 1st down backed them up to the 12. Two first downs moved them near midfield and a 40-yard completion to game MVP Santonio Holmes took it to the 6. Two plays later, Holmes came down among 3 defenders and tip-toed the sideline with the winning TD on a play that was upheld by replay. A last-chance Cardinal drive reached the Steeler 44 with 0:15 left but then Warner was ruled to have fumbled before passing and the Steelers recovered. The game ended without McAulay looking at the play.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

JANUARY 10, 2010
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,926)

It was the highest-scoring playoff game in NFL history and certainly among the greatest ever. The Cards and Packers combined for 96 points, 13 touchdowns and over 1,000 total yards. While the offenses were explosive, it was the AZ defense that came up with the game-winning score on the first series of OT when CB Michael Adams sacked Aaron Rodgers; LB Karlos Dansby snatched the ball midair and returned it for a TD. It was one of three huge defensive plays by Dansby. Against the NFL's #2 defense, The Cards jumped out to a 17-0 early lead and led 31-17 early in the 3rd quarter. Green Bay then stormed back behind an inspired effort from Rodgers, tying the game at 38 and again at 45. But while the Packer QB was incredibly good, Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better and cemented his place among the league's greatest postseason passers. He threw for 379 yards and amazingly had more TD passes (5) than incompletions (4). Starting in place of Anquan Boldin (ankle), Steve Breaston had 7 catches for 125 yards and a TD while #3 WR Early Doucet was 6-77-2TDs.

Green Bay entered the game with an NFL-best +24 turnover ratio but the Cards converted two early Packer miscues. On the game's first snap, Dansby deflected a Rodgers pass that Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie INT'd. After Tim Hightower turned it into a TD, Dansby ended the next GB drive with a forced fumble of Donald Driver that Alan Branch recovered. Doucet cashed in on that takeaway with the first of his 2 TD passes that helped the Cards build a 24-10 lead. A Warner-to-Fitzgerald TD on the opening drive of the 2nd half made it 31-10 but the Pack scored quickly with two Rodgers TD passes and a successful on-side kick in between. A 42-yard Beanie Wells run led to another Fitzgerald TD catch but the Pack answered with a Rodgers scoring pass to James Jones that capped 5 straight TD drives to open the 2nd half. After Arizona's only punt of the day, GB tied it at 38 on a 1-yard run by FB John Kuhn early in the 4th. Warner responded with an 80-yard drive and put the Cards back ahead with a TD pass to Breaston. With 1:52 left though the Pack tied it again on Rodgers' 11-yard TD to Spencer Havner. At the end of regulation, Warner marched the Cards into position to win but Neil Rackers was wide left on a 34-yard FG attempt in the closing seconds. GB won the toss and got the ball first in OT. On the first snap, Rodgers had Greg Jennings open down the middle but overthrew him. Shortly thereafter, they had a 3rd-n-6 play at their own 24 when Adams and Dansby combined on the game-winning play.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAINTS 45, CARDINALS 14

JANUARY 16, 2010
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME – (70,149)

Six days after out-dueling the Packers in an explosive Wild Card game, the Cardinals saw their season end in New Orleans against the #1 seeded Saints. RB Tim Hightower raced 70 yards for a TD on the game's first play from scrimmage but after that the Cards faced an uphill battle most of the day. The Saints scored TDs on 5 of their first 6 offensive drives, twice capitalizing on AZ turnovers that gave them short fields. They also took advantage of a depleted Arizona defense that began the game without starting MLB Gerald Hayes (ankle) and in the first quarter lost two more starters – CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie (knee) and FS Antrel Rolle (head).

After Hightower's TD run gave the Cards the early lead, the Saints responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that ended with Lydell Hamilton's 1-yard run. On the next snap, Kurt Warner hit Jerheme Urban on a 28-yard pass down the middle but Urban fumbled it over to the Saints at the AZ37. Drew Brees made the Cards pay 4 plays later when he connected with Jeremy Shockey on a 17-yard scoring pass. The next N.O. drive saw the Cards lose Rolle & Rogers-Cromartie and it ended when Reggie Bush reversed field on a 46-yard TD run that made it 21-7. Arizona then made it a one-score game when Warner led a 9-play, 80-yard drive and Beanie Wells scored from 4 yards out. However, the Saints kept their foot on the accelerator. One play after a 26-yard completion to Marques Colston, Brees connected on a 44-yard flea-flicker to Devery Henderson that made it 28-14. On the 2nd play of the ensuing AZ drive, Warner was INT'd by DE Will Smith at the line of scrimmage and then leveled on the return by a clean block from DE Bobby McCray. When Warner headed to the locker room to have his chest examined, Matt Leinart led the Cards into position for a FG but Neil Rackers missed from 51 yards out as the first half expired.

Warner returned to start the 2nd half but the Cards were never able to cut into the Saints lead. A 43-yard Garrett Hartley FG made it 38-14 and later in the 3rd, Bush's 83-yard punt return TD provided the final dagger.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

PANTHERS 27, CARDINALS 16

JANUARY 3, 2015
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (71,849)

The Cardinals finished the regular season 11-5, earning a Wild Card spot and trip to Carolina to take on the Panthers who captured the NFC South title by winning their last 4 games and finishing 7-8-1. Arizona had dealt with tremendous adversity all season, losing more than 20 players for more than 100 combined games due to injury and coming from behind in 9 of its 11 victories. But while they clawed back from a 10-point deficit to lead at halftime, this time they could not hold on. Arizona started its 3rd straight game with #3 QB Ryan Lindley (after injuries to both Carson Palmer & Drew Stanton) but had its hands full in both the run and pass games where they finished with just 27 and 51 net yards, respectively.

The Panthers jumped out to a 10-0 lead after they took advantage of outstanding field position on their first two series that resulted from a pair of AZ three-n-outs and short punts. The first drive started at the Carolina 48 and led to a 47-yard Graham Gano FG. The Panthers started their second drive at their own 43 and 8 plays later Jonathan Stewart scored on a 13-yard spinning run off the right side. Trailing by 10, the Cards were forced to punt on the next series but caught a break when returner Brenton Bersin mishandled it and Justin Bethel recovered at the Carolina 30. A 14-yard Larry Fitzgerald completion on 3rd-n-10 moved it to the 1 and led to Lindley's 1-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells. It remained 10-7 after Gano missed a 43-yard FG try on the next series. Two drives later, the Panthers advanced to the AZ37 where they faced a 3rd-n-13. CB Antonio Cromartie picked off Cam Newton and returned the INT 50 yards to the AZ17 with 5 minutes left in the 1st half. Four plays later, RB Marion Grice scored from a yard out to put Arizona up 14-10 with 2:50 remaining in the 1st half. It was enough time for Carolina to move 59 yards in 9 plays and Gano's 39-yard FG made it a 1-point game at intermission.

On Arizona's first drive of the 2nd half, WR Michael Floyd appeared to have been interfered with on a 3rd down pass down the left sideline but it went unflagged and the Cards went 3-n-out. A short punt gave Carolina possession at the AZ39 to start their 2nd drive of the 3rd quarter. On the next snap, RB Fozzy Whittaker caught a short screen from Newton and took it 39 yards for a TD. It went from bad to worse on the ensuing kickoff when Ted Ginn fumbled inside the 10 and the Panthers recovered at the AZ3. The defense appeared to hold Carolina to a FG when Newton's 3rd-n-goal pass to TE Greg Olsen fell incomplete but SJ Boris Cheek questionably flagged Tony Jefferson for pass interference. On the next play Newton hit RB Mike Tolbert in the flat for a score; the 2 TDs in a 92 second span made it 27-14 Panthers. With 12 minutes to play LB Sam Acho hit Newton as he was passing and Rashad Johnson returned the empty-hand fumble to the AZ8. On the next play Lindley's pass intended for Fitzgerald was INT'd by LB Luke Kuechley at the 5. The game's only other points came in the closing seconds when punter Brad Nortman took an intentional safety by running out of the end zone.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CARDINALS 26, PACKERS 20 (OT)

JANUARY 16, 2016
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (65,089)

Meeting in the Divisional Playoff round, the Cards and Pack turned in one for the ages. The wild game featured 23 total points in the first 56:15 and then 23 more in the final 4:49. It saw the Cards come back from a 4th quarter deficit to lead late before the Packers completed a 41-yard Hail Mary as time expired to force overtime. But in the end, as it so often does, the game was decided by all-pro WR Larry Fitzgerald who cemented his place among the game's greatest postseason players. He caught 8 passes for a club playoff record 176 yards and a TD. His biggest plays came when AZ needed it most, including a 75-yard catch-n-run on the 1st play of OT after Aaron Rodgers had delivered a gut punch at the end of regulation.

The Cardinals struck first when Michael Floyd's toe-tapping catch of a Carson Palmer pass in the back of the end zone gave them a 7-0 lead. A 100-yard INT return TD by CB Patrick Peterson would have given the Cards a 14-0 lead but it was negated by penalty. Green Bay would then dominate possession thanks to back-to-back 17-play drives that consumed more than 15 minutes in total. However, each ended in FGs rather than TDs and AZ led 7-6 at intermission.

The teams then opened the 3rd quarter by trading interceptions. First S Rashad Johnson picked off Rodgers but 3 plays later Ha Ha Clinton-Dix returned the favor with one off Palmer. RB Eddie Lacy then reeled off consecutive runs of 14 & 61 yards that set-up an 8-yard TD pass to WR Jeff Janis. With the Pack leading 13-7, AZ marched to the GB10 but had to settle for a 28-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG that cut it to 3. The next Cards drive also reached the 10 but Palmer's pass to John Brown in the end zone was picked by CB Damarious Randall. After another Pack punt, the Cards took over at their own 20 down 3 with 10:53 to go. In 13 plays they reached the GB9 when Palmer's pass into the end zone was deflected by Randall but ricocheted to Floyd for a TD. After the Packers turned it over on downs on 4 passes, AZ took over at the GB24 with 2:38 to go. Catanzaro's subsequent 36-yard FG made it 20-13 with 1:55 to play. Needing a TD to tie it, GB faced a 4th-n-20 from its own 4 when Rodgers completed a 60-yard deep ball to Janis that took it to the AZ36 with :21 left. Three plays later they faced a 2nd-n-15 from the AZ41 and time for one heave into the end zone. GB's prayers were answered when Janis came down with Rodgers' pass in the end zone with no time on the clock and the stadium stunned. The crazy ending got crazier when referee Clete Blakeman had to re-do the OT coin toss because it didn't flip on his first try. AZ ultimately won it and started the extra period at its own 20. On the first snap, Palmer spun away from pressure before firing across the field to a wide open Fitzgerald. The veteran WR proceeded to weave his way all the way to the GB 5 on a 75-yard gain. Two plays later, a shovel pass to Fitz ended it.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

PANTHERS 49, CARDINALS 15

JANUARY 24, 2016
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (74,294)

The NFC Championship Game featured the conference's top 2 seeds and league's top 2 offenses as the Cards (13-3) & Panthers (15-1) met in Charlotte with the dream of playing in Super Bowl 50. The dream quickly turned into a nightmare for Arizona. The Panthers scored on their first 3 offensive drives of each half and led 17-0 after one quarter, 24-7 at the half and ultimately won 49-15. They forced 7 Cardinal turnovers (4 INTs/3 fumbles) including 3 very costly ones late in the 2nd quarter when the Cards had a chance to re-claim momentum. It marked the 2nd straight year the Cards' season ended in Carolina and the loss denied Arizona the chance to advance to its 2nd Super Bowl in franchise history.

After a 45-yard Graham Gano FG put Carolina up 3-0, the next Panther drive started at the AZ49 thanks to a 32-yard Ted Ginn punt return. Five plays later, Ginn scored from 22 yards out on a reverse to make it 10-0. Arizona's 3rd straight drive ended in a punt but the defense had a chance to send the Panthers 3-n-out with a stop on 3rd-n-8 from the CAR14 . However, Newton hit Corey Brown with a 26-yard pass to the 40 and the WR broke one tackle to take it the rest of the way for an 86-yard score. Down 17-0 the Cards advanced to the CAR37. On 3rd-n-10, Carson Palmer was sacked by DT Kawann Short forcing a fumble that the Panthers recovered. After the AZ defense forced a 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 21 with 11:47 to play in the half. They would move 79 yards in 10 plays and David Johnson's 1-yard TD run made it 17-7. AZ then held Carolina without a 1st down and the ensuing punt was short. But as Patrick Peterson raced to catch the errant kick, he couldn't hold onto it and the Panthers recovered at the AZ46. Consecutive runs of 17 and 23 by RB Jonathan Stewart took it to the one and on 3rd-n-goal from there Newton was able to break the plane for a TD. On the next snap, Palmer's arm was hit by DE Charles Johnson forcing a fumble the Panthers recovered at the AZ31. Two plays later, though, Peterson INT'd Newton and returned it 72 yards to the 22 with :56 left. But on the very next play, Palmer's pass into the end zone was picked off by S Kurt Coleman allowing the Panthers to take a 24-7 lead into halftime.

Things got no better in the 2nd half for the Cards as another Gano FG and an 11-yard Newton run upped the lead to 34-7. Early in the 4th, Palmer's 21-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells and a successful 2-point conversion made it 34-15 with 14:16 remaining. However, the next 3 AZ drives would end in INTs, one of which was returned 22 yards for a TD by LB Luke Kuechly that provided the game's final points.

HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

THE EARLY DAYS

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

POST WORLD WAR I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and in 1932, the franchise began a continuous period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

Cardinal owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1947 Cardinals captured the Western Division title and took the NFL championship in a season that was bittersweet for the organization. Owner Charles Bidwill had been the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 and helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression." However his death in April of '47, deprived him of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

Still, Bidwill earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was his unprecedented signing of University of Georgia All-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000 that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Elmer Angsman of Notre Dame, and end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football. Also a running back, Goldberg had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, including a 31–7 trouncing of the hated cross-town rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles and incurred their first loss of the season. Afterwards they tragically lost rookie punter Jeff Burkett who missed the game as well as the flight back to Chicago because of an emergency appendectomy. After several days recuperating, the United Airlines DC-6 taking him home crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time.

Under that pall, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Steve Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

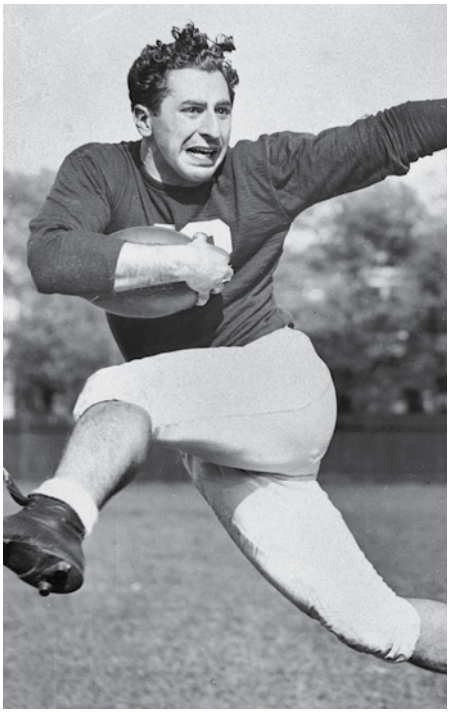
The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears and set-up a showdown in the regular season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field.

The biggest play of the game came on the first snap. Conzelman designed a pass play that would isolate Bears' linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with speedster Boris "Babe" Dimancheff. Because his wife was expecting, Dimancheff missed the entire week of practice. Despite never running it in advance, the play worked to perfection as Dimancheff raced down the center of the field and caught Christman's perfect pass in stride for a TD. The Cardinals also intercepted four passes off legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win. The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later (12/28/47) against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

At a bitterly cold Comiskey Park, pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles attempted to get better footing on the concrete-like playing surface by sharpening and filing their cleats. A succession of penalties opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale. Meanwhile the Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi. In the third quarter, Trippi returned a punt 75 yards for a touchdown. Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159. But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards. The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL Championship with a 10-3 overall record. They defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.



Marshall Goldberg sealed the 1947 championship game victory with a fourth quarter interception.

ON TO ST. LOUIS

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular season record. The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

ARIZONA

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona. All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into University of Phoenix Stadium.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under head coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20–7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and in April of 2004 was killed while serving in Afghanistan. His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL's first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2nd, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a record crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City's Estadio Azteca, the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team's first at University of Phoenix Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the world-class venue has attracted record crowds for the franchise and has allowed the team to sell-out every game played in the venue. On February 3, 2008, the stadium hosted Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots.

The 2008 Cardinals turned in perhaps the most memorable season in franchise history, one that ended with the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance. Arizona qualified for the postseason by clinching its first division title since 1975 and first-ever NFC West crown with a perfect 6-0 divisional record. As the division champs, the Cardinals hosted their first playoff game since 1947 and defeated Atlanta 30-24 in the Wild Card round. Arizona then traveled to Carolina where they faced the heavily favored Panthers but came away with a stunning 33-13 victory. The Cards returned home the following week to host the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Championship game and won their first-ever NFC title by defeating the Eagles 32-25. The victory also secured a date with Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII from Tampa. Before what was then the largest audience in US television history, the Cardinals fell to the Steelers 27-23. Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, Arizona made the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, with a 64-yard TD pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald giving the Cards a 23-20 lead with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes' tip-toe TD reception and the game's deciding score in one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever played.

A new exciting chapter in franchise history began in January of 2013 when team President Michael Bidwill hired GM Steve Keim and head coach Bruce Arians nine days apart. Under the leadership of Bidwill, Keim and Arians, Arizona has posted a 34-14 record over the last three seasons. The Cardinals 34 wins are more than they had in any other three-year span in franchise history. The 2015 season was a banner year for the organization as the team won the NFC West, set a franchise record for wins in the regular season (13) and earned the first postseason bye in team history.

The Cardinals success at home over the last three seasons has also transformed University of Phoenix Stadium into one of the most hostile venues in the NFL for opposing teams. Arizona has a 19-5 record in that span and their .826 home win percentage is tied for the fourth-best mark in the NFL – and the top mark in the NFC.

The Cardinals made their first-ever Super Bowl appearance when they met the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

NOTES

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4–9–1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51–42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Cards individual and opponent marks.

NOTES

Despite 10–4 record (6–1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs … Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day … but the Redskins win 27–14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10–4 and not gain a post-season berth … eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker … Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America … Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards … all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice … Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7–9 … return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records … Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1–8 based upon their records during the season.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23–7 half-time deficit to take a 27–26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29–27 win and the division crown … in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half … Cards finish 9–7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points … Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating … WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

NOTES

Though a 3–1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach … with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests … QB Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times … Yugoslavian K Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

NOTES

Long-time Dallas assistant Gene Stallings named Cards' head coach ... injury-riddled squad manages 4–11–1 mark ... rookie 10th-round pick and RB Vai Sikahema (return specialist) and FB Ron Wolfley (special teams) voted to Pro Bowl ... Sikahema ties NFL record with two punt returns for touchdowns (71 and 60 yards) vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 21 ... WR J.T. Smith sets club single-season mark with 80 pass receptions ... just eight weeks removed from back surgery, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana makes spectacular return at Cards' expense, completing 13 of 19 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns to Jerry Rice in 43–17 win at San Francisco Nov. 9.

NOTES

Encouragement from 4–0 preseason record and 2–0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4–12, the most losses in franchise history … QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery … Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience … little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 … LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

NOTES

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4–12 season … defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) … CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) … Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5–3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7–9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job … rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth … defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 … first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game … Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns … Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) … franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17–10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 … Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17–10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4–12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job … defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries … Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) … low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years … FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record … Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

Improvement from 4–12 to 7–9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach … RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards … QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37–34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 … 0–8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1–15 season with 31–21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 … first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity…team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes…Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998…strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth….an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlos Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stepanovich …defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others…the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games….in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs…the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs….S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

NOTES

The team's second season under head coach Dennis Green was marked by close games (six losses by a TD or less) and plagued by injuries (NFL-high 15 players on injured reserve list) ... Neil Rackers set the NFL record with 40 field goals in the season en route to a Pro Bowl selection ... WR Larry Fitzgerald set the club record for receptions in a season with 103 and also had a team-high 1,409 yards en route to his first Pro Bowl ... Anquan Boldin also recorded 102 receptions and 1,402 yards ... Boldin and Fitzgerald became only the second pair of teammates in NFL history to record 100+ receptions and 1,400+ yards in a season ...in his first year as a Cardinal, Kurt Warner completed 242 of 375 passes to set the club mark for completion percentage with 64.5% ... FS Adrian Wilson led the team with 8.0 sacks, the most ever by an NFL defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982...Arizona finished with the league's #1 passing offense (first time in team history) and ranked 8th in both overall offense and defense (the only NFL team in the top 10 in both)...the team played in the NFL's first-ever regular season game outside of the U.S. and defeated the 49ers in Mexico City in front of an NFL record crowd of 103,467...2005 was the team's 18th and final season at Sun Devil Stadium.

GETTING HELP AT HOME

Having a sellout crowd on hand at University of Phoenix Stadium every game has given the Cardinals one of the NFL's most distinct home field advantages.

Dating back to the inaugural year at the stadium in 2006, Arizona's opponents have accumulated 134 accepted false start penalties, the most for any home team in the NFL during that span.

NFL Leaders - Opponent False Start Penalties (2006-Present)

False Starts	Home Team	Home Stadium
134	Arizona Cardinals	University of Phoenix Stadium
125	Minnesota Vikings	Mall of America Field/TCF Bank Stadium
123	Seattle Seahawks	CenturyLink Field
118	Philadelphia Eagles	Lincoln Financial Field
117	Detroit Lions	Ford Field

SUNDAY FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING FOR THE 2016 REGULAR SEASON

"Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 10-15 and 17. Additionally, in Weeks 5-9, flexible scheduling may be used in no more than two weeks. In Weeks 5-15, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday, Saturday or Monday nights. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game. For Week 17, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior to January 1. The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into prime time.

For the Cardinals, this means the home games vs. Seattle, San Francisco, Washington and New Orleans are subject to flexible scheduling.

The Arizona Cardinals will post all information regarding game times at www.azcardinals.com. We also recommend you check the team's official Instagram, Twitter and Facebook accounts, and other media outlets for additional information regarding scheduled game times.

CARDS THRIVE ON THE BIG STAGE IN 2015

The Cardinals finished the 2015 regular season with a perfect 5-0 record in primetime games. That included a 3-0 mark on NBC's Sunday Night Football. Prior to 2015, Arizona had four total wins on SNF in the previous 14 seasons. The Cards had also never won more than two primetime games in a season.

Cardinals Primetime Results in 2015

Week	Opponent	Result
7	vs. Baltimore (MNF)	W, 26-18
10	@ Seattle (SNF)	W, 39-32
11	vs. Cincinnati (SNF)	W, 34-31
14	vs. Minnesota (TNF)	W, 23-20
15	@ Philadelphia (SNF)	W, 40-17

The Cardinals joined the Patriots (5-1) and Broncos (5-0) as the only teams in the NFL with at least five wins in primetime games in 2015.

Prior to 2015, the last team to go 5-0 or better in primetime games in a season was the Indianapolis Colts (5-0) in 2009. Arizona (5-0) and Denver (5-0) both accomplished the feat last year. The Cardinals joined the Broncos as the only two teams with three wins on SNF in 2015. Since NBC began airing SNF in 2006, no team has won four SNF matchups in a single season.

The 2015 season marked the first time in franchise history the Cardinals won a primetime game on Monday, Thursday and Sunday night.

CARDS GET "FLEXED" AGAIN – PRIMETIME HIGHLIGHTS IN 2015

- The Week 15 matchup at Philadelphia last season was the second Cardinals game in 2015 that was flexed into Sunday Night Football after the Bengals home matchup in Week 11. The 2015 season marked the first time in team history that the Cardinals were flexed multiple times in a season.
- The Cardinals have appeared in a primetime game in consecutive weeks three times in team history. Two of those instances occurred in 2015.
- Arizona appeared in a franchise-record five primetime games in the 2015 regular season, all of which occurred in a span of eight games.
- Prior to the Cardinals last year, the only team "flexed" into SNF twice in a season was Philly in 2013. No team has ever been "flexed" three times in a season. The Vikings were "flexed" twice in 2015 as well.

MICHAEL BIDWILL AND GOV. DOUG DUCEY ENTER THE NFF LEADERSHIP HALL OF FAME

Arizona Cardinals President Michael Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey were inducted into the National Football Foundation (NFF) Leadership Hall of Fame in January at a ceremony that served as the kickoff event leading up to the CFP National Championship at University of Phoenix Stadium.

"I was honored and humbled to get the call that I was going to be inducted into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame, especially when it was going to be with Governor Doug Ducey because he has done such an amazing job," said Bidwill. "My grandfather is in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and to be in this Hall of Fame, I could not be more excited about it. I want to thank my family. Our family is great, and we're focused on the team, the community and winning. It's exciting to see what we're doing on the field."

"This is a great honor, and I am proud to share it with my good friend Michael Bidwill," said Governor Ducey, "Arizona has had quite a year. Not only is our state on the rise, but there has been a lot of talk about the Arizona Cardinals, and I think it's remarkable that this team has had its most successful year since they have moved to the state of Arizona and that's a message to the rest of the country. It's a real testament to Michael's partnership in growing this economy and his commitment to excellence."

Notable attendees at the ceremony included Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, General Manager Steve Keim, noted philanthropist Cindy McCain, College Football Hall of Fame quarterback Danny White (Arizona State) and former Arizona Cardinals defensive backs and Pro Football Hall of Famers Aeneas Williams and Larry Wilson.

"Governor Ducey and Michael Bidwill share many similar traits, and they have developed a close relationship with the singular goal of making Arizona a better place," said NFF Chairman Archie Manning. "They have formed a powerful public-private partnership, and we are proud to recognize them for their joint leadership and their efforts to unify their state and promote its reputation as a prime place to conduct business with an unmatched quality of life."

Bidwill and Gov. Ducey became the seventh and eighth inductees into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame, joining New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie, the father of aerobics Dr. Kenneth Cooper, legendary attorney Joe Jamail, Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones, Bruin Sports Capital CEO George Pyne and Wasserman Media Group Chairman and CEO Casey Wasserman. Each inductee's accomplishments are enshrined in an exhibit at the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta as role models for future generations to emulate.

PFWA PHOENIX CHAPTER RECOGNIZES PALMER AND MATHIEU IN 2015

Cardinals quarterback Carson Palmer was named the team's MVP in 2015 by the Arizona chapter of the Pro Football Writers Association and safety Tyrann Mathieu was given the Good Guy Award.

Palmer set Cardinals single-season records with 35 TD passes, 4,671 passing yards and a 104.6 passer rating while earning his third career Pro Bowl selection in 2015. He led an offense that set franchise records for points (489), TDs (58), total yards (6,533) and first downs (373). NFL POLICY FOR RETRACTABLE ROOFS

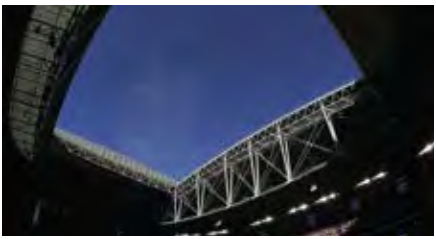
The National Football League's Policy for Retractable Domed Stadiums was developed by the NFL Competition Committee. Changes were made to the Policy in 2015 that will remain for the upcoming 2016 season.

Below is the excerpt from the 2016 Policy Manual for Member Clubs, detailing the league's policy for retractable roofs. At present, University of Phoenix Stadium, Reliant Stadium in Houston, Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis and Cowboys Stadium in Dallas are the only four venues in the NFL with retractable roofs.



GENERAL POLICY

Until 90 minutes prior to kickoff, the home club will have the authority to determine if the retractable roof should be open or closed for each preseason and regular season game. The home club may choose to open the roof for some games and not for others.

In the event a game is started with the roof in the open position and it is closed pursuant to the procedures set forth below, the roof must thereafter remain in the closed position for the duration of the game.

If the roof is in the closed position for the first half of the game, the home club may elect to open the roof for the second half of the game, provided that such election takes place no later than 90 minutes before kickoff, the "NFL Retractable Roof Halftime Election Form" is properly submitted at that 90 minute meeting to the opposing club and the NFL Football Operations department, and the weather parameters set forth in the Election Form are satisfied when five minutes remain in the second quarter.

PRE-GAME PROCEDURES

1) In the week prior to a game and on game day, to preserve and protect the field, the League's tarp rule will be in effect, if the roof is open.
2) Forty-eight hours prior to kickoff, the home club must submit to the Football Operations department its defined weather parameters for opening the retractable roof at halftime, assuming an election to do so has been made at the 90-minute meeting on game day. For the purposes of this policy, "weather parameters" include maximum and minimum temperatures, maximum and minimum wind speeds, and likelihood of any precipitation or hazardous condition for the remainder of the game.
3) No later than one and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home club is required to notify the Referee or the highest-ranking League official working at the game whether the roof shall be open or closed. The opening or closing of the roof as designated by the home club should be completed no later than 60 minutes prior to kickoff. All overhead lighting must be on prior to team warm-ups and must remain on for the duration of the game.
4)) If, subsequent to the home club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, a hazardous condition (lightning, severe winds, etc.) develops or is anticipated that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators, as determined by the Referee after receiving input from the Stadium Manager and the highest-ranking League official working at the game, the roof shall be closed immediately. If it begins to rain at any time after the club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, the roof shall be closed immediately, by signal of the Referee to the Stadium Manager.

HALFTIME PROCEDURES

1)) If at the 90-minute meeting the home club elected to open the roof at halftime, the roof must remain opened if the defined weather parameters are in place when five minutes remain in the second quarter. The weather parameters will be verified by the Football Operations department utilizing its designated weather service provider. Final determination as to whether the weather parameters have been satisfied will be made by the Football Operations department with two minutes remaining in the second quarter.
2) The visiting and home Head Coach must be notified by a member of the officiating crew that the roof will be opened for the second half immediately after the conclusion of the first half.
3) The opening of the roof at halftime must commence as soon as the first half ends to ensure that the roof is fully opened prior to the start of the second half.
4) In the event the home club fails to open the retractable roof after: (a) an election has been made; (b) the defined weather parameters have been satisfied: and (c) receiving approval from the Football Operations department to open the roof, the club will be subject to discipline by the Commissioner for conduct detrimental, absent any exigent circumstances such as mechanical failure of the retractable roof.

IN-GAME PROCEDURES

1) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time due to the development or anticipation of a hazardous condition that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators. The game Referee, in consultation with the highest-ranking League official working at the game, after receiving input from the Stadium Manager, will decide if the roof should be closed. If the roof is closed pursuant to the above, it must remain closed for the duration of the game. Play may continue while the roof is being closed, subject to the Referee suspending play pursuant to the procedures for emergency situations.
2) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time up to the last five minutes of the fourth period if it begins to rain. The decision to close the roof will be made by the Referee, who will signal to the Stadium Manager or otherwise communicate to him or her to begin closing the roof. Play will continue while the roof is closing.
3) If the fourth period ends with the roof in the open position, no change will be made prior to or during an overtime period, unless the roof is closed pursuant to the procedures for hazardous conditions as set forth in No. 1 above.

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

When the Cardinals embarked upon the task of building a new stadium they were intent on constructing a bold and innovative venue that would set the industry standard for design excellence and provide the ultimate in fan comfort. The result of those efforts is the $450 million University of Phoenix Stadium that opened in August of 2006. In addition to hosting Cardinals games, it hosts the annual Fiesta Bowl and has hosted the BCS National Championship game twice. It was also the site of two Super Bowls - XLII in 2008 (Giants over Patriots) and XLIX in 2015 (Patriots over Seahawks) in addition to the 2015 Pro Bowl.

Prior to the 2014 NFL season, University of Phoenix Stadium underwent a $20 million upgrade to help improve the game-day experience. As part of a collaboration between the Cardinals and the Arizona Sports & Tourism Authority (AZSTA), the videoboards at the north and south ends were upgraded and now feature high contrast technology for the clearest image quality. The Cardinals also undertook a significant project to upgrade the telecommunications systems for improved wireless coverage at the stadium. The team installed a state of the art Cisco HD Wi-Fi system to allow fans access to high-speed internet in their seats and in all public areas of the stadium, which now features seven times as many total access points distributed throughout the venue and 10 times as much bandwidth.

This offseason, the stadium received yet another upgrade when a state-of-the-art sound system was installed that will have a profound impact on the fan experience.

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has already become a distinctive Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE FIELD: University of Phoenix Stadium also features a unique rollout natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million-pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and will takes approximately 60 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows University of Phoenix Stadium to serve as a true multipurpose venue featuring a 160,000 square-foot event floor for other events.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air conditioned environment during the hot months but the roof can be opened during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 10 minutes to open or close.

SCOREBOARDS: As part of a collaboration between the Cardinals & the Arizona Sports & Tourism Authority (AZSTA), videoboards at the north & south ends were upgraded prior to the 2014 season. Both are more than triple the size of the previous ones. At the south end is a high-definition LED video display that measures 54 feet high by 164 feet wide and provides an additional 8,856 square feet of live video and replays. Featuring a 13HD pixel layout for crisp, clear imagery and 75% higher resolution, the display is capable of showing one large image to highlight live video and instant replays. It can also be divided into separate sections to show additional stats and information that fans want. The videoboard at the north end is also triple the size of the previous one, measuring 27 feet high by 97 feet wide. Both displays feature high contrast technology for the best in image quality.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY: University of Phoenix Stadium has an IP infrastructure that supports telecommunications throughout the Stadium. The voice and data communication network infrastructure is built entirely on Cisco equipment. All telecommunications services for voice, data, and video broadcast distribution are provided by COX Business Services and are provided via redundant services to the Stadium.

The stadium supports 2500 unique telephone DID numbers on a DS-1/PRI backbone. The Stadium provides 3Gb of Internet bandwidth, which can be adjusted as needed to support any technology requests that come to the stadium, and additional bandwidth can be requested in advance to increase the capacity as needed.

In 2013 the Stadium DAS system upgrade began using Crown Castle and a neutral host system. In 2014, the system was completely finished and hosts all major carriers, Verizon, AT&T, T-Mobile, and Sprint, and has multiple 4G-LTE sectors for each carrier, according to the needs of each.

In 2014 the Stadium Computing Network and Wi-Fi Systems were completely upgraded by CDW. An HD Wi-Fi System was installed throughout the stadium, which includes approximately 800 Cisco AP's and antennas, and is supported by a Cisco Prime Network infrastructure running over a 10Gb fiber optic backbone (an acceptable usage policy for the Wi-Fi system will be posted in the press box). The stadium also upgraded the Cisco Unified Communications System, replaced all Core and Edge switches and servers, as well as upgraded all security systems.

In 2015, outdoor Wi-Fi coverage was installed, starting at the Great Lawn and South Lawn, where the majority of outdoor events at the stadium take place. In addition, a number of Bluetooth Beacons were installed this summer, which can be used for a variety of purposes, including information sharing, marketing and promotions.

MULTI-PURPOSE: Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, University of Phoenix Stadium is able to host far more than just Cardinals home games. Since opening in August of 2006, the building has hosted a pair of Super Bowls, the 2015 Pro Bowl, the Rolling Stones, U2, high school proms, the first-ever BCS National Championship game (Florida-Ohio State), monster truck shows, Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, high school football championships, trade shows and conventions, the West Regionals of the NCAA men's basketball tournament, and numerous other events. University of Phoenix Stadium hosted the CFP National Championship Game in January of 2016 and was selected to host Arizona's first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four in 2017.

In a given year, SMG (the buildings operator) successfully books 225+ event days for gatherings large, small and in between.

OTHER FEATURES: In addition to its high-design architecture and innovative design, the stadium also sets new standards for stadium comfort. Its layout provides for excellent site lines, comfortable seats, abundant restrooms and concession stands, spacious end-zone viewing decks, and wide concourses with an open design allowing for an unobstructed view of the field from both the lower and upper concourses. The stadium showcases two state-of-the-art videoboard/scoreboard displays prominently located in the end zones with excellent site lines from all seating areas.

It is also aligned along a slight northwest to southeast axis to offer the maximum sun exposure for the grass field and maximum shade for stadium patrons. University of Phoenix Stadium includes 88 luxury lofts - know elsewhere as "suites" - that are unlike any others in the sports industry. Featuring a bold, modern interior design, loft amenities include preferred parking, an exclusive entrance, private restrooms, multiple televisions, and in-loft catering. In addition to the lofts, a luxurious Club Level features wider seats, preferred parking, private entrances, and a climate controlled Club Lounge with multiple two-story spaces, comfortable lounge seating, plentiful TV monitors, upgraded food and beverage offerings and dedicated restrooms. On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. This 160-acre region, known as Sportsman's Park, features over 20 acres of turf including the eight-acre public area known as the Great Lawn. In addition to the 14,000 on-site spaces, parking for an additional 7,500 vehicles is conveniently located on adjacent parcels and another 3,500 on other nearby parcels. University of Phoenix Stadium is owned by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority.

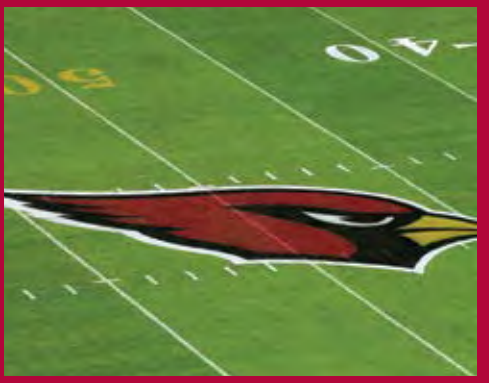
S.I. NAMES UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM BEST FIELD IN NFL



Sports Illustrated named the Arizona Cardinals playing surface at University of Phoenix Stadium as the best in the NFL last October.

In formulating its list, the publication said it relied on "past player rankings, insight from current players and details from groundskeepers."

In ranking University of Phoenix Stadium #1, Sports Illustrated wrote: "You'll hear very little argument about who holds the top spot for the best field in the NFL. Sure, Arizona has plenty of sunshine and can grow a healthy amount of Tifway 419 Bermuda grass, but more importantly, the Cardinals have the pleasure of rolling the field outside the stadium. The entire playing surface is retractable, in one giant tray, allowing the turf to grow and get maintained outside the stadium, coming inside only for NFL football games. And with a groundskeeping staff doing a stellar job with the turf, Arizona earns the top spot."

In addition to SI, the National Football League Players Association (NFLPA) has also asked players to rank the league's top playing surfaces in the past. The field at University of Phoenix Stadium has finished #1 in every NFLPA survey released since the venue opened in 2006.

Below is the Sports Illustrated list of the top 10 fields in the NFL:

Venue	Team
1. UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM	ARIZONA CARDINALS
2. RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM	TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS
3. SUN LIFE STADIUM	MIAMI DOLPHINS
4. QUALCOMM STADIUM	SAN DIEGO CHARGERS
5. BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM	CAROLINA PANTHERS

"There's no doubt that this will have a profound impact on the fan experience," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "As much as the stadium's visual presentation was improved by the recently upgraded scoreboards, this project's impact on the audio presentation will be just as significant, if not more so."

Funded by the Cardinals, the replacement of the stadium's original audio system was completed in August. The equipment was provided by manufacturer L-Acoustics while Pro Sound is handled the installation.

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding University of Phoenix Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004 while serving his country as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit.

Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large white bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side.

The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of black concrete that measures 42 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State.

The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet.

To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

CARDINALS PRESERVE PAT TILLMAN'S LOCKER AT TEMPE FACILITY

Last September, on the 14th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks, the Cardinals unveiled the locker of former safety Pat Tillman at the team's Tempe Training Facility.

A new locker room was built as part of a two-year, $15 million renovation of the facility, but Tillman's locker was preserved to display in a glass enclosure between the weight room and cafeteria. Included in the locker are Tillman's jersey, helmet, shoulder pads and draft card, along with a description of his life and career.

"We've decided to preserve Pat Tillman's locker, and tell his story," team president Michael Bidwill said at the unveiling ceremony. "Many of our future players and even current players may not know the stories of the Cardinals. But we wanted to tell the stories and talk about the history, the history of our organization and the history of Pat Tillman."

After a decorated career at Arizona State University, Tillman was selected in the seventh round (226th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Cardinals and he played for Arizona from 1998-2001 before enlisting in the U.S. Army in 2002. He was killed in action in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

Tillman's No. 40 is retired by the Cardinals and he is a member of the team's Ring of Honor.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX SECURES STADIUM NAMING RIGHTS

On September 26, 2006 the Cardinals and University of Phoenix announced an exclusive, multi-year agreement with University of Phoenix to become the team's naming rights partner. It marked the first time and only time a National Football League venue has been named after an educational institution.

University of Phoenix, the largest private university in the United States, agreed to invest an average of $7.7 million per year for 20 years in exchange for naming rights, signage and a variety of advertising, marketing and merchandising opportunities. In addition, the alliance enables the University - already international in scope - to reach an even greater number and diversity of potential students, while staying grounded in its hometown community, according to Brian Mueller, president of Apollo Group, the University's parent company.

University of Phoenix was founded over 35 years ago, and serves students both on-line and with 91 campuses and learning centers worldwide.

STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

The press box at University of Phoenix Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for the Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Schoenfeld worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and current beat writer Kent Somers, "Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too - and didn't hesitate to call them. It's fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon."

CARDINALS BROADCASTS DOMINATE LOCAL TELEVISION AGAIN IN 2015

The Cardinals Divisional playoff OT victory over the Packers on NBC posted an 18.8/33 household rating to rank as the highest-rated Saturday primetime Divisional game ever. The telecast averaged 33.7 million viewers, with nearly 39 million tuning into the dramatic final minutes.

Locally, the thrilling win over Green Bay registered a 37.9 rating and a 60 share. That was the highest local rating for a Cardinals game broadcast since their appearance in Super Bowl XLIII.

Arizona's playoff victory over Green Bay followed a 2015 regular season that was the most successful in team history, and local television viewers responded accordingly and the team's broadcast ratings continued to set records.

In a listing of the Top 50 TV programs of any kind in Phoenix from Labor Day through the end of the 2015 regular season, Cardinals game broadcasts occupied spots 1-15.

According to Nielsen Media research, the 2015 regular season finale against Seattle delivered a local rating of 27.4 and a 48 share while reaching 507,000 Valley households. It was the sixth time in the last eight games of the season that the Cardinals broadcast was watched in more than half-a-million homes.

Three of the top five rated regular season games in team history took place in the second half of the 2015 campaign, and the 60 share for the Cardinals Week 16 game vs. Green Bay was the highest-ever for a regular season contest.

The Cardinals finished the regular season with a per-game rating of 26.4, a 46 share and averaged 487,000 Valley households. Each ranked as the second-best figures in team history (2014: 27.5 rating, 49 share, 504,000 households).

In addition to the huge TV numbers, the Cardinals again sold out every home game at University of Phoenix Stadium, extending their sellout streak to 104 games (every game since the building opened in 2006).

CARDINALS CONTINUE TO SELL OUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

The Cardinals sellout streak at University of Phoenix Stadium continued last season, selling out all 11 games (including preseason and postseason). Entering the 2016 season, the team has sold out all 104 games played at the stadium. Arizona averaged 63,926 fans per game in 2015, totaling 703,184 fans in their 11 home games.

Arizona finished the 2015 regular season with a 6-2 record at home, marking the ninth straight season with a .500 record or better at home. As NFC West champions and the No. 2 seed in the NFC, the Cardinals hosted Green Bay in the Divisional round of the playoffs and won a dramatic 26-20 overtime contest. The win improved the Cardinals to 4-0 all-time in the playoffs at University of Phoenix Stadium and gave them a 56-28 home record, including postseason, dating back to the stadium's inaugural season in 2006.

With a 13-3 overall record in 2015, the Cardinals have now gone .500 or better in seven of the 10 seasons at University of Phoenix Stadium, and they earned the franchise's fourth playoff berth and third NFC West title in that span. The Cardinals finished .500 or better just twice and made the playoffs only one time in the 18 seasons prior.

Before the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006 there were only 12 games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

ROY GREEN TO ENTER RING OF HONOR

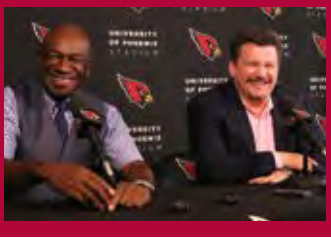
During halftime of the October 2, 2016 game vs. the Los Angeles Rams at University of Phoenix Stadium, the Cardinals will induct WR Roy Green into the Ring of Honor.

A true triple-threat who excelled on offense, defense, and special teams, Green spent 12 seasons (1979-90) with the Cardinals after joining the team as a fourth-round selection (89th overall) in the 1979 NFL Draft out of Henderson State. He was a two-time Pro Bowl selection (1983-84) and two-time All-Pro selection (1983-84).

Green's place among the franchise's all-time greats is clearly demonstrated by his stellar career numbers. He ranks second in Cardinals history in career touchdowns (69), third in all-purpose yards (10,798), and fourth in 100-yard receiving games (20). His 26 touchdowns scored between 1983-84 are the most by any player in franchise history over a two-year span. He had three 1,000-yard receiving seasons (1983, '84, '88) and had a career-high 14 touchdowns in 1983 and 12 touchdowns in 1984.

He finished his Cardinals career with 522 receptions for 8,496 yards and 66 receiving touchdowns in 168 regular season games (127 starts). He also returned 84 kickoffs for 1,932 yards (23.0 yard avg.) and one touchdown, had 27 punt returns for 230 yards and one touchdown and had 140 yards and one touchdown on 23 rushes. Green also played defensive back with the Cardinals and had four interceptions and four fumble recoveries. He played his final two NFL seasons (1991-92) with Philadelphia where he appeared in 22 games with three starts before retiring in 1993.

Green began his professional career as a return specialist and set a then-NFL record at in 1979 with a 106-yard kickoff return touchdown. That 106-yard return was also a team record until it was broken last season by David Johnson's 108-yard return at Chicago.



Green will become the 16th member of the Cardinals Ring of Honor, the creation of which coincided with the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006. He will be the first wide receiver in the group whose other 15 members include Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. (Owner), Jimmy Conzelman (Coach), T Dan Dierdorf, HB John "Paddy" Driscoll, HB/DB Marshall Goldberg, CB Dick "Night Train" Lane, HB Ollie Matson, HB Ernie Nevers, S Pat Tillman, HB Charley Trippi, QB Kurt Warner, CB Roger Wehrli, CB Aeneas Williams, S Adrian Wilson and S Larry Wilson. Eleven of the 15 members of the Cardinals Ring of Honor are also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BRUCE ARIANS HONORED BY FRITZ POLLARD ALLIANCE

Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians was honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance in February with the organization's "Game Ball Award" in a ceremony at the site of the annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis.

Arians was honored for the Cardinals success on the field in 2015 and for his commitment to extending opportunities to minorities in the National Football League. During his first two seasons with Arizona (2013-14), the Cardinals were the only team in the NFL whose offensive and defensive coordinators were both African American (Harold Goodwin & Todd Bowles).

In 2015, former Pro Bowl linebacker Levon Kirkland became the inaugural recipient of the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship, a program established by the Cardinals to provide recently-retired minority NFL players the opportunity to gain experience at the highest level. The Cardinals also made history when one of their seven training camp interns in 2015, Jen Welter, became the first woman to hold a coaching position in the NFL as she worked with the team's inside linebackers.

The Cardinals have long been at the forefront in providing opportunities regardless of race or gender. In 2010, owner Bill Bidwill was honored with the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity in the NFL. In 1978, Adele Harris became the first African American female executive in the NFL when she was hired as the Cardinals director of community relations. In 1981, Bidwill hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club. Arizona was also the first NFL team with an African American general manager/head coach tandem (Rod Graves/Dennis Green, 2004).

"The Fritz Pollard Alliance is very proud of the support and the relationship we have always received from the Cardinals Football Club for many years," said John Wooten, the Chairman of the Fritz Pollard Alliance.

"I can't put into words what this means because of who's giving it to me," said Arians. "To have these guys honor me, it's rewarding."

Formed in March of 2003, the Fritz Pollard Alliance was organized for the purposes of promoting diversity and equality of job opportunity in the coaching, front office and scouting staffs of National Football League teams. The FPA works closely with the NFL to develop hiring guidelines for front office and scouting positions as well as talent development.

LONG-TIME CARDINALS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE GEORGE BOONE PASSES AWAY

Boone worked for the Cardinals for 28 years as the team's Assistant Player Personnel Director (1968-72), Director of Player Personnel (1973-91) and finally as a Scout (2001-05) prior to his retirement in 2006.

"On behalf of my family and the entire Cardinals organization, we extend our condolences to DeDee and all of those who knew and loved George," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "He gave so much of his life to the sport of football and the Cardinals in particular. All of us are better for his contributions."

A native of Louisville, KY, Boone was a walk-on at the University of Kentucky where he was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle from 1957-59. He was awarded SEC honors and earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Kentucky where he also served as an assistant coach for six years (1960-65).

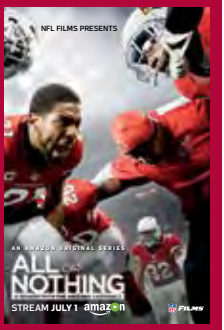
CARDINALS FEATURED IN INAUGURAL SEASON OF NFL FILMS GROUNDBREAKING NEW SERIES "ALL OR NOTHING"



NFL Films, the most honored filmmaker in sports television history, announced the creation of a new series, All or Nothing, that premiered exclusively on Amazon Video in July. Drafting off NFL Films' huge success in the sports reality genre, All or Nothing offers fans a glimpse into the week-to-week drama that unfolds within the lives of players, coaches and owners of an NFL franchise during the course of the regular season. The inaugural season of All or Nothing features the 2015 Arizona Cardinals team that captured the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

"All or Nothing delivers the ultimate behind-the-scenes look at America's most popular sports and entertainment media property – the NFL's regular season – and we couldn't have asked for a better franchise for our inaugural season than the Arizona Cardinals," said Jordan Levin, Chief Content Officer, NFL Media. "We're thrilled to team up with Amazon on this new series, providing fans even more ways to engage with award-winning NFL programming over a variety of digital channels."

"We take tremendous pride in the dedicated and talented people that make up our organization and welcomed this opportunity to showcase them," said Michael Bidwill, President, Arizona Cardinals. "This unprecedented look into what it takes to compete in the National Football League is something that we think viewers will find fascinating. We all know the quality of work NFL Films does and are just as excited to work with Amazon to find such an innovative way to distribute this series."

"This show is going to give customers a front row seat to some of the most exciting, never before seen, football action," said Michael Paull, Vice President, Digital Video, Amazon. "There is a thrilling story behind how these athletes compete on the field, and we are very excited to work with the NFL to deliver amazing programming for our customers."

Premiering in July on Amazon Video, all eight, hour-long episodes of All or Nothing: A Season with the Arizona Cardinals are available to all Amazon customers via the Amazon Video app for TVs, connected devices including Fire TV, and mobile devices or online. For a list of all Amazon Video compatible devices, visit www.amazon.com/howtostream.

In All or Nothing: A Season with the Arizona Cardinals, NFL Films takes viewers inside the locker room, on the sidelines, and to the homes of Cardinals players and team personnel for an extraordinary view into the NFL's regular season, one that would ultimately result in the best regular season in franchise history. The inaugural installment of the series picks up with the Cardinals following the season-ending injury to quarterback Carson Palmer in 2014. It follows the team's brain trust of Bidwill, general manager Steve Keim and head coach Bruce Arians starting with the 2015 NFL Draft and continuing throughout the season. Along the way the series chronicles the on and off-field events in the lives of Arizona players, including Pro Bowlers Palmer, wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald, cornerback Patrick Peterson and safety Tyrann Mathieu.

Over the course of the NFL's 2015 regular season, the NFL Films crew was embedded with the Arizona Cardinals at the team headquarters in Tempe, at games both at University of Phoenix Stadium and on the road, and in the lives of players, coaches, and team executives away from the field.
